GENERAL INFORMATION

This Proxy Statement is furnished to the shareholders of Evans Bancorp, Inc., a New York corporation (the Company), in connection with the solicitation of proxies for use at the Eighteenth Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the Annual Meeting) to be held at Cradle Beach Camp, 8038 Old Lake Shore Road, Angola, New York, on Thursday, April 27, 2006 at 9:00 a.m. and at any adjournments thereof. The enclosed proxy is being solicited by the Board of Directors of the Company.

Shares of common stock represented by a proxy in the form enclosed, properly executed, will be voted in the manner instructed, or if no instructions are indicated, in favor of the election of the director nominees named therein. The proxy given by the enclosed proxy card may be revoked at any time before it is voted by delivering to the Secretary of the Company a written revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. Any shareholder of record may vote in person at the Annual Meeting, whether or not he or she has previously given a proxy.

This Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy are first being mailed to shareholders on or about April 3, 2006.

VOTING SECURITIES

Only holders of shares of common stock of record at the close of business on March 13, 2006 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting and at all adjournments thereof. At the close of business on March 13, 2006, the Company had 2,719,636 shares of common stock outstanding. For all matters to be voted on at the Annual Meeting, holders of common stock are entitled to one vote per share. A majority of shares entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. Broker non-votes and abstentions will be counted as being present or represented at the Annual Meeting for purposes of establishing a quorum.

Under the Company's By-Laws and the laws of the State of New York, directors of the Company are elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the meeting by holders of shares of common stock entitled to vote in the election. That means the four director nominees will be elected if they receive more affirmative votes than any other nominees. Any other matters that may come before the Annual Meeting for consideration will be decided by a majority of the votes cast by the holders of shares of common stock entitled to vote on such matters.

With regard to the election of directors, votes may be cast in favor or withheld. Votes that are withheld will be excluded entirely from the vote and will have no effect. Additionally, abstentions and broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the election, as they are not considered votes cast.

The Nominating Committee met once during fiscal 2005. This committee identifies and recommends qualified individuals for election to the Board of Directors either for election by the shareholders at the Annual Meeting to a new three-year term, or to fill a vacancy left by a departing director for the remainder of such director's unexpired three-year term. The Nominating Committee also oversees matters related to governance of the Company. The Board of Directors has determined that each of the members of the Nominating Committee is an independent director, as defined in the Nasdaq listing standards.

The Board of Directors has adopted a Nominating Committee Charter, which was included as Appendix A in our Proxy Statement for fiscal year 2003, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 18, 2004. The Nominating Committee will consider whether to nominate any person recommended by a shareholder for election to the Company's Board of Directors in accordance with the provisions of the Company's By-Laws. Under the Company's By-Laws, shareholder nominations for directors to be elected at an Annual Meeting of shareholders must be submitted to the Secretary of the Company in writing not less than 14 days nor more than 50 days immediately preceding the date of the Annual Meeting. If less than 21 days notice of the Annual Meeting is given to shareholders, nominations shall be mailed or delivered to the Secretary of the Company not later than the close of business on the seventh day following the day on which the notice of meeting was mailed. Such notification shall contain the following information to the extent known by the notifying shareholder: (a) name and address of each proposed nominee; (b) the principal occupation of each proposed nominee; (c) the total number of shares of common stock of the Company that will be voted for each proposed nominee; (d) the name and residence address of the notifying shareholder; and (e) the number of shares of common stock of the Company owned by the notifying shareholder. Nominations not made in accordance with the By-Laws of the Company may be disregarded by the presiding officer of the meeting, in his/her discretion, and upon his/her instruction, the inspectors of election may disregard all votes cast for each such nominee. However, in the event that any such nominee is nominated by more than one shareholder, the nomination shall be honored, and all votes cast in favor of such nominee shall be counted if at least one nomination for that person complies with the provisions of the By-Laws of the Company.

