The Board of Directors of Beverly Enterprises, Inc. (the Company ) has approved an amendment (the Amendment ) to the Rights Agreement, dated as of January 26, 2005, as the same may be amended from time to time (the Agreement ), between the Company and The Bank of New York, as Rights Agent. The purpose of the Amendment is to clarify that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Agreement, no person shall be deemed the beneficial owner of, or shall be deemed to beneficially own, any security solely by reason of that person's solicitation or receipt of Special Meeting Notices, Special Meeting Demands and/or Nomination Notices from another person, and no person shall be deemed the beneficial owner of, or shall be deemed to beneficially own, any security solely by reason of such person's execution, individually or together with other persons, or such person's delivery to another person, of a Special Meeting Notice, Special Meeting Demand and/or Nomination Notice. For purposes of the Amendment, the terms Special Meeting Notice , Special Meeting Demand and Nomination Notice shall have the meanings set forth in the resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board ) contained in Exhibit 99.1 to the Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 23, 2005 (the March Resolutions ) and the resolutions, effective as of March 25, 2005, attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto. Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 22, 2005, the Company announced that the Board had unanimously voted to conduct an auction process to maximize value for all of the Company's stockholders as soon as practicable through a sale of the Company.

The Company also announced that, to ensure maximum accountability in pursuing an effective sale process, the Board had unanimously voted to hold a special meeting (the Special Meeting ) of stockholders six months following the upcoming April 21, 2005 annual meeting, if requested by beneficial owners of at least 20% of the Company's common stock.

In order to assure that stockholders have the ability to elect a new board in October by plurality vote in the same manner as at an annual meeting, the current members of the Board have agreed that they will submit their resignations prior to the October meeting, even though they intend to stand for reelection if stockholders request such a meeting.

The Company understands that certain holders of the Company's common stock have expressed concerns about the procedures relating to the Special Meeting specified in the March

Resolutions. In response to these concerns, the Board has adopted additional resolutions, effective as of March 25, 2005, set forth as Exhibit 99.1 hereto, setting forth alternative procedures relating to the Special Meeting.
