It has been determined by the Board of Directors that all members of the Audit Committee are independent pursuant to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, NASDAQ Rule 4200 and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and Improvement Act of 1991. The role of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in its oversight of the Company's accounting, auditing and financial reporting processes. The Audit Committee is responsible for the compensation and appointment of the Company's public accountants for the purpose of the examination and audit of the Company's financial statements. The Audit Committee reviews the scope of audits to be performed by the independent public accountants and the internal auditing staff of the Company, and reviews annually the program of the internal auditing staff both with respect to audits performed in the prior year and scheduled audits for the ensuing year. The Audit Committee held six meetings during 2005. Complete information on the activity of the Audit Committee is provided in the Audit Committee Report on page 16. The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a Charter that was last amended and restated by the Board on January 30, 2004, a copy of which is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix A. The Audit Committee Charter may be viewed at www.commercebank.com/027.html.

Compensation and Human Resources Committee

The Board of Directors has appointed a Compensation and Human Resources Committee consisting entirely of independent directors. The Compensation and Human Resources Committee is responsible for review and approval of executive and senior management performance and pay, adequacy and effectiveness of cash compensation plans, benefit plans, equity compensation plans and succession planning. Members of the Committee are also responsible for evaluating the performance of the Chief Executive Officer on an annual basis and recommending to the board any compensation adjustments to his overall package based upon his overall performance level as it relates to the goals and objectives of the company. The Committee, in consultation with senior management, has oversight responsibility for regulatory compliance with respect to compensation matters, including overseeing the Company's policies on structuring compensation programs to preserve tax deductibility. When required, the Committee will establish performance goals and certify that those performance goals have been attained for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. Membership currently consists of Directors, Giorgio Balzer, Terry O. Meek, Andrew C. Taylor (Chairman) and Mary Ann Van Lokeren. The Committee held one meeting during 2005. The Compensation and Human Resources Committee Charter may be viewed at www.commercebank.com/027.html.

Committee on Governance/ Directors

The Committee on Governance/ Directors consists entirely of independent directors appointed by the Board of Directors. Among its responsibilities are to identify individuals qualified to serve as Board members and to consider the re-nomination of incumbent directors. The Committee makes its recommendations to the Board of Directors. Pursuant to its Charter, the membership of the Committee is to consist of the Chairman of the Audit Committee, the Chairman of the Compensation and Human Resources Committee and such other members as the Board shall determine. The current members of the Committee are Messrs. James B. Hebenstreit (Chairman), Robert H. West, Andrew C. Taylor, W. Thomas Grant, II and Thomas A. McDonnell. The Committee met one time in 2005. The Committee on Governance/ Directors Charter may be viewed at www.commercebank.com/027.html.

With respect to its recommendations of prospective candidates to the Board, the Committee may establish the criteria for director service and will consider, among other things, the independence of the candidates under NASDAQ standards and such experience and moral character as to create value to the Board, the Company and its shareholders. With respect to incumbent candidates, the Committee will also consider meeting attendance, meeting participation and ownership of Company stock. The criteria and selection process are not standardized and may vary from time to time. Relevant experience in business, government, the financial industry, education and other areas are prime measures for any nominee. The Committee will consider individuals for Board membership that are proposed by shareholders in accordance with the provisions of the Company's By-laws. A description of those provisions can be found under Shareholder Proposals and Nominations on page 18. The Committee will consider individuals proposed by shareholders under the same criteria as all other individuals.

By the end of February of each year, the Committee meets and makes its recommendations to the Board of its proposed slate of directors for the class of directors to be elected at the next annual meeting; the date, time and place of the annual meeting; and the matters to be placed on the agenda for the annual meeting. At its meeting on February 16, 2006, the Committee on Governance/ Directors determined its nominees for the Class of 2009. Mr. Giorgio Balzer, an incumbent director in the Class of 2006, had previously advised the Company of his retirement as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Generali USA Life Reassurance Company and, therefore, declined to stand for re-election. Mr. Balzer's term as a Director of the Company will expire with the election of the Class of 2009 at the annual meeting of shareholders on April 19, 2006. Mr. Seth Leadbeater was nominated to replace Mr. Balzer as a member of the Class of 2009. The Committee noted that Mr. Leadbeater, if elected, will not be independent.

