GENERAL INFORMATION

General

This Proxy Statement (first mailed to stockholders on or about May 10, 2004) is furnished to the holders of Common Stock, par value $.01 per share (the "Common Stock"), of G-III Apparel Group, Ltd. (the "Company") in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of the Company of proxies for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting"), or at any adjournment thereof, pursuant to the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Annual Meeting will be held on Thursday, June 10, 2004, at 10:00 a.m., New York time, at the offices of Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P., 666 Fifth Avenue, 24th Floor, New York, New York 10103.

It is proposed that at the Annual Meeting: (i) eight directors will be elected to serve on the Company's Board of Directors and (ii) the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent certified public accountants of the Company for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2005 will be ratified.

Management currently is not aware of any other matters that will come before the Annual Meeting. If any other matters properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons designated as proxies intend to vote in accordance with their best judgment on such matters.

Proxies for use at the Annual Meeting are being solicited by the Board of Directors of the Company. Proxies will be solicited chiefly by mail; however, certain officers, directors, employees and agents of the Company, none of whom will receive additional compensation therefor, may solicit proxies by telephone, telegram or other personal contact. The Company will bear the cost of the solicitation of the proxies, including postage, printing and handling, and will reimburse the reasonable expenses of brokerage firms and others for forwarding material to beneficial owners of shares of Common Stock.

Revocability and Voting of Proxy

A form of proxy for use at the Annual Meeting and a return envelope for the proxy are enclosed. Unless otherwise indicated on the form of proxy, shares of Common Stock represented by any proxy in the enclosed form, assuming the proxy is properly executed and received by the Company prior to the Annual Meeting, will be voted with respect to the following items on the agenda: (i) the election of each of the nominees for director as shown on the form of proxy and (ii) the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent certified public accountants of the Company.

Stockholders may revoke the authority granted by their execution of a proxy at any time prior to the effective exercise of the powers conferred by that proxy, by filing with the Secretary of the Company a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or by voting in person at the Annual Meeting. Shares of Common Stock represented by executed and unrevoked proxies will be voted in accordance with the instructions specified in such proxies. If no specifications are given, the proxies intend to vote the shares represented thereby "for" the election of each of the nominees for director as shown on the form of proxy, "for" the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent certified public accountants of the Company, and in accordance with their best judgment on any other matters which may properly come before the meeting.

Record Date and Voting Rights

On April 30, 2004, there were 7,157,798 shares of Common Stock outstanding (excluding those held in treasury by the Company). Each of these shares is entitled to one vote upon each of the matters to be presented at the Annual Meeting. Only stockholders of record at the close of business on April 30, 2004 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof. The holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, will constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum, but will not be counted with respect to the specific matter being voted upon. "Broker non-votes" are shares held by brokers or nominees which are present in person or represented by proxy, but which are not voted on a particular matter because instructions have not been received from the beneficial owner.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a plurality of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required for the election of directors. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote is required to ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP.

Aron Goldfarb and Morris Goldfarb are father and son, respectively. Carl Katz and Jeanette Nostra-Katz, President of the Company, are married to each other.

The Board of Directors of the Company has several committees, including an Executive Committee, Audit Committee, Compensation Committee and Nominating Committee. The Board of Directors held four meetings during the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004. During the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004, each director in office during such fiscal year attended not less than 75% of the aggregate number of meetings of the Board of Directors and of meetings of committees of the Board on which he served during the time period in which he served.

The Executive Committee, composed of Morris Goldfarb, Aron Goldfarb and Carl Katz, is vested with the powers of the Board of Directors, to the fullest extent permitted by law, between meetings of the Board. The Executive Committee did not act during the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004.

The Audit Committee, composed of Thomas Brosig, Alan Feller, Willem van Bokhorst and Richard White, is responsible for, among other things, assisting the Board in monitoring (i) the integrity of the Company's financial statements, (ii) the qualifications and independence of the Company's independent auditors, (iii) the performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent auditors, and (iv) the compliance by the Company with legal and regulatory requirements. The Board of Directors has determined that all of the members of the Audit Committee are independent as that term is defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. ("Nasdaq") and under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Board has further determined that each of Messrs. Feller, Brosig and White is an audit committee financial expert as such term is defined in the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee met six times during the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004. On December 11, 2003, upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors approved a revised Audit Committee Charter. A copy of the revised Audit Committee Charter is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A.