In its evaluation of prospective director candidates, the Nominating Committee considers an individual's independence (as defined in Nasdaq listing standards), skills and experience relative to the needs of the Company. The process whereby the Nominating Committee identifies candidates may include identification of individuals well-known in the community in which the Company operates and individuals recommended to the Nominating Committee by current directors or officers who know those individuals through business or other professional relationships, as well as recommendations of individuals to the Nominating Committee from shareholders and customers. Nominees meet personally with the members of the Nominating Committee and

Each director of the Company also serves as a member of the Board of Directors of the Bank. The directors do not receive compensation for meetings of the Bank's Board of Directors, but do receive committee fees. During fiscal 2005, non-employee directors were compensated at the rate of $1,000 per meeting of the Company's Board of Directors, except that Mr. Biddle, who also serves as Secretary of the Company and of the Bank, received $1,250 per meeting of the Company's Board of Directors. Non-employee directors were compensated at a rate of $350 per committee meeting of the Company's Board of Directors and of the Bank's Board of Directors, except that the chairperson of each committee received $550 per meeting.

In addition to director meeting fees, Mr. Brothman received $38,500 in 2005 for serving as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company and of the Bank. Mr. Brothman does not receive committee meeting fees.

In addition to directors' fees, non-employee directors received an economic benefit from endorsement split-dollar life insurance policies in the aggregate amount of $9,592 during 2005. Mr. Brothman and the other non-employee Directors also received director options pursuant to the Evans Bancorp, Inc. 1999 Stock Option and Long-Term Incentive Plan, as amended. Stock Option Grants in Fiscal 2005

The following table provides information with respect to stock option grants during fiscal 2005 to the Named Executive Officers. The options have an exercise price equal to the market price of a share of common stock on the grant date.

Option Grants in Last Fiscal Year

Name	Number of Securities Underlying Options Granted (#)	Individual Grants % of Total Options Granted to Employees in Fiscal Year	Exercise Price ($/share)	Expiration Date	Grant Date
					Value
					Grant Date Present Value ($)
James Tilley	2,500	14.7%	$ 22.00	September 21, 2015	$ 4,900 (1)
William R. Glass	2,000	11.8%	$ 22.00	September 21, 2015	$ 7,980 (2)
Mark DeBacker	2,000	11.8%	$ 22.00	September 21, 2015	$ 7,980 (2)
Robert G. Miller, Jr.	2,000	11.8%	$ 22.00	September 21, 2015	$ 7,980 (2)

- (1) Grant date present value is determined by use of the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following assumptions for Mr. Tilley: expected volatility of 18.02%, risk-free discount rate of 3.92%, dividend yield of 3.09%, and 1.5 year expected life. The valuation method and assumptions are the same as those the Company used in accounting for option expense in its financial statements. It should be noted that this model is only one method of valuing options, and the Company's use of the model should not be interpreted as an endorsement of its accuracy. The actual value of the options may be significantly different, and the value actually realized, if any, will depend upon the excess of the market value of the common stock over the option exercise price at the time of exercise.

- (2) Grant date present value is determined by use of the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following assumptions for Messrs. Glass, DeBacker and Miller: expected volatility of 18.75%, risk-free discount rate of 4.14%, dividend yield of 3.09%, and 7 year expected life. The valuation method and assumptions are the same as those the Company used in accounting for option expense in its financial statements. It should be noted that this model is only one method of valuing options, and the Company's use of the model should not be interpreted as an endorsement of its accuracy. The actual value of the options may be significantly different, and the value actually realized, if any, will depend upon the excess of the market value of the common stock over the option exercise price at the time of exercise.

The in-the-money option exercise prices are $19.25. These stock options were granted at the market price of the stock on the grant date.

Defined Benefit Pension Plan

The Bank maintains a defined benefit pension plan (the Pension Plan) for all eligible employees, including employees of its subsidiaries. An employee becomes vested in a pension benefit after five years of service. Upon retirement at age 65, vested participants are entitled to receive a monthly benefit. The following table indicates the annual retirement benefit that would be payable from the Pension Plan under the amended benefit formula upon retirement at age 65 in fiscal year 2005, expressed in the form of a single life annuity for the average annual earnings and years of credited service. The benefits listed below are not subject to deduction for Social Security or other offset amounts.

