Any statement contained in an Incorporated Document shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of this registration statement to the extent that a statement contained herein or in any other subsequently filed Incorporated Document modifies or supersedes such statement. Any such statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute a part of this registration statement.

Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

The opinion of counsel as to the legality of the securities being registered is given by Hinkle Elkouri Law Firm L.L.C. David S. Elkouri, a member of Hinkle Elkouri Law Firm L.L.C., is also the Secretary of the registrant.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Company limit the liability of directors and officers of the Company to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law. Specifically, as permitted by Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company provides that the directors of the Company will not be personally liable to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of their fiduciary duties as directors, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Company or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (for unlawful payments of dividends or unlawful stock repurchases, redemptions or other distributions), or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

In addition, Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law empowers a corporation to indemnify any officer or director against expenses incurred by him in connection with any action in which he is made a party by reason of his being or having been a director, officer, employee or agent of such corporation, provided that it is determined that he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The Delaware General Corporation Law provides that Section 145 is not exclusive of other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise. Section 145 also empowers a corporation to advance to an officer or director the expenses of defending claims upon receipt of his undertaking to repay any amount to which it is later determined he is not entitled. The Bylaws of the Company provide that the Company will indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended, any person who was or is made or is threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (a "proceeding") by reason of the fact that he, or a person for whom he is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of the Company or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust, enterprise or nonprofit entity, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, against all liability and loss suffered and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by such person. The Company is required to indemnify a person in connection with a proceeding (or a part thereof) initiated by such person only if the proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the Company.

The above discussion of the Delaware General Corporation Law and of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws is not intended to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by such statute and the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws. In addition, the Company may enter, from time to time, into indemnification agreements with its directors and officers.

The Company has obtained a directors and officers liability insurance policy for the purposes of indemnification which covers all elected and appointed directors and officers of the Company up to $15,000,000 for each claim and $15,000,000 in the aggregate. The Company believes that the limitation of liability provisions in its Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, and the directors and officers liability insurance will facilitate the Company's ability to continue to attract and retain qualified individuals to serve as directors and officers of the Company.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the Company, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. If a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person of the Company in connection with the securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by a controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issues.