In April 2004, the Board of Directors combined the Company's Compensation Committee and Option Committee into a single Compensation Committee. The purpose of the Compensation Committee is to discharge the responsibilities of the Board relating to compensation of the Company's directors and executive officers. The current members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. van Bokhorst and Winchell. The Board of Directors has determined that all of the members of the Compensation Committee are independent as that term is defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the Nasdaq listing standards. A current copy of the Compensation Committee's charter is available on the Company's website at www.g-iii.com.

Prior to April 2004, the Board maintained separate option and compensation committees. The Option Committee was composed of George Winchell and Willem van Bokhorst and was empowered to oversee and make all decisions regarding the Company's 1989 Stock Option Plan and the Company's 1997 Stock Option Plan. These functions are now the responsibility of the current Compensation Committee. The Option Committee held one meeting during the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004.

The prior Compensation Committee, composed of Thomas Brosig and Alan Feller, was empowered to establish and review compensation practices and policies of the Company and to recommend and/or set the compensation for the executive officers and key employees of the Company as well as to authorize and approve employment agreements. These functions are now the responsibility of the current Compensation Committee. The former Compensation Committee held one meeting during the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004.

In April 2004, the Board of Directors established a Nominating Committee to assist the Board in its selection of individuals (i) as nominees for election to the Board of Directors and (ii) to fill any vacancies or newly created directorships on the Board. The current members of the Nominating Committee are Messrs. Brosig, White and Winchell. The Board of Directors has determined that all of the members of the Nominating Committee are independent as that term is defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the Nasdaq listing standards. A current copy of the Nominating Committee's charter is available on the Company's website at www.g-iii.com.

It is the policy of the Nominating Committee to consider candidates for Board membership suggested by Nominating Committee members and other Board members, management, the Company's stockholders, third-party search firms and any other appropriate sources. As a stockholder, you may recommend any person for consideration as a nominee for director by writing to the Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors, c/o G-III Apparel Group, Ltd., 512 Seventh Avenue, New York, New York 10018. Recommendations must be received by January 9, 2005 to be considered for the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Recommendations must include the name and address of the stockholder making the recommendation, a representation setting forth the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock beneficially owned by the recommending stockholder, a statement that the recommended nominee has expressed his or her intent to serve on the Board if elected, biographical information about the recommended nominee, any other information the stockholder believes would be helpful to the Nominating Committee in evaluating the individual recommended nominee and a description of all arrangements or understandings between the recommending stockholder and each nominee and any other person concerning the nomination.

In evaluating candidates, the Nominating Committee will consider the following criteria: personal integrity, sound business judgment, business and professional skills and experience, independence (as that term is defined under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Nasdaq listing standards) and the requirement to maintain a Board that is composed of a majority of independent directors, potential conflicts of interest, the extent to which a candidate would fill a present need, and concern for the long term interests of stockholders. In any particular situation, the Nominating Committee may focus on persons possessing a particular background, experience or qualifications which the Committee believes would be important to enhance the effectiveness of the Board. The evaluation process for stockholder recommendations is the same as for candidates recommended from any other source.

The Board of Directors has provided a process for stockholders to send communications to the Board. Stockholders who wish to send communications to the Board of Directors, or any particular director, should address such communications to the Board or such director c/o G-III Apparel Group, Ltd., 512 Seventh Avenue, New York, New York 10018, Attn: Secretary. All such communications should include a representation from the submitting stockholder setting forth the stockholder's address and the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock beneficially owned by the stockholder. The Board will give appropriate attention to written communications on issues that are submitted by stockholders and will respond as appropriate. Absent unusual circumstances, the Secretary of the Company will (i) be primarily responsible for monitoring communications from stockholders and (ii) provide copies or summaries of such communications to the Board, or the director to whom such communication is addressed, as the Secretary considers appropriate. Each stockholder communication will be forwarded to all directors, or the director to whom it is addressed, if it relates to a substantive matter and includes suggestions or comments that the Secretary considers to be important for the directors, or director, to know. In general, stockholder communications relating to corporate governance and long-term corporate strategy are more likely to be forwarded than stockholder communications relating to personal grievances and matters as to which the Company tends to receive repetitive or duplicative communications.