Corporate Governance and Director Independence

The Company has adopted Governance Guidelines. Those guidelines and the charters for the Audit Committee, Compensation and Human Resources Committee and the Committee on Governance/ Directors may be found on the Company's website at www.commercebank.com/027.html. The Company's Code of Ethics and the Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers may also be found on the website.

In conjunction with regularly scheduled Board Meetings, the Board of Directors meets in Executive Session without the presence of any non-independent directors or Company employees. Four Executive Sessions were held in 2005. The Chairman of the Committee on Governance/ Directors serves as Chairman of the Executive Session and functions as the Lead Director to communicate with management and non-independent directors. The Board of Directors plans on conducting at least four Executive Sessions during 2006.

At its meeting on February 16, 2006, the Committee on Governance/ Directors reviewed the independent status of the members of the Board of Directors and each standing Committee. The Committee considered applicable laws and regulations and NASDAQ Rule 4200. The findings of the Committee were reported to the Board of Directors. Based on those findings, the Board of Directors determined that all directors except for Messrs. David W. Kemper and Jonathan M. Kemper are independent. Mr. Seth Leadbeater, who is nominated for election to the Class of 2009, if elected, will not be considered independent. The Board also determined that Mr. Robert H. West was qualified to serve as the Financial Expert on the Audit Committee and was so designated.

The Governance Guidelines adopted by the Board of Directors recognize the responsibility of the directors to attend meetings. A board meeting is held each year in conjunction with the annual shareholders meeting at which directors are expected to attend. In 2005, all board members attended the annual shareholders meeting.

The Board of Directors held four meetings during 2005. Each director, except John C. Capps (70%) and Benjamin F. Rassieur, III (70%) attended 75% or more of the total number of meetings of the Board and meetings held by committees of the Board on which the respective director served.

Directors and officers of the Company and the nominees for directors and their associates have deposit accounts with the subsidiary banks of the Company, and some directors, nominees for directors and officers and their associates also have other transactions with the subsidiary banks, including loans in the ordinary course of business, all of which were made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons, and did not involve more than normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features. All such loans were made pursuant to 12 USC 375(b) and Regulation O promulgated thereunder. As of December 31, 2005, all such loans were current.

Messrs. David Kemper and Jonathan Kemper are directors of Tower Properties Company (Tower) and together with members of their immediate families own beneficially approximately 65% of the outstanding stock of Tower.

During 2005, subsidiaries of the Company paid Tower $508,749 for rentals, $103,878 for leasing fees, $97,690 for operation of parking garages, $1,431,682 for building management fees, $2,503,265 for other property construction and repair costs and $206,617 for interest paid on deposits with the Company's principal banking subsidiary.

Director Compensation

An employee of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company receives no additional compensation for serving as a director. Non-employee directors of the Company are required to participate in the Stock Purchase Plan for Non-Employee Directors. Under this Plan, all compensation payable to a non-employee director is credited to an account in the name of such director as earned and the Company contributes to the account of such director an additional amount equal to 25% of the compensation credited to the director's account. As of the last business day of each month, the cash balance is used to purchase from the Company whole shares of common stock of the Company based on the last sale price of the Company's common stock on such date. Each non-employee director of the Company is paid (as adjusted for the 25% contribution by the Company) the annual retainer of $10,000 (paid on a quarterly basis), fees of $3,000 for each meeting of the Board of Directors attended, and fees of $750 for attendance at each meeting of a committee of which the director was a member and attended. An annual fee of $5,000 is paid to all non-employee committee chairmen.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

RATIFICATION OF THE SELECTION OF
KPMG LLP AS THE INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS PROPOSAL TWO

Pursuant to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 the Audit Committee of the Company is responsible for the selection and approval of the Company's public accountants for the purpose of the examination and audit of the Company's financial statements for 2006. The Audit Committee has also adopted a procedure for the pre-approval of non-audit services. The Audit Committee has selected and the Board of Directors has ratified the selection of KPMG LLP as the firm to conduct the audit of the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries for 2006. This selection is presented to the shareholders for ratification, however, the failure of the shareholders to ratify the selection will not change the engagement of KPMG LLP for 2006. The Audit Committee will consider the vote of the shareholders for future engagements. Representatives of KPMG LLP are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting and will be available to respond to appropriate questions. The representatives will also be provided an opportunity to make a statement.

