NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

To the Shareholders of Cincinnati Financial Corporation:

You are cordially invited to attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Cincinnati Financial Corporation, which will be held at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, April 7, 2001, at the Cincinnati Art Museum, located in Eden Park, Cincinnati, Ohio. The business to be conducted at the meeting will include:

1. Electing one director for a term of one year and five directors for terms of three years; and
2. Transacting such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

Shareholders of record at the close of business on February 9, 2001, are entitled to vote at the meeting.

Whether or not you plan to attend the meeting, you can ensure that your shares will be voted as you want by completing, signing and mailing the enclosed form of proxy. Your interest and participation in the affairs of the Corporation are appreciated.

PROXY STATEMENT

CINCINNATI FINANCIAL CORPORATION
P.O. Box 145496, Cincinnati, Ohio 45250-5496

GENERAL

The enclosed proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of Cincinnati Financial Corporation (the Corporation) for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held at 9:30 a.m., Saturday, April 7, 2001, at the Cincinnati Art Museum, located in Eden Park, Cincinnati, Ohio. The proxy and this statement are being distributed to shareholders on March 7, 2001. The Annual Report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000, is also enclosed. Any shareholder giving a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is voted, by a later proxy received by the Corporation or by giving notice of revocation to the Corporation in writing or in open meeting or by voting the shares personally.

Only the holders of common stock of the Corporation of record at the close of business on February 9, 2001, are entitled to vote at the meeting. Each share of common stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote. As of February 1, 2001, there were 160,909,370 shares outstanding. A majority of such holders present in person or by proxy is necessary for a quorum. The failure by a broker to return a proxy card will result in the shares covered by the proxy not being counted towards a quorum. As stated in the notice of meeting, an election will be held to fill the six vacancies which will occur on the Board of Directors of the Corporation. A simple majority of votes cast is required to elect directors and an abstention or broker non-vote will not be the equivalent of a negative vote.

Votes cast by proxy will be tabulated prior to the meeting by the holders of the proxies. Inspectors of election, duly appointed by the presiding officer of the meeting in accordance with the provisions of Ohio law, will count the votes and announce the results at the meeting. The Proxy Committee reserves the right not to vote any proxies which are altered in a manner not intended by the instructions contained in the proxy.

PRINCIPAL SHAREHOLDERS

The following table lists the persons who, to the best of the Corporation's knowledge, are beneficial owners (as defined in Regulations of the SEC) of more than 5% of the outstanding shares of the Corporation's common stock at December 31, 2000.

NOMINEES FOR ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors of the Corporation is divided into three classes, and each year the Directors in one class are elected to serve terms of three years. The term of office of five of the directors will expire at the Annual Meeting. William R. Johnson has informed the Board that he does not wish to stand for reelection, and John M. Shepherd will be nominated to fill the resulting vacancy. Michael Brown, John E. Field, Robert C. Schiff and Alan R. Weiler, all of whom are presently serving as Directors, have agreed to stand for reelection, and it is intended that votes will be cast to elect all five nominees as directors to serve for terms of three years.

In addition, the Board of Directors voted at its meeting on February 3, 2001, to expand the size of the Board by increasing the class of directors whose terms end at the Corporation's annual meeting in 2002 from four to five directors. W. Rodney McMullen has agreed to be nominated for a term of one year to fill the resulting vacancy.

The Board of Directors has been informed that all of the nominees will accept nomination. In the event, however, that any nominee should refuse or be unable to accept the nomination, it is intended that the persons acting under the proxies will vote for the election of such person or persons as the Board of Directors may recommend.

COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors of the Corporation met six times and the Executive Committee of the Board met five times during the previous fiscal year. In addition, the Board of Directors has standing Audit, Compensation and Nominating Committees.

