Item 8.01 Other Events

On October 31, 2006, Core Laboratories N.V. ("Core Lab") announced that its U.S.-based, wholly owned subsidiary, Core Laboratories L.P. ("Core LP"), intends to offer, subject to market and other conditions, approximately $250 million aggregate principal amount of senior exchangeable notes due 2011 through an offering within the United States to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). The notes will be fully and unconditionally guaranteed by Core Lab and exchangeable under certain circumstances. Upon exchange, holders will receive cash up to the principal amount, and any excess exchange value will be delivered in Core Lab's common shares. Core LP also expects to grant the initial purchasers of the notes a 13-day option to purchase additional notes to cover overallocments in an amount not to exceed $50 million.

Core LP intends to use a portion of the net proceeds from the offering for the cost of the exchangeable note hedge transactions that CLLP expects to enter into with one or more financial institutions, which may include affiliates of the initial purchasers. The exchangeable note hedge transactions are intended to limit exposure to potential dilution to Core Lab shareholders from exchanging the notes. The remaining net proceeds of the offering will be used for to repay outstanding amounts under the Company's revolving credit facility and to repurchase up to 2,100,000 of Core Lab's common shares. In addition, in connection with the repayment of the revolving credit facility, Core Lab intends to amend the terms of the credit facility to reduce the commitments under the facility from $125 million to between $50 and 90 million.

In connection with this offering, we have included an additional disclosure to our previously filed consolidated financial statements referenced below, which includes condensed consolidating financial information presenting supplemental information for (a) Core NV as parent/guarantor, (b) Core LP, issuer of Notes guaranteed by Core NV, (c) the non-guarantor subsidiaries, (d) consolidating adjustments necessary to consolidate Core NV and its subsidiaries and (f) Core NV on a consolidated basis. Exhibit 99.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, gives effect to the foregoing within our historical consolidated financial statements for the three years ended December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and Exhibits 99.3, 99.4 and 99.5 gives effect to the foregoing within our historical consolidated financial statements for the quarterly periods ended March 31, June 30, and September 30, 2006, respectively. These condensed consolidating financial statements do not otherwise amend, update or change any items or disclosures contained in Core NV's previously filed annual reports or quarterly reports.
