Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

(a) On October 31, 2007, E-Z-EM, Inc. (the Company), entered into an identical Indemnification Agreement with each member of the Company's board of directors and each officer of the Company. The Indemnification Agreements provide that the Company will indemnify each director and officer to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law if he becomes a party to or is threatened with any action, suit or proceeding arising out of his service as a director or officer of the Company or in a similar capacity for another entity (including any employee benefit plan) at the Company's request or from his guarantee of any indebtedness of the Company. The Indemnification Agreements also provide that the Company will advance, if requested by an indemnified person, any and all expenses (including any judgments and amounts paid in settlement with the Company's approval) incurred in connection with any such legal matter, subject to reimbursement by the indemnified person should a final judicial determination be made that indemnification is not available under applicable law. The Indemnification Agreements further provide that if the Company maintains directors' and officers' liability coverage, each indemnified person shall be included in such coverage to the maximum extent of the coverage available for the Company's directors and officers.

The foregoing description of the Indemnification Agreements is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the form of Indemnification Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.
