Note:

- a) ESAS is a deferred share award plan in which awards are initially granted in the form of a provisional allocation and do not give rise to any entitlement to the shares. These awards were granted in the years 1999 to 2003, and include mandatory bonus deferrals.
- b) Under ESAS any shares granted as a provisional allocation are normally granted as a nil cost option at the third anniversary. The shares shown under option in this column are already included in the numbers shown in the first column. The shares under option do not include accumulated dividend shares under option as follows: 8,996 shares for Roger Davis; 1,602 shares for Gary Hoffman; 1,062 shares for David Roberts.
- c) Voluntary ESAS is an additional award under ESAS following a director requesting that part of the cash bonus to which he would otherwise become entitled be waived and is granted as a right to acquire shares which will become fully exercisable after five years. No consideration was paid for the grant of any award.

In addition, Messrs Davis, Hoffman, Kheraj and Roberts, together with other directors and senior executives of Barclays PLC, have an interest as potential beneficiaries in 82,797,943 shares in Barclays PLC ordinary shares held by the independent trustees of the Barclays Group employees' benefit trusts. These are discretionary trusts established for the benefit of Barclays Group employees and former employees (and in each case their families) all of whom are amongst the potential beneficiaries under these trusts and are therefore regarded for Companies Act purposes as being interested in the Barclays PLC ordinary shares held in them. No consideration is payable by a potential beneficiary for the acquisition of such an interest under the trusts.

There are no other details that are required to be disclosed in respect of the appointments under paragraphs 6.F.2 (b) – (g) and 16.4 of the Listing Rules of the UK Listing Authority.

Service Contracts

Key terms of the service contracts for Mr Kheraj, Mr Davis, Mr Roberts, Mr Hoffman and for John Varley, an existing Director who became Deputy Group Chief Executive on 1 January 2004, are set out below:

Salary

Mr Varley receives a basic salary of £700,000 per annum. The four new executive directors referred to above receive a basic salary of £500,000 per annum.

Performance related bonus

Discretionary, dependent on both Group economic profit and individual performance.

Notice period

The service contracts of the above directors provide for a notice period of 12 months from the company or a notice period of 6 months from the individual.

Severance arrangements

On termination, the service contracts of the above directors provide for pro-rated phased payments of their notice entitlement with an explicit duty on the individual to mitigate their loss.

The service contracts for all executive directors of Barclays PLC and Barclays Bank PLC are available for inspection during normal business hours at the Group's head office: 54 Lombard Street, London EC3P 3AH.
