Cautionary Language About Forward-Looking Statements

The attached slide presentation contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 including certain plans, expectations, goals, and projections, and including statements about the benefits of the merger between United and Premier, which are subject to numerous assumptions, risks, and uncertainties. These forward-looking statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of the respective managements of United and Premier and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond the control of United and Premier. In addition, these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions with respect to future business strategies and decisions that are subject to change. The earnings estimates contained within the slide presentation are based upon consensus information of analysts from the Institutional Brokers Estimate System (I/B/E/S). These earnings estimates are not necessarily those of United s and Premier s management and thus are not intended to be earnings guidance. Actual results may differ materially from the anticipated results discussed in these forward-looking statements because of possible uncertainties. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements: (1) the businesses of United and Premier may not be combined successfully, or such combination may take longer, be more difficult, time-consuming or costly to accomplish than expected; (2) the expected growth opportunities or cost savings from the merger may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; (3) deposit attrition, operating costs, customer losses and business disruption following the merger, including adverse effects on relationships with employees, may be greater than expected; (4) the regulatory approvals required for the merger may not be obtained on the proposed terms or on the anticipated schedule; (5) the stockholders of Premier may fail to approve the merger; (6) legislative or regulatory changes, including changes in accounting standards, may adversely affect the businesses in which United and Premier are engaged; (7) the interest rate environment may further compress margins and adversely affect net interest income; (8) results may be adversely affected by continued diversification of assets and adverse changes to credit quality; (9) competition from other financial services companies in United s and Premier s markets could adversely affect operations; (10) an economic slowdown could adversely affect credit quality and loan originations; and (11) the involvement of the United States and its allies in the war in southwest Asia could have unpredictable negative affects on United's and Premier's businesses and the economy. Additional factors, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements are discussed in Premier's and United's reports (such as Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K) filed with and furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission and available on the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>). All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning any goals, objectives, the proposed transaction or other matters attributable to United or Premier or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. United and Premier caution the foregoing list of factors is not exclusive. Neither United nor Premier assume any obligation to update any forward-looking statement.
