Actual results in the future could differ materially and adversely from those set forth in the forward-looking information as a result of various important factors, including and in addition to the assumptions set forth therein, but not limited to, the Company's ability to satisfy the closing conditions, including obtaining required governmental approvals, for the acquisition of stations from Newport Television ("Newport") disclosed herein, the Company's ability to obtain financing to fund the Newport acquisition, the impact of changes in national and regional economies, the volatility in the U.S. and global economies and financial credit markets which impact the Company's ability to forecast or refinance its indebtedness as it comes due, the Company's ability to integrate acquired businesses and maximize operating synergies, successful execution of outsourcing agreements, pricing and demand fluctuations in local and national advertising, volatility in programming costs, the market acceptance of new programming, the CW Television and MyNetworkTV programming, the Company's news share strategy, the Company's local sales initiatives, the execution of retransmission consent agreements, the Company's ability to identify and consummate investments in attractive non-television assets and to achieve anticipated returns on those investments once consummated, and any risk factors set forth in the Company's recent reports on Form 8-K, Form 10-Q and/or Form 10-K, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"). There can be no assurance that the assumptions and other factors referred to will occur and the Company undertakes no obligation to update such forward-looking information in the future except as required by law.

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 19, 2012, Sinclair Broadcast Group, Inc. (the "Company") entered into a definitive agreement to purchase the broadcast assets of six television stations owned and/or operated by Newport Television ("Newport") for $412.5 million. The six stations are located in five markets. The transaction is expected to close no earlier than December 2012, subject to closing conditions, including without limitation approval of the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") and antitrust clearance. There can be no assurance when the closing conditions will be satisfied, if at all. The Company expects to finance the purchase price, less a $41.25 million deposit, through cash on hand along with a bank loan or by accessing the capital markets. The Company will also acquire Newport's rights under the local marketing agreements with WLYH (CW 23) in Harrisburg, PA and KMTW (MNT 35) in Wichita, KS, as well as options to acquire the license assets. The purchase agreement includes other customary provisions, including representations and warranties, covenants and indemnification provisions.

The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete statement of the terms and condition under the purchase agreement between the Company and Newport and the transactions contemplated thereby, and such summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the purchase agreement, a copy of which will be attached as an exhibit to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2012.