The Nominating Committee was composed of John J. Schiff, Jr., Michael Brown and Jackson H. Randolph, and the members of that Committee met once during the last year. The Nominating Committee recommends qualified candidates for election as officers and directors of the Corporation and its subsidiary companies, including the slate of directors which the Board proposes for election by the shareholders at the Annual Meeting. Shareholders wishing to suggest candidates for director for consideration by the Nominating Committee should write to the Secretary of the Corporation, giving the candidate's name, biographical data and qualifications. Such information must be received by November 30 of each year to be considered for the Annual Meeting held in the following year.

The Audit Committee was composed of Kenneth C. Lichtendahl, Jackson H. Randolph and E. Anthony Woods and the members of that Committee met five times during the last year. All members of the Audit Committee meet the independence standards of Rule 4200(a)(15) of the listing standards of the National Association of Securities Dealers. The functions of the Committee are set forth in the Committee's written charter which was adopted by the Board of Directors, a copy of which is included as an Appendix to this Proxy Statement. The report of the Audit Committee begins on Page 10.

The Compensation Committee is composed of Michael Brown, Kenneth C. Lichtendahl and William F. Bahl, and the members of that Committee met two times during the last fiscal year. The function of the Committee is to set compensation for the principal executive officers and the internal auditor of the Corporation and to administer the Corporation's stock option and performance-based compensation plans. The report of the Compensation Committee begins on Page 9.

All directors attended at least 75% of the Board and Committee meetings they were required to attend.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Directors, executive officers and 10% shareholders of the Corporation are required to report their beneficial ownership of the Corporation's stock according to Section 16 of the Exchange Act of 1934.

Based solely on its review of the copies of such forms received by it, or written representations from certain reporting persons that no Forms 5 were required for those persons, the Corporation believes that, for the calendar year 2000, all filing requirements applicable to its directors and executive officers were complied with except as follows. In a Form 4 filed for March of 2000, Robert C. Schiff failed to reflect that he no longer exercised investment control of the securities held by Schiff, Kreidler-Shell and its pension plan. Amended Form 4 filings were made to reflect this change of status. Form 4 filings for John J. Schiff, Jr. and Thomas R. Schiff failed to indicate the distribution of shares by a decedent's estate to a trust of which they were trustees. The distribution was subsequently reported on an Amended Form 4.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Nonemployee directors of the Corporation were paid a fee of $4,500 per meeting for attendance at directors' meetings and $1,500 per meeting for attendance at Committee meetings of the Board and the Corporation's subsidiaries, with fees for all meetings in any one day not to exceed $6,000. They were also reimbursed for actual travel expenses incurred in attending meetings.

Executive Compensation Summary

The following table summarizes the compensation of the Corporation's chief executive officer and the four most highly compensated executive officers for each of the Corporation's last three years.

- Options were granted January 25, 2000. One third of each option becomes exercisable on the first anniversary of grant in 2001, an additional one third on the second anniversary in 2002 and the remainder on the third anniversary in 2003, so long as employment continues with the Corporation or its subsidiaries. There are no stock appreciation rights, performance units or other instruments granted in tandem with these options, nor are there any re-load provisions, tax reimbursement features or performance-based conditions to exercisability.
- The option exercise price is 100% of the Nasdaq National Market's closing price for the Corporation's stock on the day prior to date of grant.
- The assumed annual rates of stock price appreciation are prescribed in the proxy rules of the SEC and should not be construed as a forecast of future appreciation in the market price for the Corporation's common stock.

The following table contains information for each of the named executive officers concerning the exercise of options during 2000 and the value of unexercised options at year-end for the Corporation's common stock.

All officers listed in the Summary Compensation Table are participants in the plan. For purposes of computing their retirement benefits under the plan, earnings for any given year are defined by the plan as the base rate of salary in effect on the last day of the plan year, subject to maximum recognizable compensation under Sec. 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code. This differs from Salary as shown in the Summary Compensation Table. The 2000 annual earnings amount qualifying under the plan for each individual is $170,000. The years of service as of December 31, 2000, under the plan for those individuals are as follows: James E. Benoski, 29 years; James G. Miller, 34 years; Urban G. Neville, 32 years; Jacob F. Scherer, Jr., 17 years; and John J. Schiff, Jr., 14 years.

