This Amendment No. 1 to Form 8-K amends Item 7 of the Form 8-K Neurocrine Biosciences, Inc. (the Company) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 17, 2004. Pursuant to a routine review of the Company's application for confidential treatment of a portion of the Assignment and License Agreement dated as of February 26, 2004 between the Company and Wyeth Holdings Corporation (the Agreement), the SEC has asked the Company to refile the Agreement to include exhibits to such agreement that previously were omitted. The omitted exhibits were (i) forms of the two agreements filed in executed form at the same time the Agreement was filed (see Exhibits 10.2 and 10.4 below); and (ii) two forms of assignment documents the Company considered to be immaterial. The Agreement also called for a form of press release to be attached as an exhibit; however, by agreement of the parties, no form was attached at the time of signing. The press release issued by the Company on March 16, 2004 was filed as Exhibit 99.1 to the Form 8-K filed March 17, 2004. The Agreement, attached to this Amendment No. 1 as Exhibit 10.1, now includes the exhibits previously omitted. The SEC did not have any comments on the substance of the Company's request for confidential treatment and has granted the Company's application for confidential treatment.
