Item 1.01, Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 9, 2010, Lincoln National Corporation (“we” or the “Company”) entered into two credit agreements with a syndicate of banks, including JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (“JPMCB”), as administrative agent, J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and Banc of America Securities LLC, as joint lead arrangers and joint bookrunners, Bank of America N.A., as syndication agent, and the other lenders named therein. One agreement (the “4-Year Agreement”) allows for issuance of letters of credit of up to $1.5 billion, as well as borrowings to finance any draws under the letters of credit. The 4-Year Agreement is unsecured and has a commitment termination date of June 9, 2014. The 4-Year Agreement must be used primarily to provide letters of credit in support of certain life insurance reserves. The second agreement (the “364-Day Agreement,” and together with the “4-Year Agreement” the “Credit Facility”) allows for borrowing or issuance of letters of credit of up to $500 million and may be used for general corporate purposes. The 364-Day Agreement is unsecured and has a commitment termination date of June 8, 2011. Letters of credit issued under the Credit Facility may remain outstanding for one year following the applicable commitment termination date of each agreement.

Under the 4-Year Agreement, we pay a fee of 1.375% per annum on issued syndicated letters of credit and a facility fee of 0.375% per annum on the aggregate commitment. Under the 364-Day Agreement, we pay a fee of 1.5% per annum on issued syndicated letters of credit and a facility fee of 0.25% per annum on the aggregate commitment. These fees adjust automatically in the event of a change in our credit ratings.

The Credit Facility contains customary terms and conditions, including covenants restricting our ability to incur liens, merge or consolidate with another entity where we are not the surviving entity and dispose of all or substantially all of our assets. The Credit Facility also includes financial covenants including: (i) maintenance of a minimum consolidated net worth equal to the sum of (a) $9.2 billion plus (b) fifty percent (50%) of the aggregate net proceeds of equity issuances received by us in accordance with the terms of the Credit Facility (other than net proceeds used to repay investments to the U.S. Department of the Treasury under the Capital Purchase Program); and (ii) a debt-to-capital ratio as defined in accordance with the Credit Facility not to exceed 0.35 to 1.00. Further, the Credit Facility contains customary events of default, subject to certain materiality thresholds and grace periods for certain of those events of default. The events of default include payment defaults, covenant defaults, material inaccuracies in representations and warranties, certain cross-defaults, bankruptcy and liquidation proceedings and other customary defaults. Upon an event of default, the Credit Facility provides that, among other things, the commitments may be terminated and the loans then outstanding may be declared due and payable.

Effective as of June 9, 2010, the Credit Facility replaced our existing credit agreements, (i) the Credit Agreement dated as of February 8, 2006 among us and the banks party thereto and JPMCB, as Administrative Agent, and (ii) the Fifth Amended and Restated Credit Agreement dated as of March 10, 2006 among us and the banks party thereto and JPMCB, as Administrative Agent (together the “Existing Credit Facility”), and the commitments under the Existing Credit Facility have been terminated.

The foregoing description of the Credit Facility does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the 4-Year Agreement and the 364-Day Agreement, which are attached as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 and incorporated herein by reference.

From time to time, in the ordinary course of their business, certain lenders under the Credit Facility and the Existing Credit Facility or their affiliates have provided, and may in the future provide, various financial advisory, investment banking, commercial banking or investment management services to us and our affiliates, for which they have received and may continue to receive customary fees and commissions. In particular, affiliates of Credit Suisse are lenders under a $550 million letter of credit facility. In addition, the lenders under the Credit Facility and the Existing Credit Facility or their affiliates may, from time to time, engage in transactions with or perform services for us in the ordinary course of business, including acting as distributors of various life, annuity, defined contribution and investment products of our subsidiaries.

On June 10, 2010, we issued a press release announcing the foregoing transaction. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