The Company does not have a formal policy regarding attendance by members of the Board of Directors at annual stockholders meetings. Four of the Company's directors attended the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Vote Required

The eight nominees receiving the highest number of affirmative votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote for them shall be elected as directors. Only votes cast for a nominee will be counted, except that the accompanying proxy will be voted for all nominees in the absence of instructions to the contrary. Abstentions and instructions on the accompanying proxy card to withhold authority to vote for one or more nominees will not be counted as a vote for any such nominee.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS DEEMS THE ELECTION AS DIRECTORS OF THE EIGHT NOMINEES LISTED ABOVE TO BE IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE COMPANY AND ITS STOCKHOLDERS AND RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THEIR ELECTION.

Employment Agreement

The Company has an employment agreement with Morris Goldfarb effective through January 31, 2007. Two years prior to the expiration of the term of the agreement, it will automatically be extended for an additional year unless prior to that time either the Company or Mr. Goldfarb provides a written notice that the term should not be extended any further. The agreement provides for an annual base salary of $650,000, with increases at the discretion of the Board of Directors. The agreement also provides for a $2,000,000 life insurance policy which names Mr. Goldfarb's wife as beneficiary and an annual incentive bonus equal to varying percentages of pre-tax income (as defined in the employment agreement) if pre-tax income exceeds $2,000,000. The percentages vary from 3% of pre-tax income in excess of $2,000,000 up to 6% of pre-tax income in excess of $2,000,000 if pre-tax income exceeds $4,000,000. Pursuant to the employment agreement, the Company will contribute $50,000 per year to a supplemental pension trust for Mr. Goldfarb's benefit for each year in which net after-tax income (as defined in the employment agreement) exceeds $1,500,000. In addition, pursuant to the employment agreement, in the event that Morris Goldfarb's employment is terminated (i) by the Company without cause or (ii) by Morris Goldfarb because of a material breach by the Company of the agreement, in either case at any time after a "Change in Control" (as defined in the employment agreement), then Mr. Goldfarb will be entitled to receive from the Company, in general, (a) an amount equal to 2.99 times his base salary and bonus, as well as (b) certain employment-related benefits for a period of three years from the date of his termination.

Compensation of Directors

The Company has a policy of compensating directors who are not employees of, or consultants to, the Company ("Non-Employee Directors") at a rate of $15,000 per year, in addition to $1,000 per Board or committee meeting attended, plus reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with attendance at Board meetings.

Aron Goldfarb, a director of the Company, acts as a consultant to the Company and is paid at the rate of $1,000 per month for services rendered in such capacity. The Company also provides Mr. Goldfarb with a leased automobile and related automobile insurance as well as medical insurance for Mr. Goldfarb and his wife.

1999 Stock Option Plan for Non-Employee Directors

Pursuant to the G-III Apparel Group, Ltd. 1999 Stock Option Plan for Non-Employee Directors (the "1999 Plan"), the Company automatically grants options to purchase shares of Common Stock on an annual basis to Non-Employee Directors. Subject to adjustment to reflect stock splits and other capital changes, there were approximately 102,950 shares available for issuance under the 1999 Plan as of January 31, 2004.

Under the 1999 Plan, which is administered by the Board of Directors, each Non-Employee Director is automatically granted an option to purchase up to 2,000 shares of Common Stock on the day after each annual meeting of the Company's stockholders. Additionally, the 1999 Plan provides that the Board of Directors, acting in its discretion, may make a one-time grant of an option to purchase up to 10,000 shares of Common Stock to an individual when he or she first becomes a Non-Employee Director. All options issued under the 1999 Plan are exercisable at a per share exercise price equal to the closing sale price of a share of Common Stock on the grant date.

