This document contains forward-looking statements about Fifth Third Bancorp, Old Kent Financial Corporation and the combined company which we believe are within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. This document contains certain forward-looking statements with respect to the financial condition, results of operations, plans, objectives, future performance and business of Fifth Third, Old Kent and the combined company including statements preceded by, followed by or that include the words "believes," "expects," "anticipates" or similar expressions. These forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties. There are a number of important factors that could cause future results to differ materially from historical performance and these forward-looking statements. Factors that might cause such a difference include, but are not limited to: (1) competitive pressures among depository institutions increase significantly; (2) changes in the interest rate environment reduce interest margins; (3) prepayment speeds, loan sale volumes, charge-offs and loan loss provisions; (4) general economic conditions, either national or in the states in which Fifth Third and Old Kent do business, are less favorable than expected; (5) legislative or regulatory changes adversely affect the businesses in which Fifth Third and Old Kent are engaged; (6) changes in the securities markets; and (7) the possibility that the merger or the planned divestitures will not occur when or as anticipated. Further information on other factors which could affect the financial results of Fifth Third after the merger are included in Fifth Third's and Old Kent's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These documents are available free of charge at the Commission's website at <http://www.sec.gov> and/or from Fifth Third or Old Kent.