Retirement Benefits

The Company maintains the Commerce Bancshares Restated Retirement Plan (Plan). Employees hired before July 1, 2003 were eligible to participate in the Plan on the later of January 1st or July 1st after completion of one year of service and the attainment of age 21. The Plan provides benefits based upon earnings, age and years of participation.

The annual benefit is determined under a cash balance formula effective January 1, 1995 and in accordance with the fifth plan amendment effective January 1, 2005, as described below. Under the cash balance formula, a retirement account balance is maintained for each participant. At the end of each Plan Year beginning after December 31, 1994 through the Plan year ended December 31, 2004, the participant's account was credited with a cash balance credit equal to: 1) employee pay times a stated percentage, and 2) the same percentage multiplied by the amount of pay in excess of 50% of the Social Security taxable wage base for the year. Pay for this purpose is limited by Section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code. The applicable percentage of pay is determined by the sum of the participant's age and years of participation at the beginning of the Plan year, and ranges from 1% for a sum of less than 30 to 4% for a sum of 75 or more. Interest is also credited to the participant's account at the end of each Plan Year beginning after 1995 at a rate of not less than 5% of the account balance at the end of each Plan Year (for 2005, the rate of interest was 5%).

Under the fifth Plan amendment effective January 1, 2005, the cash balance portion of the benefit was frozen and no additional cash balance credits will be applied to participant's accounts. Interest will continue to be credited to participant accounts until retirement. At retirement, the participant account balance is converted to various benefit options based on actuarial factors defined in the Plan.

Additionally, participants in the Plan prior to January 1, 1995 will receive an annual benefit equal to the annual benefit accrued through December 31, 1994 under the Plan's prior formula, adjusted for increases in the cost of living (not to exceed 4% per year) for each year of participation after December 31, 1994.

The Plan is fully paid for by the Company and employees covered by the Plan become vested after five years of service. The normal retirement age under the Plan is 65; reduced benefits are available as early as age 55.

In addition, certain executive officers of the Company receive a special minimum plan benefit based on the final five-year average pay and years of service. (This provision is subject to IRS approval, which has been requested.) Messrs. D. Kemper, J. Kemper, Leadbeater, Barth and Kim have, respectively, 25, 22, 14, 20 and 14 years of service as of December 31, 2004, after which additional credits were frozen. Compensation for these executive members of the Plan includes salary (as reported in the Summary Compensation Schedule) and was limited by Section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly compensation covered by the Plan in 2004, the last Plan year before additional cash balance credits were frozen, for each of Mr. D. Kemper, Mr. J. Kemper, Mr. Leadbeater, Mr. Barth and Mr. Kim was $205,000.

The estimated annual benefits payable at normal retirement age for Messrs. D. Kemper, J. Kemper, Leadbeater, Barth and Kim are $85,701, $68,534, $40,054, $36,530, and $38,721 respectively.

The Company also maintains the Commerce Executive Retirement Plan (CERP), effective January 1, 1995, a non-qualified plan established to provide benefits to a select group of executives on compensation in excess of the allowable benefits of the Company's pension and 401(K) plans. The CERP is unfunded and benefits are payable from the assets of the Company. The Board of Directors may designate the CEO as a participant; other participants are selected by the CEO. Messrs. D. Kemper, J. Kemper, Leadbeater, Barth and Kim were participants in the CERP during 2005.

