Item 8.01. Other Events

As previously reported, in April 2004 Xcel Energy filed a lawsuit against the U.S. government in the U.S. District Court for the District of Minnesota to establish its right to deduct the interest expense that had accrued on policy loans related to its corporate-owned life insurance (COLI) policies. Also, as previously reported, Xcel Energy and the government each filed a second motion for summary judgment in 2006. Both motions were initially presented to the Magistrate Judge and, in February 2007, the Magistrate Judge issued his Report and Recommendation (Report), recommending that both sides' motions be denied because of disputed fact issues. On March 23, 2007, the U.S. District Court for the District of Minnesota issued an order adopting the Report and denying the parties' cross-motions for summary judgment. The order confirms a trial date beginning on July 24, 2007, unless the parties agree to a trial before the Magistrate Judge.