The Board of Directors determined that the annual option grant after the 2003 Annual Meeting would be for 2,000 shares and also has determined that the annual option grant after the 2004 Annual Meeting will be for 2,000 shares. Accordingly, each of Messrs. Brosig, Feller, Katz, van Bokhorst, White and Winchell received an option to purchase 2,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $7.43 per share following his re-election to the Board at the 2003 Annual Meeting. Additionally, each of Messrs. Brosig, Feller, Katz, van Bokhorst, White and Winchell will receive an option to purchase 2,000 shares of Common Stock if he is re-elected to the Board at the 2004 Annual Meeting.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

This report of the Compensation Committee shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this proxy statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates the information by reference, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such Acts.

General. In April 2004, the Board of Directors combined the Company's Compensation Committee and Option Committee into a single Compensation Committee. In accordance with Nasdaq rules and the Compensation Committee Charter adopted by the Board of Directors, fiscal 2005 compensation of the Company's executive officers will be determined by the Compensation Committee. For the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004 ("fiscal 2004") the Company had separate Compensation and Option committees.

The Company's compensation policies have evolved over the years since the Company's initial public stock offering in December 1989. At the time of the public offering and periodically since then, the compensation levels of the Company's executive officers were reviewed and compared to officers of other publicly held apparel companies.

One of the Company's strengths is a strong management team. The compensation program is designed to enable the Company to attract, retain and reward capable employees who contribute to the Company's success. Equity participation and a strong alignment to stockholders' interests are key elements of the Company's compensation philosophy. The Company's executive compensation policies are intended to (i) attract and retain the most highly qualified managerial and executive talent; (ii) afford appropriate incentives to produce superior performance; (iii) emphasize sustained performance by aligning rewards with stockholder interests; (iv) motivate executives and employees to achieve the Company's annual and long-term business goals; and (v) reward executives for superior individual contributions to the Company. To implement these policies, the Company has designed an executive compensation program consisting, in general, of base salary, annual bonus plan and stock options.

Effect of Section 162(m) of the Code. Under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), a publicly held corporation is generally prohibited from deducting as an expense for federal income tax purposes total remuneration in excess of $1 million paid to any of its chief executive officer or next four most highly compensated executive officers in a single taxable year. However, Section 162(m) of the Code provides an exception for "performance-based" remuneration, including remuneration attributable to certain stock options. The Compensation Committee expects to keep non-"performance-based" remuneration within the $1 million limit to ensure that all executive compensation will be fully deductible. Nevertheless, although the Committee considers the net cost to the Company in making all compensation decisions (including the potential limitation on deductibility of executive compensation), there is no assurance that compensation realized with respect to any particular award will qualify as "performance-based" remuneration.

Base Salary. Base salaries reflect individual responsibilities, experience, leadership and contribution to the success of the Company. Annual salary adjustments are generally determined by evaluating the performance of the executive and any increased responsibilities assumed by the executive, the performance of the Company and the competitive marketplace. During the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004, the Company did not granted any salary increases to the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table.

Annual Bonuses. The Company implemented a discretionary bonus program in 1997. During fiscal 2004, under the discretionary program, if the Company's overall profit target is met, management personnel were entitled to receive bonuses, determined by Morris Goldfarb, the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, based on an evaluation of the executive's individual performance and contribution to the Company's results of operations. For fiscal 2005, the Compensation Committee will make all determinations regarding the award of bonuses to executive officers under the Company's discretionary program. The Company achieved its fiscal 2004 profit target and the bonuses awarded to Ms. Nostra-Katz and Messrs. Miller and Jones are reflected in the Summary Compensation Table. The Company has an incentive compensation program for division Vice-Presidents, including Ms. Gaertner.

The incentive compensation program is based on targeted division and overall company performance. Although the Company met its overall fiscal 2004 profit target, the divisional target was not met and the bonus paid to Ms. Gaertner in fiscal 2004 was discretionary.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. Pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. Goldfarb received a base annual salary of $650,000 during fiscal 2004. Mr. Goldfarb has a performance-based incentive bonus provision in his employment agreement. This incentive provision is intended to recognize Mr. Goldfarb's unique role in overall management and corporate strategy and provide incentive compensation based on overall performance by the Company. Pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Goldfarb was paid a bonus of $746,315 with respect to fiscal 2004. A more complete description of Mr. Goldfarb's employment agreement is set forth earlier in this proxy statement under the heading "Employment Agreement."