Years of Service at Normal Retirement

Final Average Compensation	10	20	30	40
$30,000	$ 3,000	$ 6,000	$ 9,000	$ 9,000
$50,000	$ 5,000	$10,000	$15,000	$15,000
$100,000	$10,000	$20,000	$30,000	$30,000
$150,000	$15,000	$30,000	$45,000	$45,000
$220,000	$22,000	$44,000	$66,000	$66,000

Pension Benefit Formula: 1% of compensation times years of service (max 30).

Prior to an amendment to the Pension Plan, effective May 1, 1994, the monthly benefit under the Pension Plan was 3% of average monthly compensation multiplied by years of service up to a maximum of 15 years of service. In 1994, the Pension Plan was amended to change the benefit to 1% of average monthly compensation (as defined under the Pension Plan, generally the highest five consecutive compensation years out of the latest ten compensation years at retirement) multiplied by years of service up to a maximum of 30 years of service. However, the benefits already accrued by employees prior to this amendment were not reduced by the amendment. Messrs. Tilley, Glass, DeBacker and Miller are participants in the Pension Plan. As of December 31, 2005, Mr. Tilley had 17 years of credited service and his average annual compensation under the Pension Plan was $210,585; Mr. Glass had 12 years of credited service and his average annual compensation under the Pension Plan was $164,027; Mr. DeBacker had 4 years of credited service and his average annual compensation under the Pension Plan was $119,959; and Mr. Miller had 5 years of credited service and his average annual compensation under the Pension Plan was $226,790.

Employment Agreements

Messrs. Tilley, Glass and DeBacker have each entered into an Employment Agreement with the Bank. Each Employment Agreement runs through December 31, 2010 and provides that salary will be set annually by the Board of Directors of the Bank. If the Bank terminates the executive's Employment Agreement without cause (as defined in his Employment Agreement), the Bank will be obligated to continue to pay the executive's base salary then in effect for the longer of three months or the remainder of the term of his Employment Agreement. Mr. Miller and ENB Insurance Agency (formerly known as M&W Agency) were parties to an Employment Agreement which expired on December 31, 2005. Under the Employment Agreement, Mr. Miller was entitled to receive an annual salary of $150,000, subject to increases as may be approved from time to time by the Board of Directors of ENB Insurance Agency, with the consent of the Board of Directors of the Bank, plus a bonus based upon the earnings before interest and taxes of ENB Insurance Agency in excess of specific target amounts, up to $100,000 annually.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plans

The Bank maintains a Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (SERP) in which each of Messrs. Tilley, Glass, DeBacker and Miller is a participant. Under the SERPs, each of Messrs. Tilley, Glass, DeBacker and Miller is entitled to an annual benefit payment equal to 70% of his final average earnings, currently defined as the highest average of five consecutive years out of the last ten worked, reduced by 50% of his annual Social Security benefit, the amount of his annual benefit under the Pension Plan, and the value of his annual benefit attributable to employer matching contributions to the Company's 401(k) Plan, at or after attaining age 65. There are provisions for reduced early retirement benefits after attaining age 60 but prior to age 65. Upon a participant's entitlement to a benefit under the SERP, his benefit shall be paid in the form of either (i) a single life annuity with 15 payments guaranteed, or (ii) a lump sum payment which is actuarially equivalent to the annuity form of payment described in clause (i). The SERP also allows for payment of such benefit to a designated beneficiary under certain circumstances, such as upon the death of the employee. The Bank has purchased life insurance policies on Messrs. Tilley, Glass, DeBacker and Miller to assist in funding its obligations under their SERPs.

