Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On December 10, 2018, Ingevity Corporation (the “Company”) entered into an Agreement for the Sale and Purchase of Perstorp UK Ltd. (the “Agreement”) with Perstorp AB, a company registered in Sweden, that develops, manufactures, and sells specialty chemicals (the “Seller”). Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company has agreed to purchase the shares held by the Seller in Perstorp UK Ltd., including the Seller’s entire caprolactone business (“Capla”), in exchange for EUR 570,913,000, less the Intercompany Debt Amount and the Seller’s Transaction Costs, each of which is defined in the Agreement (the “Purchase Price”), plus interest accrued on the Purchase Price, as calculated pursuant to the terms of the Agreement (the “Acquisition”). The Company expects to finance the Acquisition through a combination of borrowings under its existing credit facilities and cash on hand.

The Agreement contains warranties, covenants and conditions to closing that the Company believes are customary for a transaction of this size and type (including receipt of required anti-trust or other anticompetitive approvals in certain foreign jurisdictions). Neither Capa™ nor the Seller has a material relationship with the Company and the Acquisition will not be an affiliated transaction.

The closing of the Acquisition is subject to satisfaction of certain conditions, including certain regulatory approvals, but is not subject to any financing condition. The Acquisition is expected to close late in the first quarter of 2019.

The Company has the right to terminate the Agreement due to the occurrence of certain material events that impact the operations of the business of Perstorp UK Ltd., in each case subject to the Seller’s right to remediate the matter.

In addition, at the closing of the Acquisition, the Company and the Seller intend to enter into a transitional services agreement pursuant to which the Seller will continue to provide certain services (including but not limited to innovation and technical support, warehousing and distribution support, IT support and certain other administrative support services).

The foregoing summary of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference. The Agreement contains warranties by each of the parties to the Agreement, which were made only for purposes of that Agreement and as of specified dates. The warranties and covenants in the Agreement were made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Agreement, are subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and are subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that may differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, the Seller or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward looking statements generally include the words "may," "could," "should," "believes," "plans," "intends," "targets," "will," "expects," "suggests," "anticipates," "outlook," "continues," "forecast," "prospect," "potential" or similar expressions. Forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, expected financial positions, results of operations and cash flows; financing plans; business strategies and expectations; operating plans; synergies and the potential benefits of the acquisition of Capa™; the anticipated timing of the closing of the Acquisition; capital and other expenditures; competitive positions; growth opportunities for existing products; benefits from new technology and cost-reduction initiatives, plans and objectives; and markets for securities. Like other businesses, the Company is subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause its actual results to differ materially from its expectations or that could cause other forward-looking statements to prove incorrect. Factors that could cause actual results to materially differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements, or that could cause other forward-looking statements to prove incorrect, include, without limitation, risks related to the satisfaction of the conditions to closing the Acquisition (including the failure to obtain necessary regulatory approvals) in the anticipated timeframe or at all, risks that the expected benefits from the proposed Acquisition will not be realized or will not be realized within the expected time period; the risk that the businesses will not be integrated successfully; significant transaction costs; unknown or understated liabilities; general economic and financial conditions; international sales and operations; currency exchange rates and currency devaluation; compliance with U.S. and foreign regulations; attracting and retaining key personnel; conditions in the automotive market or adoption of alternative technologies; worldwide air quality standards; government infrastructure spending; declining volumes in the printing inks market; the limited supply of crude tall oil ("CTO"); lack of access to sufficient CTO; access to and pricing of raw materials; competition from producers of substitute products and new technologies; a prolonged period of low energy prices; the provision of services by third parties at several facilities; natural disasters, such as hurricanes, winter or tropical storms, earthquakes, floods, fires; other unanticipated problems such as labor difficulties including renewal of collective bargaining agreements, equipment failure or unscheduled maintenance and repair; protection of intellectual property and proprietary information; information technology security risks; government policies and regulations, including, but not limited to, those affecting the environment, climate change, tax policies and the chemicals industry; and lawsuits arising out of environmental damage or personal injuries associated with chemical or other manufacturing processes. These and other important factors that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those expressed in forward-looking statements that may have been made in this document are and will be more particularly described in our filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, including our Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017 and our other periodic filings. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the Company's projections and forward-looking statements, which speak only as the date thereof. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly release any revision to the projections and forward-looking statements contained in this presentation, or to update them to reflect events or circumstances occurring after the date of this presentation.
