Item 8.01. Other Events.

As previously disclosed, on April 24, 2018, Whirlpool Corporation ("Whirlpool") and certain of its subsidiaries entered into a purchase agreement with Nidec Corporation ("Nidec") to sell Whirlpool's Embraco business unit, subject to customary closing conditions, including receipt of all necessary antitrust approvals. Antitrust approvals have been received in the U.S., Brazil, and China, and are awaited in Europe and certain other jurisdictions.

On April 12, 2019, Whirlpool and Nidec received the European Commission's ("EC") approval of the acquisition of Whirlpool's Embraco business by Nidec, subject to final approval by the EC of the buyer and sale terms for certain assets that Nidec has committed to divest.

After Nidec reaches an agreement for the sale of such assets, there will remain a small number of procedural reviews and approvals from the European Commission, including final approval of the Nidec asset divestiture terms, and from other jurisdictions in order to close the Embraco sale to Nidec, which may take several weeks to complete.

Whirlpool remains confident and continues to expect the transaction to close, and is committed to taking all actions in its best interests to close the transaction as soon as possible. If closing does not occur by April 24, 2019, the parties' agreement permits closing up to six months later.