Employee Savings Plan

The Bank also maintains a 401(k) salary deferral plan to assist employees, including employees of its subsidiaries, in saving for retirement. All employees are eligible to participate on the first of the month following date of hire. Eligible employees can contribute up to the maximum amount allowable under the Internal Revenue Code ($14,000 in 2005). After one year of service, the Bank makes matching contributions equal to an automatic 1% of an employee's base compensation plus 25% of the employee's contribution up to 4% of their annual base compensation. Participants are always 100% vested both in their own contributions and the Bank's matching contribution.

Individual account earnings will depend on the performance of the particular funds in which the participant invests. Specific guidelines govern adjustments to contribution levels, investment decisions and withdrawals from the plan. The benefit is paid as an annuity unless the employee elects one of the optional forms of payment available under the plan. See Summary Compensation Table for a summary of the amounts contributed by the Bank to the Employee Savings Plan for the benefit of Messrs. Tilley, Glass, DeBacker and Miller.

Deferred Compensation Plan

The Company maintains a non-qualified deferred compensation plan whereby certain officers and directors may elect to defer 1% to 100% of their compensation until retirement or termination of service. The Company credits such deferrals at a rate determined at the beginning of each plan year, which is based on the prime rate then in effect. During fiscal 2005, amounts credited under the Deferred Compensation Plan at interest rates greater than 120% of the applicable federal long-term rate in effect have been reported for the Named

Executive Officers in the Summary Compensation Table as Other Annual Compensation for the amounts credited at the rate paid less 120% of the applicable federal long-term rate. During fiscal years 2004 and 2003, no amounts credited under the Deferred Compensation Plan have been reported for the Named Executive Officers in the Summary Compensation Table since the interest credited did not exceed 120% of the applicable federal long-term rate.

Executive Life Insurance Plan

The Company provides an endorsement split-dollar benefit to certain officers and directors in connection with bank-owned life insurance maintained by the Bank. This benefit carries with officers and directors post-retirement. See Summary Compensation Table for a summary of the economic benefit received by Messrs. Tilley, Glass, DeBacker and Miller.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The Human Resource Committee of the Board of Directors serves as the Company's Compensation Committee. The members of the Human Resource Committee are: William F. Barrett, Phillip Brothman, LaVerne G. Hall, Nancy W. Ware and Thomas H. Waring, Jr. None of the members of the Human Resource Committee is or has been an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries. Mr. Brothman was a partner of the law firm of Hurst Brothman & Yusick, which, prior to February 2004, served as general counsel to the Company and received legal fees in exchange for such services, and is currently a partner of the law firm of Harris Beach PLLC, which, since February 2004, has served as general counsel to the Company and receives legal fees in exchange for such services. See Certain Relationships and Related Transactions.

During fiscal 2005, none of the Company's executive officers served on the compensation committee (or equivalent) or the board of directors, of another entity whose executive officers served on the Human Resource Committee or the Company's Board of Directors.

HUMAN RESOURCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The information contained in this Human Resource Committee Report shall not be deemed to be soliciting material or filed or incorporated by reference in future filings with the SEC, or subject to the liabilities of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates it by reference into a document filed under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Human Resource Committee has the responsibility of reviewing the overall compensation policies for the employees of the Company, including the establishment of the compensation of Messrs. Tilley, Glass, DeBacker and Miller, the Named Executive Officers.

The Human Resource Committee uses a base salary/hourly rate and a bonus program to determine the compensation of the Named Executive Officers, as well as the other employees of the Bank.

The Human Resource Committee uses a system of salary grades and corresponding salary ranges to set base salary/hourly rates. Positions are assigned a salary grade on the basis of job descriptions and comparisons to benchmark positions in the industry. Annually, the Human Resource Committee participates in a number of salary surveys provided by or endorsed by various bank trade association groups. The surveys summarize compensation information on a national, regional and local basis, with data furnished based upon bank asset size and geographic region. In January of each year, Mr. Tilley presents recommendations to the Human Resource Committee to adjust the salary ranges of employees based upon this information, as well as recommended salary adjustments for the employees of the Bank, excluding himself. Compensation recommendations are determined based upon individual job performance, experience and position within the salary range. Mr. Tilley, as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and the Bank, makes recommendations to the Human Resource Committee for the compensation levels of the other Named Executives, based upon the information described above. The Human Resource Committee determines annual adjustments to Mr. Tilley's salary based upon the same approach.

