Capital Properties, Inc.
PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

April 24, 2007

SOLICITATION AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

The accompanying proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of Capital Properties, Inc. (the Company), in connection with the annual meeting of shareholders to be held April 24, 2007. The Company will bear the cost of such solicitation. It is expected that the solicitation of proxies will be primarily by mail. Proxies may also be solicited personally by regular employees of the Company at nominal cost. The Company may reimburse brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries holding stock for others in their names, or in those of their nominees, for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in sending proxy materials to their principals or beneficial owners and obtaining their proxies. Any shareholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time prior to its exercise, but the revocation of a proxy will not be effective until notice thereof has been given to the Secretary of the Company. Notice of revocation may be delivered in writing to the Secretary prior to the meeting or may be transmitted orally to the Secretary at the meeting. Every properly signed proxy will be voted in accordance with the specifications made thereon.

This proxy statement and the accompanying proxy are expected to be first sent to shareholders on or about March 22, 2007.

VOTING AT MEETING

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on March 1, 2007, will be entitled to vote at the meeting. Under the Company's articles of incorporation, as amended, each shareholder has one vote for every share of common stock owned. On the record date, there were 3,299,956 shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding. There were no other outstanding securities of the Company entitled to vote.

The directors will be elected in each case by vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present or represented at the meeting.

Shares represented by proxies which are marked "withhold authority" with respect to the election of any particular nominee for director, or to deny discretionary authority on any other matters will be counted as shares present and entitled to vote, and accordingly any such marking of a proxy will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to which it relates. Brokers who hold shares in street name may lack authority to vote such shares on certain items, absent specific instructions from their customers. Shares subject to such "broker non-votes" will not be treated as shares entitled to vote on the matters to which they relate and therefore will be treated as not present at the meeting for those purposes, but otherwise will have no effect on the outcome of the voting on such matters. It is not presently anticipated that any matter which might be the subject of a "broker non-vote" will come before the annual meeting.

Table of Contents*ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the annual meeting, five directors are to be elected to hold office until the next annual meeting and until their respective successors are elected and qualified. The proxies named in the accompanying proxy, who have been designated by the Board of Directors, intend to vote, unless otherwise instructed, for the election to the Board of Directors of the persons named below, all of whom are now directors of the Company. Certain information concerning such nominees is set forth below:

Name and Age	Principal Occupation During Past Five Years	Director Since
Ronald P. Chrzanowski (64)	President of the Company, 1998 to present	1998
Robert H. Eder (74)	Chairman of the Company, 1995 to present; Chairman, Providence and Worcester Railroad Company, 1988 to present	1995
Alfred J. Corso (70)	Consultant, 2001 to present;	2005
Roy J. Nirschel (54)	President, Roger Williams University, 2001 to present	2005
Harris N. Rosen (74)	Consultant and Mediator, 2001 to present; Interim Executive Vice President, Jewish Federation of Rhode Island, January to October 2006	2001

Mr. Eder is also a director of Providence and Worcester Railroad Company.

The Board of Directors has determined that all of the current directors of the Company, which include each of the nominees standing for election at the 2007 annual shareholders meeting, other than Ronald P. Chrzanowski and Robert H. Eder, are independent of the Company in that such nominees have no material relationship with the Company either directly, or as a partner, shareholder or affiliate of an organization that has a relationship with the Company. The Board has made this determination based on the following:

Other than Messrs. Eder and Chrzanowski, no nominee for director is an officer or employee of the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates;

No nominee for director has an immediate family member who is an officer of the Company or its subsidiaries or has any current or past material relationship with the Company;

No nominee for director, other than Messrs. Eder and Chrzanowski, has worked for, consulted with, been retained by, or received anything of substantial value from the Company aside from his compensation as a director;

No nominee for director is, or was within the past three years, employed by the independent registered public accountants for the Company;

No executive officer of the Company serves on the Compensation Committee or the Board of Directors of any corporation that employs a nominee for director or a member of the immediate family of any nominee for director;

Table of Contents

No nominee for director is an executive officer of any entity which the Company's annual sales to or purchases from exceeded one percent of either entity's annual revenues for the last fiscal year; and

No nominee for director serves as a director, trustee, executive officer or similar position of a charitable or non-profit organization to which the Company or its subsidiaries made charitable contributions or payments in fiscal year 2006 in excess of five percent of the organization's consolidated gross revenues, or $200,000, whichever is more, at any time during the past three years.

Communications with the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has established a process for shareholders to communicate with members of the board. If you have any concern, question or complaint regarding our compliance with any policy or law, or would otherwise like to contact the Board of Directors, you may reach the Company's Board of Directors by writing directly to those individuals c/o Capital Properties, Inc., 100 Dexter Road, East Providence, Rhode Island 02914.

