PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why the Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Willis Lease Finance Corporation (the Company or our) was not, without unreasonable effort or expense, able to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2016 (June 2016 10-Q) by the August 9, 2016 due date.

During the second quarter of 2016 the Company determined that it had not properly applied generally accepted accounting principles when accounting for equipment purchased with in-place leases, in its financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013 and the quarter ended March 31, 2016. The Company previously did not identify, measure and account for maintenance right assets and liabilities associated with the acquisition of equipment with in-place leases, which is the accounting method other industry participants now have adopted after recent review. The Company is in the process of performing incremental analysis to evaluate whether there has been a material departure from generally accepted accounting principles. At this time, the Company does not believe that these accounting issues have a material impact on our previously, reported financial results.

The Company anticipates that its report on Form 10-Q will be filed no later than August 15, 2016, the expiration date of the extension period provided by Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