Also, in January of each year, the Human Resource Committee establishes a bonus pool for the Bank's employees for the previous fiscal year, based upon the financial performance of the Company and the Bank for the previous year, including such factors as operating results compared to the operating budget, net income, return on average assets, return on average equity, earnings per share, growth in loans, and growth in deposits. The Human Resource Committee, in January following a fiscal year's conclusion, then determines what amount and allocation of the bonus pool pertaining to the prior fiscal year will be paid to each of Mr. Tilley and the Senior Vice Presidents, Mr. Glass and Mr. DeBacker, based upon its evaluation of each person's performance and contributions to the financial results of the Company and the Bank for the prior year. The bonus for Mr. Miller was determined in accordance with provisions of his employment agreement, which terminated on December 31, 2005. The Bank management then allocates the remainder of the bonus pool among other employees of the Bank, based upon management's evaluation of individual job performance and contributions to the Bank.

The Human Resource Committee considered the following factors in determining the base salary for 2005 for Mr. Tilley, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and of the Bank: the Company's success in attaining its profit plan, as discussed above, and the level of compensation paid to the highest paid executive at the companies participating in selected industry surveys. Based on these factors, the Committee established Mr. Tilley's base salary at $214,000, effective January 27, 2005, which is an increase of approximately 5.9% from his 2004 salary level of $202,000. This placed Mr. Tilley's compensation within the average range of base salaries paid by those companies participating in selected industry surveys.

For 2005, Mr. Tilley was eligible to earn a cash bonus based on Company performance, as determined by the Human Resource Committee. For 2005, the Committee determined that, based on the Company's performance, Mr. Tilley earned a bonus of $27,000, which represented 12.6% of his base salary for fiscal year 2005.

On September 20, 2005, Mr. Tilley was granted an option to purchase 2,500 shares of the Company's common stock. That grant was made in accordance with the guidelines of the Company's 1999 Stock Option and Long-Term Incentive Plan, as amended.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Mr. Phillip Brothman, a director and Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors, is a partner of the law firm of Harris Beach PLLC, with which his predecessor firm, Hurst Brothman & Yusick, merged in February 2004. Harris Beach PLLC serves as general counsel to the Company and receives legal fees from the Company in exchange for such services. Prior to February 2004, Hurst Brothman & Yusick served as general counsel to the Company and received legal fees in exchange for such services. The fees paid to Harris Beach PLLC amounted to less than 5% of the firm's gross revenues for fiscal 2005.

ENB Insurance Agency, Inc., a subsidiary of the Bank, leases certain of its offices from Millpine Enterprises, a partnership of Robert G. Miller, Jr., a director of the Company and President of ENB Insurance Agency, Inc. and ENB Associates Inc., his father, and his brother. The total amount of payments in fiscal 2005 was $41,226, and the Company expects lease payments in fiscal 2006 to total a similar amount.

During January 2006, the Bank contracted with Skeels Consulting, Inc., a consulting corporation owned by the brother-in-law and sister-in-law to Company President and Chief Executive Officer James Tilley, to create a software database to allow the Bank to more readily access its customer information. The contract calls for $83,500 (not including travel and incidental expenses) in payment for such services, and should be concluded in fiscal 2006. During fiscal 2005, the Bank paid $26,167 to Skeels Consulting to evaluate the Bank's readiness and capacity for a customer relationship management system.