All inquiries received shall not be screened by the Company and will be forwarded directly to the director to whom such inquiry is addressed, unless it is believed that a particular inquiry may pose a security risk. The Board of Directors sits as a committee of the whole to address any inquiries made by shareholders.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has an Audit Committee and a Compensation Committee, both currently comprised of Messrs. Corso, Nirschel and Rosen, each of whom is independent as defined under applicable American Stock Exchange ( AMEX ) listing requirements. Each of the Audit and Compensation Committees has a written charter approved by the Board of Directors. A copy of each charter is attached to this Proxy Statement.

The Audit Committee is responsible for overseeing the establishment and maintenance of an effective financial control environment for the Company, for overseeing procedures for evaluating the system of internal accounting control and for evaluating audit performance. The Board of Directors has determined that all three members of the Audit Committee satisfy the financial literacy requirements of the AMEX listing standards and are independent as defined under the AMEX listing requirements and applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission ( SEC ). Additionally, the Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Corso qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as defined by the SEC rules.

The Compensation Committee assists the Board of Directors in discharging the Board's responsibilities relating to director and executive compensation. The Compensation Committee's responsibilities include establishing and reviewing the Company's executive and director compensation philosophy, strategies, plans and policies, and evaluating the performance and determining the compensation of the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer ( CEO ) of the Company and advising and assisting the CEO in formulating and implementing programs to facilitate the selection and development of other key managers. The Compensation Committee also reviews and approves the compensation of other executive officers of the Company except for the President of Capital Terminal Company.

The Company does not maintain a nominating committee or a committee performing a similar function due to the fact that Mr. Eder owns a controlling interest in the Company. The Board of Directors sits as a committee of the whole to consider any recommendations made by shareholders and/or other directors of persons to be directors of the Company. In determining whether to nominate any such person for election by the shareholders, the Board of Directors considers the experience of such person as it relates to the business of the Company, together with such person's age, reputation and ability to carry out the requirements to serve as a director of the Company.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, the Board of Directors held four meetings, the Audit Committee held five meetings and the Compensation Committee held one meeting. All directors attended every meeting of the Board of Directors and meetings of committees on which such director serves. The Board of Directors has adopted a policy that requires members of the Board of Directors to make every effort to attend each annual shareholders meeting. All then current members of the Board of Directors attended the 2006 annual shareholders meeting.

Compensation of Directors

The Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee, is responsible for determining compensation of the directors. Directors, other than directors who are employed by the Company, received a fee for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors, together with related transportation and living expenses. During the 2006 fiscal year, outside directors received an annual retainer fee of $10,000 payable in quarterly installments and fees per meeting as follows: Board, $1,000; Audit Committee, $750; and Compensation Committee, $500. The maximum fees payable for attendance at Board and committee meetings occurring on the same day is $1,500. These rates were established in 2005 based on the recommendations of Effective Pay Practices, a compensation consultant retained by the Compensation Committee.

The following Director Compensation table provides information regarding the compensation paid or accrued by each director during the 2006 fiscal year.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires executive officers and directors and persons who beneficially own more than ten percent of the Company's common stock to file initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership with the SEC and any national securities exchange on which the Company's securities are registered. Based solely on a review of the copies of forms furnished to the Company and written representations from the executive officers and directors of the Company, the Company believes that, during 2006, its executive officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners complied with all applicable Section 16(a) requirements.

TRANSACTIONS WITH MANAGEMENT

Potential conflicts of interest and related party transactions are referred by the Board of Directors to the Audit Committee for review and approval. In reviewing and evaluating potential conflicts of interest and related party transactions, the Audit Committee uses applicable AMEX listing standards and SEC rules as a guide.

The law firm of Hinckley, Allen & Snyder LLP, of which Stephen J. Carlotti is a partner, provides legal services to the Company. Mr. Carlotti is Secretary of the Company and acts as trustee of the Robert H. Eder 2005 Trust and Linda Eder 2005 Trust which trusts held in the aggregate greater than 10% of the Company's outstanding common stock during the 2006 fiscal year, during which time Mr. Carlotti had the sole right to vote and direct the disposition of the Company's common stock held in these trusts. The total amount of fees paid by the Company to Hinckley, Allen & Snyder LLP for services rendered to the Company in the 2006 calendar year were $138,074. On February 1, 2007, the trusts were terminated and the shares held therein distributed to Mr. and Mrs. Eder.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

The Company has 10 full-time employees, four of whom are classified as executives, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, the President, the Treasurer and the President of Capital Terminal Company.

The Committee periodically reviews executive officers and directors compensation. The Committee is charged with determining the compensation of all executive officers excluding the President of Capital Terminal Company. The Committee considers the executive's performance, the compensation of executives occupying similar positions at comparable companies, any awards, if any, made during prior years and other relevant factors. Our overall philosophy in terms of executive compensation program is to fairly reward the executives on a current basis for the services performed by them. We do not believe it is necessary to structure short or long-term incentive arrangements by way of either cash compensation or stock options since, given the Company's size, most of the major decisions with respect to the Company's operations are determined by the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer who is the majority stockholder. Therefore, a material part of his net worth is a function of the Company's long-term performance. We do maintain a simplified employee pension (SEP) to which the Company has historically contributed 7.5% of each employee's compensation. The Chairman and Chief Executive Officer does not participate in this plan. The Company's other benefits, consisting principally of a medical reimbursement plan, are available to all employees on a non-discriminatory basis. Each of the executives attends all or a portion of each Board meeting.

