As reported in a press release dated March 14, 2006, First Bancorp (the "Company") did not file its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 and is still in the process of preparing restated financial statements to correct the accounting for certain mortgage-related transactions that the subsidiary Bank entered into with other financial institutions and for interest rate swaps that it uses to hedge interest rate risk. In addition, the restatement may also address other accounting matters identified as part of the on-going restatement process. First BanCorp intends to complete the restatement process and file restated financial statements with the Securities and Exchange Commission in the summer of 2006 in an amendment to its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. Thereafter, the Company expects to file quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the interim periods ended June 30, 2005, September 30, 2005 and March 31, 2006, which will include restated prior interim period financial statements, and the annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been file? If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes  No

The Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended June 30, 2005, September 30, 2005 and March 31, 2006 and the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 have not been filed, pending completion of the Company's preparation of the restated financial statements.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or on thereof?

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company does not know now whether the results for the quarter ended March 31, 2006 will significantly differ from the corresponding 2005 quarter because it has not completed either the process of preparing restated financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003, 2004 and first quarter of 2005 or the process of preparing interim financial statements for the second and third quarters of 2005.