The normal retirement pension is computed as a single life annuity and is (i) the sum of .0045 per year of the employee's highest five-year average earnings for the first 15 years of service plus .0135 per year of the employee's highest five-year average earnings up to $35,000 for the first 15 years of service plus the sum of .006% per year of the employee's highest five-year average earnings for years 16 through 40 plus .018 of the employee's five-year average earnings up to $35,000 for years 16 through 40 or (ii) the sum of .009 per year of the employee's highest five-year average earnings for the first 15 years of service plus .012 per year of the employee's highest five-year average earnings for years 16 through 40, whichever is greater. Vesting is 100% after five years of service and there are no deductions for Social Security or other offset amounts.

Supplemental Retirement Plan

Effective January 1, 1989, the Corporation adopted a nonqualified, noncontributory Supplemental Retirement Plan for the benefit of thirty-seven higher paid employees whose projected retirement pension was reduced as a result of the amendment to the Corporation's qualified pension plan. The Supplemental Retirement Plan was designed to replace the pension benefit lost by those employees.

Effective January 1, 2000, the Corporation transferred the accrued benefit amount of each plan member to the qualified retirement plan as an additional special benefit, which will be paid from the qualified plan. As of January 1, 2000, there were 12 employees entitled to a benefit from the Supplemental Retirement Plan. Any additional benefit amounts accrued from the Supplemental Retirement Plan after January 1, 2000, will be paid from the Supplemental Retirement Plan.

The following table illustrates the retirement income payable under the Supplemental Retirement Plan computed as a single life annuity on retirement at age 65 under various assumptions as to the employee's highest five-year average annual earnings and years of service.

Supplemental Retirement Plan

This plan is integrated with Social Security and a normal retirement pension is the sum of .0075 of the employee's highest five-year average annual earnings below the integration level plus .0125 of the employee's highest five-year average annual earnings in excess of the integration level, multiplied by the number of years of service. The integration level is equal to the average of the integration levels for the period of the employee's employment, using wages paid, with a maximum of $6,000 for years beginning prior to 1976 and wages subject to Social Security tax for all years after 1975. The retirement benefit paid pursuant to the Supplemental Plan is the difference between the amount computed by the above formula and the amount payable from the Qualified Plan.

All of the persons listed in the Summary Compensation Table, except J.F. Scherer, are participants in the plan. For purposes of determining benefits, annual earnings are defined as the base rate of salary in effect on the last day of the plan year. This differs from salary under the Summary Compensation Table. The annual earnings for 2000 as defined in the plan and the years of service as of December 31, 2000, for those individuals are as follows: James E. Benoski, $303,450 and 29 years; James G. Miller, $282,977 and 33 years; Urban G. Neville, $295,684 and 32 years; and John J. Schiff, Jr., $486,776 and 14 years.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The members of the Corporation's Compensation Committee for 2000 were Michael Brown, Kenneth C. Lichtendahl and William F. Bahl. Lawrence H. Rogers II, a former director, served as an advisor to the Committee.

During 2000, Michael Brown was the President and General Manager and a principal shareholder of Cincinnati Bengals, Inc., and John J. Schiff, Jr., Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation and Chairman of the Corporation's Board of Directors, was a Director of Cincinnati Bengals, Inc. During the year, the Corporation and its subsidiaries purchased football tickets, club seat and luxury box licenses from Cincinnati Bengals, Inc. for payments totaling $100,135. Mr. Schiff also served on the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of CINErgy Corp., and Jackson H. Randolph, Chairman of CINErgy Corp., served on the Corporation's Board of Directors.