In 2005, the Compensation Committee engaged a compensation consultant, Effective Pay Practices of Gloucester, Massachusetts, to undertake a review of its executive compensation for all executives, other than the President of Capital Terminal Company, Mr. Avery Noe. The consultant's report found that the compensation for the Chairman, the President and the Treasurer, based upon survey sources ranging from the Economic Research Institute to data for a peer group of 12 real estate operator and lessor companies<sup>1</sup>, was below the 50% median of base salary. At the date of the report, as compared to total compensation at peer companies, the compensation for two of the three executives was below the 25th percentile and for one executive slightly above the 25th percentile. Based upon the report, our overall compensation philosophy, our evaluation of the Chief Executive's performance and the Chief Executive's evaluation of the performance of the President and the Treasurer, we adjusted the base salaries of the Chairman, the President and the Treasurer to the 50th percentile of the base compensation of the peer companies.

The Company has historically adjusted annual compensation each year for the covered executives by the increase in the cost of living. In October, we increased the compensation of the Chairman, the President and the Treasurer effective January 1, 2007 by the increase in the cost of living for the period between January 1, 2006 and December 31, 2006 1.78%. We intend to engage a consultant during 2007 to update the 2005 report with respect to the compensation to be paid during 2008 and beyond.

Mr. Noe's compensation is determined by the Chief Executive Officer based upon his assessment of Mr. Noe's performance and a comparison with the compensation of executives occupying comparable positions at comparable companies. On October 1, 2006, Mr. Noe's compensation was increased by 3.57%. The Company contributes 7.5% of Mr. Noe's compensation to the SEP. As with all of the other executives, there are no short or long-term incentive arrangements for Mr. Noe.

As a result of our overall policy of providing only current cash compensation, we have no need for policies to allocate between cash and non-cash compensation or between long-term and currently paid compensation. None of the covered executives has a contract with the Company and the Company has no change of control or severance provisions for these executives. Due to the Company's compensation philosophy, accounting and tax treatments have no impact on its compensation policy.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Compensation Committee has reviewed and discussed with management the Compensation Discussion & Analysis included above. Based on these reviews and discussions, the Compensation Committee has recommended to the Board of Directors that the Compensation Discussion & Analysis set forth below be included in the Company's Proxy Statement for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 for filing with the SEC.

Compensation Committee: Alfred J. Corso; Roy J. Nirschel; Harris N. Rosen (Chair).

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and financial reporting process. The independent registered public accountants are responsible for performing an audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and to issue a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes. The Audit Committee has sole authority to select, evaluate and when appropriate, to replace the Company's independent registered public accountants. Additionally, and as appropriate, the Audit Committee reviews and evaluates, and discusses and consults with the Company's management and independent registered public accountants regarding the scope of the audit plan, the results of the audit, the Company's financial statement disclosure documents, the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's accounting and financial controls and changes in accounting principles.

In connection with these responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements with management and the Company's independent registered public accountants, Lefkowitz, Garfinkel, Champi & DeRienzo P.C. The Audit Committee also discussed with such firm the matters required by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61. The Audit Committee received from Lefkowitz, Garfinkel, Champi & DeRienzo P.C. written disclosures and the letter regarding its independence as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1. The Audit Committee discussed this information with Lefkowitz, Garfinkel, Champi & DeRienzo P.C. and also considered the compatibility of non-audit services provided by such firm with its independence. Based on the review of the audited consolidated financial statements and these various discussions, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K, to be filed with the SEC.

Audit Committee: Alfred J. Corso (Chair), Roy J. Nirschel and Harris N. Rosen.

INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has sole authority to engage, manage and discharge the Company's independent registered public accountants. The Committee engaged Lefkowitz, Garfinkel, Champi & DeRienzo P.C. as independent registered public accountants of the accounts of the Company for the year 2007. The Company has recently been advised by Lefkowitz, Garfinkel, Champi & DeRienzo P.C. that they have no direct financial interest or any material indirect financial interest in the Company, nor have they had any connection during the past three years with the Company in the capacity of promoter, underwriter, voting trustee, director, officer or employee.

It is expected that a representative of Lefkowitz, Garfinkel, Champi & DeRienzo P.C. will be present at the annual meeting and will be provided the opportunity to make a statement if he so desires and that such representative will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Audit and Non-Audit Fees:

The aggregate fees for professional services rendered for the Company by Lefkowitz, Garfinkel, Champi & DeRienzo P.C. for fiscal years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 are set forth below.

	2006	2005

Audit-related fees
Tax fees	11,000	17,000

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

A copy of the Company's annual report to the SEC on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 is enclosed. Such report is not part of this proxy statement.