A participant's benefit under the CERP is based on the sum of two benefit calculations: a Pre-2005 Benefit and a Post-2004 Benefit. The Pre-2005 Benefit of the CERP is the amount by which the benefit that would be payable under the Commerce Bancshares Restated Retirement Plan (Plan) including any deferred cash bonuses (under the Company's nonqualified deferred compensation plan) and without regard to the pay limit of Section 401 (a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code, exceeds the benefit actually payable under the Plan.

The estimated annual Pre-2005 Benefit payable at normal retirement age for Messrs. D. Kemper, J. Kemper, Leadbeater, Barth, and Kim are $145,301, $34,158, $0, $1,268 and $0 respectively. These benefits assume the election of a retirement allowance payable as a straight life annuity to the participants.

The Post-2004 Benefit of the CERP is equal to 7% of the participant's compensation above the Section 401(a)(17) pay limit for the year plus deemed earnings thereon. The Post-2004 Benefit also includes any match not credited to the participant's account under the Company's 401(k) plan due to non-discrimination tests. Benefit amounts are credited to participant accounts on the last day of each plan year beginning on and after January 1, 2005. Compensation covered by this benefit includes salary and bonuses. The account balance is payable as a lump sum upon the participant's retirement. The compensation for 2005 covered by the Post-2004 Benefit as reported in the Summary Compensation Schedule for Messrs. D. Kemper, J. Kemper, Leadbeater, Barth, and Kim was $1,103,647, $381,504, $236,475, $192,500, and $203,500, respectively.

In 2005 under the Post-2004 Benefit, the Company credited the accounts of Messrs. D. Kemper, J. Kemper, Leadbeater, Barth, and Kim in the amounts of $77,256, $26,705, $16,553, $13,475, and $14,245, respectively.

Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation and Human Resources Committee is responsible for the establishment and review of compensation policies and programs for the Company's executive officers, including the chief executive officer and the four other most highly paid executive officers (collectively with the Chief Executive Officer, the senior executives). The overall objectives of the committee are to develop compensation policies and practice that:

Align the senior executives' interests with the long-term interests of shareholders;

Provide total compensation programs that are competitive with bank holding companies in geographic proximity, comparable asset size and considered a direct competitor;

Provide reward systems that are credible and consistent with the core values of the Company;

Reward for results rather than on the basis of seniority, tenure, or other entitlement; and Encourage retention of top performers to ensure the long-term success of the Company.

During 2005, the four members of the Compensation and Human Resources Committee were all non-employee directors. The principal elements of the Company's executive compensation program for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, applicable to the Company's senior executives, were:

(1) Base Pay. Base pay reflects the external market value of a particular role as well as the experiences and qualifications that an individual brings to the role. As they are for all officers of the Company base pay levels for senior executives are reviewed annually against national salary survey data and competitor data to determine whether a particular role is at an appropriate level. Base pay is generally targeted to the median of the base pay paid by companies included in the salary surveys that best compare to positions at the Company. Factors included in the comparison are relative size of companies, the financial performance, both currently and over a period of time, and the experience and responsibility of the individuals. In establishing base pay increases the Committee does not assign any weight to any particular factor. In addition, the Committee reviews individual performance ratings, being the result of reviews conducted by an officer's superior. In the case of the Chief Executive Officer, the Committee meets to review performance against previously outlined objectives and after completing the review, assigns a rating and makes a base pay recommendation for full Board approval.

(2) Annual Cash Bonus. The annual cash bonus plan is a short-term incentive plan to reward the senior executives for achieving annual performance goals. In awarding bonus payments, factors considered by the Committee include: (i) the Company's financial performance compared to the annual budget for categories such as earnings per share, efficiency ratio, and profitability of an individual's market or division responsibility; (ii) the value created for shareholders in both the most recent year and over the latest five-year period as determined by market price of the Company stock compared to the NASDAQ financial indices; and (iii) the performance of individuals, to the extent measurable, in meeting annual goals and objectives as defined in their performance review. Performance of the Company in relation to competitors' performance is considered but not weighted in the granting of a bonus. The Chief Executive Officer is also subject to the previous measurements. Bonuses earned as a percentage of base pay for the senior executives for 2005 performance ranged from 75.6% (in the case of the Chief Executive Officer) to 47.4%.