John J. Schiff, Jr. was also a director and one of the principal owners of John J. & Thomas R. Schiff & Co., Inc., an insurance agency which represents a number of insurance companies, including the Corporation's insurance affiliates. Thomas R. Schiff, also a director of the Corporation, was the Chairman of the Board and one of the principal owners of John J. & Thomas R. Schiff & Co., Inc. During the year ended December 31, 2000, John J. & Thomas R. Schiff & Co., Inc. paid $96,958 in rent to CFC Investment Company, one of the Corporation's subsidiary companies. The Corporation purchased director and officer liability insurance from John J. & Thomas R. Schiff & Co., Inc. for a premium of $72,159, and the Corporation's insurance affiliates paid John J. & Thomas R. Schiff & Co., Inc. commission of $3,092,941. Those commissions were paid at the same commission rates, pursuant to the same agent's contract with the Corporation's insurance affiliates, as paid to other agents of those companies.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee of the Board is charged with the duty of determining the compensation of the Corporation's internal auditor and its principal executive officers. It also administers and grants options under the Corporation's stock option plans and administers the Corporation's Incentive Compensation Plan, including granting performance bonuses to senior management.

It is the goal of the Committee to:

Attract and retain quality executives;

Provide compensation competitive with other similar companies;

Reinforce the attainment of the Corporation's performance objectives;

Align the interests of executives with those of the Corporation's shareholders; and Encourage executives to acquire and retain the Corporation's stock.

A portion of total compensation is paid in the form of an annual salary in an amount which we feel is sufficient to be competitive with salaries paid by other property and casualty and multiline insurance companies which constitute the Corporation's most direct competitors for executive talent. Executive salaries are reviewed annually. In determining salary levels, we consider changes in general economic conditions, including inflation and changes in compensation paid by the Corporation's peers. We also seek input from the Corporation's chief executive officer in setting salaries for executives other than the CEO.

The year 2000 salaries contained in the Summary Compensation Table were established in October of 1999. Available information at that time regarding compensation paid by the Corporation's peers was for the calendar year 1998. The 1999 salary of John J. Schiff, Jr., the Corporation's President and Chief Executive Officer, was approximately equal to the mean for 1997 CEO salaries of the Corporation's peers. While we felt Mr. Schiff's salary should have been increased significantly, at Mr. Schiff's request, no salary adjustment was made.

A second component of compensation is paid in the form of a bonus, which is influenced by the Corporation's performance during the year. Performance is measured not only by profit, which is directly affected by the impact of weather on the profits of the Corporation's property casualty insurance subsidiaries, but by a review of factors such as stock price, premium volume, total expenses, combined ratios of the insurance subsidiaries and ratings issued by national rating agencies, including A. M. Best Company. Bonuses are established at the end of each year but do not reflect the application of any precise formula to the performance indicators listed. Because of the impact that weather has on the financial indicators reviewed, we do not feel that the application of a mechanical system of determining bonuses is appropriate; therefore, the setting of bonuses is a subjective process, not totally dependent on the objective criteria listed.

The Committee met in October of 2000 to determine year-end bonuses for executives, including Mr. Schiff, President and Chief Executive Officer. We reviewed an analysis of the total salary and bonus paid to executives from 1995 through 1999. We also reviewed corporate performance for the first three quarters of 2000. While we felt that results for the year merited a significant bonus, at his request, no bonus was paid to Mr. Schiff.

The third component of compensation is awarded through the grant of stock options. We consider options to be an integral part of total compensation. In addition, options are the primary mechanism for encouraging the ownership of the Corporation's shares, aligning the interests of executives with those of shareholders and for providing long-term rewards to employees for overall corporate performance. In granting options to executives, we intend not only to reward executives for services to the Corporation but to provide incentive for individual option holders to remain in the employ of the Corporation. Executives are reviewed for stock option grants each year. In determining the options to be granted, we review grants by the Corporation's peers with the objective of providing the opportunity for competitive long-term compensation.

In January 2000, Mr. Schiff received options for 50,000 shares of the Corporation's stock. The value of those grants, employing SEC evaluation procedures, was approximately 38% of the mean value of grants made by the Corporation's competitors to their chief executive officers during 1998.

