(the Company) entered into a second amendment to its Revolving Credit Agreement dated as of December 20, 2005, with National City Bank, as administrative agent, and certain other lending institutions. Pursuant to the second amendment, in addition to revolving loans in the aggregate amount of up to $100 million that were previously available under the Revolving Credit Agreement, the Company may request additional revolving loans in the aggregate amount of up to $125 million. Such additional revolving loans may only be used to redeem the Company's outstanding 9/4% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011. Such additional revolving loans must be repaid when the Company receives net proceeds from the pending sale of its nickel business, but not later than July 31, 2007. The Company may not declare and pay any cash dividends on its common stock at any time during which any additional revolving loans are outstanding.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

Item 8.01. Other Events

The Company has elected to call for redemption all $400 million aggregate principal amount of its outstanding 9 1/4 % Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011. The notes were issued pursuant to an Indenture dated as of December 12, 2001, under which Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (Wells Fargo), is serving as successor trustee. On February 2, 2007, the Company caused Wells Fargo to mail to registered holders of the notes a Notice of Full Redemption. The notes will be redeemed at a redemption price of 104.625% of the principal amount plus accrued interest up to, but not including, the redemption date of March 7, 2007. Holders of the notes must surrender their notes to Wells Fargo, which is acting as paying agent, in order to collect the redemption price and accrued interest. Under the provisions of the Indenture, the redemption price for the notes will become due and payable on March 7, 2007, and upon payment of the redemption price interest on the notes will cease to accrue on and after that date.