(3) Long-Term Incentive Program. Stock Options and Restricted Stock grants have historically been awarded to provide senior executives with long-term incentives for profitable growth and to more closely align the Company's senior executives with the interest of the Company's shareholders. The 2005 Equity Incentive Plan approved by the stockholders provides for the issuance of stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock and restricted stock units, performance shares and performance units. Commencing in 2006 the Company plans to begin issuing stock appreciation rights (SAR) in lieu of stock options. Retention and long-term reward are both factors considered in granting stock options, restricted stock or SAR (collectively Awards). The Company has implemented targeted guidelines in determining Awards to senior executives. Targeted percents range from 25% to 600% of base pay depending on the salary grade of the individual senior executive. Targeted percents may be exceeded when a senior executive's individual performance exceeds expectations. The Company also utilizes restricted stock to reward and retain key managers. The awarding of restricted stock is based on the three-year average performance of the Company.

With respect to the Chief Executive Officer, the Committee reviews Mr. David Kemper's performance each year and makes recommendations to the Board for any new awards. Mr. Kemper completes a self-appraisal, which the Committee considers before making its final recommendation. In addition to the performance criteria above, several factors are considered in the review of Mr. Kemper's performance with an overall focus on the increase in the franchise value of the company. Besides financial performance, the Committee also considers factors such as growth in the human capital of the organization, the continued reinvestment and improvement of the Company's product offerings and the overall focus on risk management.

In evaluating the reasonableness of senior executive compensation, the Committee considers total compensation. Total compensation for 2005 includes (i) base salary paid; (ii) cash bonus earned in 2005 but paid in 2006; (iii) restricted stock and SAR awards granted in 2006 for performance in 2005 (SAR awards are valued based on Financial Accounting Standard 123 expense valuation); (iv) Company allocations for the Commerce Executive Retirement Plan; (v) investment income from deferred compensation plans; (vi) Company contributions from 401(k) plans; and (vii) amounts for group term life insurance. Realized and unrealized equity compensation gains along with vesting of prior equity grants are not considered. Total compensation paid to the named executive officers for 2005 was as follows: David W. Kemper $2,935,866; Jonathan M. Kemper $1,502,216; Seth M. Leadbeater $796,703; Charles G. Kim $700,134; Kevin G. Barth $757,396. Compensation for both David W. Kemper and Jonathan M. Kemper includes $753 each attributable to the personal use of the corporate airplane for a related family member. In the Committee's opinion, the total compensation of the named executive officers for 2005 was reasonable.

Base pay for the named executive officers was approved by the Board of Directors based on recommendations from the Committee, at the Company's regular Board meeting on February 17, 2006. The new base pay approved for 2006 (effective 4/1/06) was as follows: David W. Kemper $788,000; Jonathan M. Kemper $408,000; Seth M. Leadbeater $320,500; Charles G. Kim $295,000; and Kevin Barth $295,000.

The Commerce Bancshares, Inc. Executive Incentive Compensation Plan was amended in 2002 to comply with the Section 162(m) of the Code. This Code section limits the Company's tax deduction for non-performance based compensation paid to the named executive officers to $1,000,000. Although in 2005, the taxable compensation paid to the Chief Executive Officer exceeded $1,000,000, the entire amount was deductible by the Company. All compensation paid to other named executive officers was deductible by the Company.

The Company did not use any outside paid consultants to assist the Committee in evaluating executive compensation or in making salary recommendations.

The Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan was amended in 1995 to provide for a formula to determine the maximum number of options, which may be granted in any one year to any one person, which means any income recognized on the exercise of a non-qualified stock option will qualify as performance-based compensation and will be deductible by the Company. That plan terminated as to any new awards on December 31, 2005. As of January 1, 2006, all new awards will be granted subsequent to the 2005 Equity Incentive Plan approved by the stockholders on April 20, 2005.

Executives other than senior executives also participate in the bonus, stock option and restricted stock programs. Other elements of compensation offered to the senior executives and to all other eligible employees include participation in a 401(k) deferred contribution plan and a Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan.
