Item 5.03                      Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On September 20, 2006, the board of directors of Command Security Corporation (the "Company") approved an amendment to the Company's bylaws to allow for meetings of the board of directors to be presided over by, in the absence of the president, one or more chairmen (the "Bylaw Amendment"). Previously, the provision required that, in the absence of the president, meetings of the board of directors were to be presided over by the chairman.

The text of the Bylaw Amendment is being filed with this report as Exhibit 3.1.
