State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On November 8, 2006, Keithley Instruments, Inc. (the Company) announced that it would delay announcing financial results for the fourth quarter and the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006 until the Special Committee of its Board of Directors investigating the Company's stock option practices had substantially completed its investigation and a determination had been made whether its conclusions would have any material impact on the Company's current and historical financial statements. This process continues, and the Company will not be able to file its Form 10-K until the accounting consequences, if any, of the investigation have been determined. The Company currently expects that it will be able to file its Form 10-K by December 29, 2006, but there is no assurance that it will be able to do so.