Stock Options. The Company adopted the 1989 Plan in 1989 and increased the number of shares issuable under the 1989 Plan in January 1992 and June 1994. In 1997, the Company adopted the 1997 Stock Option Plan and increased the number of shares available for issuance in 1999 and 2003. The 1989 Plan and the 1997 Plan were administered by the Option Committee during fiscal 2004. Commencing in April 2004, the Compensation Committee administers these plans.

The Compensation Committee endorses the position that equity ownership by management is beneficial in aligning management's and stockholders' interests in the enhancement of stockholder value. Stock option awards provide a long-term view and incentives tied to growth in stockholder values. The Compensation Committee strongly believes that the compensation program should provide employees with an opportunity to increase their ownership and potentially gain financially from Company stock price increases. By this approach, the best interests of stockholders, executives and employees will be closely aligned.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

In accordance with its revised written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for, among other things, overseeing the Company's accounting and financial reporting processes and reviewing and discussing the Company's audited financial statements with management.

Management is responsible for the Company's financial reporting process including its system of internal control and for the preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The Company's independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. The responsibility of the Audit Committee is to monitor and review these processes. Members of the Audit Committee are not employees of the Company and are not required to be accountants or auditors by profession. Therefore, the Audit Committee has relied, without independent verification, on management's representation that the financial statements have been prepared with integrity and objectivity and in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and on the representations of the independent auditors included in their report of the Company's financial statements.

The oversight by the Audit Committee does not provide an independent basis to determine that management has maintained appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles or policies, or appropriate internal controls and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Furthermore, the Audit Committee cannot give assurance that the Company's financial statements are presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, that the audit of the Company's financial statements has been carried out in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards or that the Company's independent accountants are in fact "independent."

Review of Audited Financial Statements. The Audit Committee has reviewed the Company's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004 as prepared by management and audited by Ernst & Young LLP, the Company's independent auditors, and has discussed these financial statements with management. In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees) regarding the codification of statements on auditing standards. Furthermore, the Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from Ernst & Young LLP required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP its independence.

Recommendation. In reliance on the reviews and discussions referenced above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004 be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for that fiscal year.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANT FEES AND SERVICES

Audit-related fees	15,000	16,000
Tax fees	131,000	287,000
All other fees
Total	$432,000	$557,000

Audit Fees Audit fees include services associated with the audit of the Company's annual financial statements included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K, review of financial statements included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, and statutory audits required internationally during each fiscal year.

Audit-related Fees Audit-related fees include assurance and other services that are related to audit and review of the Company's financial statements. These services included consultation regarding compliance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 in fiscal 2004 and consultation regarding accounting matters in fiscal 2003.

Tax Fees Tax fees include services related to income tax compliance, assistance with tax audits, tax advice and tax planning.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of the above services is compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young LLP's independence, and all of the above services were preapproved by the Audit Committee.

It is the Audit Committee's policy that it pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services to be performed by the Company's independent accountants, the fees to be paid for those services and the time period over which those services are to be provided. On an annual basis, the independent accountants present a listing of all services they expect to perform for the Company in the ensuing one-year period, including fee estimates, in sufficient detail to enable the Audit Committee to perform an independence review of each proposed service. The Audit Committee reviews this list and approves appropriate services which, in the Audit Committee's judgment, will not impair the accountants' independence. With respect to any additional services proposed to be performed by the independent accountants during the year, management will evaluate the impact on the independent accountant's independence and obtain Audit Committee approval for such service. The Audit Committee has delegated interim pre-approval authority to the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

PROPOSAL NO. 2—RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The stockholders will be asked to ratify the appointment by the Audit Committee of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent auditors of the Company for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2005. If this appointment is not ratified by the stockholders, the Audit Committee will reconsider its decision. Ernst & Young LLP audited the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004. A representative of Ernst & Young LLP is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting, and will have an opportunity to make a statement if such person desires to do so, and is expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions from stockholders.