The Internal Revenue Service has limited the deductibility of compensation paid to the Corporation's chief executive officer and the four other most highly compensated executive officers to one million dollars each, unless that compensation is paid pursuant to a performance-based compensation plan meeting IRS requirements. Income resulting from the grant of bonuses under the Corporation's Incentive Compensation Plan and the exercise of options under the Corporation's Stock Option Plans qualifies as performance-based compensation under these requirements.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is composed of three independent directors of the Board. The Audit Committee Charter provides that the general function of the Committee is to review with the Corporation's independent accountant the nature and results of the Corporation's audit engagement; to review the scope and results of the Corporation's internal auditing procedures; to review the adequacy of the Corporation's system of internal accounting controls; and to recommend to the full Board the retention of the Corporation's independent accountants.

We have reviewed and discussed with management the Corporation's audited financial statements as of and for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000.

We also discussed with the Corporation's independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended, by the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

We have received the written disclosures and the letter from the Corporation's independent auditors required by Independence Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as amended by the Independence Standards Board, and have discussed with the independent auditors their independence from the Corporation and its management.

Based on these reviews and discussions, we recommended to the Board of Directors of the Corporation that the audited financial statements referred to above be included in the Corporation's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Mr. Schiff is chairman and a minority owner of Schiff, Kreidler-Shell, Inc., an insurance agency which represents a number of insurance companies, including the Corporation's insurance affiliates. During the year ending December 31, 2000, the Corporation's insurance affiliates paid Schiff, Kreidler-Shell, Inc., commissions of $4,127,070.

John J. Schiff, Jr. is chairman of the Board, president, chief executive officer and a director of the Corporation, The Cincinnati Insurance Company and The Cincinnati Indemnity Company; and chief executive officer and a director of The Cincinnati Casualty Company, The Cincinnati Life Insurance Company and CFC Investment Company. Thomas R. Schiff is a director of the Corporation, The Cincinnati Insurance Company, The Cincinnati Casualty Company, The Cincinnati Indemnity Company and The Cincinnati Life Insurance Company. John J. Schiff, Jr. and Thomas R. Schiff are principal owners and Thomas R. Schiff is Chairman of the Board and a director of John J. & Thomas R. Schiff & Co., Inc., an insurance agency which represents a number of insurance companies, including the Corporation's insurance affiliates. During the year ended December 31, 2000, John J. & Thomas R. Schiff & Co., Inc. paid $96,958 in rent to CFC Investment Company, one of the Corporation's subsidiary companies. The Corporation purchased director and officer liability insurance from John J. & Thomas R. Schiff & Co., Inc. for a premium of $72,159 and the Corporation's insurance affiliates paid John J. & Thomas R. Schiff & Co., Inc. commissions of $3,092,941.

Larry R. Webb is a director of the Corporation, The Cincinnati Insurance Company and The Cincinnati Indemnity Company; and is President and a principal owner of Webb Insurance Agency, Inc., an insurance agency which represents a number of insurance companies including the Corporation's insurance affiliates. During the year ended December 31, 2000, the Corporation's insurance affiliates paid Webb Insurance Agency, Inc., commissions of $820,054.

Alan R. Weiler is a director of the Corporation, The Cincinnati Insurance Company and The Cincinnati Indemnity Company; and is President and a principal owner of Archer-Meek-Weiler Agency, Inc., an insurance agency which represents a number of insurance companies, including the Corporation's insurance affiliates. During the year ended December 31, 2000, the Corporation's insurance affiliates paid Archer-Meek-Weiler Agency, Inc., commissions of $2,211,392.

Frank J. Schultheis is a director of the Corporation, The Cincinnati Insurance Company and The Cincinnati Indemnity Company. Mr. Schultheis is a principal owner and President of Schultheis Insurance Agency, Inc., and a principal owner and Secretary of Hoosierland Insurance Agency, Inc. and Salem Insurance Agency, Inc., all of which are insurance agencies which represent a number of insurance companies including the Corporation's insurance affiliates. During the year ended December 31, 2000, the Corporation's insurance affiliates paid those agencies $2,438,857, $279,385 and $703,882, respectively.