The Bank has had, and in the future expects to have, banking and fiduciary transactions with Directors and Executive Officers of the Company and some of their affiliates. All such transactions have been in the ordinary course of business and on substantially the same terms (including interest rates and collateral on loans) as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with unrelated third parties, and do not involve more than a normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The information contained in the Performance Graph shall not be deemed to be soliciting material or filed or incorporated by reference in future filings with the SEC, or subject to the liabilities of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates it by reference into a document filed under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The following Performance Graph compares the Company's cumulative total stockholder return on its common stock for a five-year period (December 31, 2000 to December 31, 2005) with the cumulative total return of the Nasdaq Bank Index and Nasdaq Market Index. The Company's common stock began trading on the Nasdaq National Market on July 9, 2001. Prior to that date, the Company's common stock was not traded on an exchange, and the price information used is based upon stock prices in private transactions as disclosed to the Company for the periods indicated. The comparison for each of the periods assumes that $100 was invested on December 31, 2000 in each of the Company's common stock, the stocks included in the Nasdaq Bank Index and the stocks included in the Nasdaq Market Index, and that all dividends were reinvested without commissions. The Company data gives effect to all stock splits and stock dividends, including the most recent stock dividend paid to shareholders on December 7, 2005. This table does not forecast future performance of the Company's common stock.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The information contained in this Audit Committee Report shall not be deemed to be soliciting material or filed or incorporated by reference in future filings with the SEC, or subject to the liabilities of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates it by reference into a document filed under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The charter of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors specifies that the purpose of the Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in:

overseeing and ensuring the integrity of the Company's financial statements, overseeing the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, overseeing the independent auditors qualifications and independence, overseeing the performance of the Company's internal audit function, and overseeing the Company's system of disclosure controls and system of internal controls regarding finance, accounting, legal compliance, and ethics that management and the Board have established.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with the Company's management and KPMG LLP, the Company's independent auditors, the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the 2005 fiscal year. The Audit Committee has also discussed with KPMG LLP the matters required to be discussed pursuant to SAS No. 61 (Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards, AU Section 380), which includes, among other items, matters related to the conduct of the audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements.

The Audit Committee has received and reviewed the written disclosures and the communication from KPMG LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and has discussed with KPMG LLP its independence from the Company.

Based on the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for its 2005 fiscal year for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Submitted by the Audit Committee,

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has appointed KPMG LLP as the Company's independent auditors to conduct the audit of the Company's books and records for the year ending December 31, 2006. KPMG LLP also served as the Company's independent auditors for the year ended December 31, 2005. Representatives of that firm will be present at the Annual Meeting to respond to appropriate questions that may be raised, and they will have the opportunity to make a statement, if they so desire.

Fees Paid to KPMG LLP

The following table shows the fees that the Company paid or accrued for audit and other services provided by KPMG LLP for fiscal years 2005 and 2004. Audit fees consist of professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements, review of the Company's financial statements included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and services associated with SEC registration statements and other SEC filings. Audit-related services consist of audit-related work pertaining to the financial statement audits of the Company's employee benefit plans. During fiscal 2004, the Company transitioned such employee benefit plan audit work to a firm other than KPMG LLP. Tax fees consist of tax advice and planning services.

During fiscal 2004 and 2005, the Company used a firm other than KPMG LLP for tax compliance services. No other fees were paid to KPMG LLP in fiscal 2005 or fiscal 2004.

	2005	2004
Audit Fees	$ 98,500	$ 89,200
Audit-Related Fees		3,000
Tax Fees		3,600
All Other Fees
 Total	 $ 98,500	 $ 95,800

All Audit-Related Fees and Tax Fees and All Other Fees listed in the table above were approved by the Company's Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the principal accountant's independence and has concluded that such services did not impair KPMG LLP's independence. The Audit Committee adopted a formal pre-approval policy for fiscal year 2005. This policy details the types of audit, audit-related, tax and other services that have the general pre-approval of the Audit Committee, and the cost limits for those services. Unless a type of service to be provided by the independent auditors has received general pre-approval, it requires specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee. Also, any proposed services exceeding pre-approved cost levels require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee.
