PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant is unable to timely file its report on Form 10-Q for the first quarter ended March 31, 2005 without unreasonable effort or expense. As previously announced in our 8-K dated May 9, 2005, John Thorne, our Interim President and CEO, had an employment agreement with the Company that terminated on May 3, 2005. Since that time, we have been in the process of re-electing John Kang as the President and CEO and thus, did not file the Form 10-Q prior to the May 10, 2005 deadline.

The Registrant expects to file its Form 10Q within the prescribed extended period of May 16, 2005.

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).
- Yes       No
- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?
- Yes       No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

It is expected that the Registrant's sales be approximately $2.8 million for the three months ended March 31, 2005 compared to $6.3 million for the three months ended March 31, 2004, and its net loss be $4.1 million for the three months ended March 31, 2005 compared to $0.8 million for the three months ended March 31, 2004. The significant decrease in sales and increase in net loss recorded in this quarter compared to those for the three months ended March 31, 2004 were attributable to one-time effect of restatement of the 2003 financial statements of $2.6 million, decline in sales of $0.4 million of our bulk alloy parts to consumer electronics customers as a result of decreased demand for conventional hinge components used in certain cellular phone models, decreased activity from research and development contracts of $0.4 million, and an increase in interest expense of $1.0 million from accrued interest costs from the senior convertible notes.