During that period, the Schultheis Insurance Agency, Inc. had four automobile finance leases with CFC Investment Company in an aggregate principal amount of $124,510 at an interest rate of 9.5%. The principal balance of these finance leases had been reduced to $51,790 at December 31, 2000.

In addition, on January 25, 1995, Salem Insurance Agency, Inc. purchased the assets of an insurance agency owned by CFC Investment Company, one of the Corporation's affiliated companies, for consideration totalling $2,290,730. On December 20, 1995, a partnership in which Mr. Schultheis is a 25% partner, purchased the real estate occupied by the agency for the amount of $300,000. The selling price for the agency assets was determined by management of the Corporation, based upon an appraisal of the asset by a professional appraiser. The price for the real estate was determined through an appraisal obtained from an independent source. As part of the payment of the purchase price for the assets of the insurance agency, Salem Insurance Agency, Inc. executed two promissory notes to CFC Investment Company totalling $1,850,000 and which bear interest at the prime rate of interest. By December 31, 2000, the principal balance of those notes had been reduced to $906,608. The agency also had an automobile and equipment finance lease with CFC Investment Company in the principal amount of $83,500 at interest rates ranging from 9% to 10%, which had been reduced to $75,666 by December 31, 2000.

The Hoosierland Insurance Agency, Inc. also participated in the Premium Incentive Loan Program and had a secured loan from CFC Investment Company in the principal amount of $109,000 at 9% interest. At December 31, 2000, the principal balance of the loan had been reduced to $103,157.

The foregoing agencies are paid at the same commission rates and have the same agent's contract with the Corporation's insurance affiliates as other agents of those companies in similar geographic areas. Each of the aforementioned agencies has employees and solicitors who are not directors or executive officers of the Corporation's insurance affiliates. Participation in the Premium Incentive Loan Program is offered as a production incentive and automobile finance leases are made in the ordinary course of business to credit-worthy agencies of the Corporation's insurance affiliates. The loans and leases to the foregoing agencies were made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable loans and leases to other agencies.

As has been the Corporation's practice, independent auditors for the current year will not be selected by the Board of Directors prior to the Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Representatives from Deloitte & Touche LLP, which served as the Corporation's independent auditors for the last calendar year, will be present at the meeting and will be afforded the opportunity to make any statements they wish and to answer appropriate questions.

APPENDIX

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

For Cincinnati Financial Corporation

Role and Independence

The audit committee of the board of directors assists the board in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing and reporting practices of the corporation and such other duties as directed by the board. The membership of the committee shall consist of at least three directors who are generally knowledgeable in financial and auditing matters, including at least one member with accounting or related financial management expertise. Each member shall be free of any relationship that, in the opinion of the board, would interfere with their individual exercise of independent judgment. The committee is expected to maintain free and open communication (including private executive sessions at least annually) with the independent accountants, the internal auditors and management of the corporation. In discharging this oversight role, the committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention, with full power to retain outside counsel or other experts for this purpose. This charter shall be reviewed and updated annually.

Responsibilities

The audit committee's primary responsibilities include:

Primary input into the recommendation to the board for the selection and retention of the independent accountant who audits the financial statements of the corporation. In so doing, the committee will discuss and consider the auditor's written affirmation that the auditor is in fact independent, will discuss the nature and rigor of the audit process, receive and review all reports and will provide to the independent accountant full access to the committee (and the board) to report on any and all matters appropriate.

Provision of guidance and oversight to the internal audit function of the corporation, including review of the organization, plans and results of such activity.

Review of financial statements with management and the independent auditor. It is anticipated that these discussions will include quality of earnings review of reserves and accruals, reconsideration of the suitability of accounting principles, review of highly judgmental areas, audit adjustments whether or not recorded and such other inquiries as may be appropriate.

Discussion with management and the auditors of the quality and adequacy of the company's internal controls.

Discussion with management of the status of pending litigation, taxation matters and other areas of oversight of the legal and compliance area as may be appropriate.

Reporting on audit committee activities to the full board.
