BBBY Immediate Response Corporate Associate Letter

Subject: Further Update

Dear Fellow Associates,

As we expected, the group of three activist investors released a lengthy white paper presentation outlining their plan for what they believe we should be doing.

We plan to respond today publicly with a short press release, and will provide further responses, as appropriate. In the meantime, here are a few of things you should know:

The Company's Board and management are open to value enhancing ideas from all shareholders, including the activist investors.

We plan to carefully review the merits of their presentation for opportunities to incorporate their feedback into our transformation plan, which is well underway and delivering results.

We are pleased, and not surprised, that it appears that most of the operational areas targeted for improvement include actions the Company is already taking as part of our transformation plan, which are already well underway, or have been substantially completed. Other target areas identified include actions that have been, and continue to be, considered by us.

Despite multiple efforts to engage with the activist investors to reach a timely and constructive resolution, they have continued to refuse to engage in a meaningful dialogue with us. In fact, we offered them the opportunity to participate in our recent Board and governance transformation, which we announced earlier this week, but they declined.

Our Board transformation and governance enhancements support the continued business transformation that is underway at our Company and reflects significant shareholder input. Together, our five new, highly-qualified independent directors bring a tremendous amount of leadership experience, customer focus and specific operational expertise in key areas such as global retail, merchandising, e-commerce and technology, marketing, logistics, finance, capital allocation and governance that will further enhance the effectiveness of our Board and our business transformation that is underway.

I apologize that you are receiving more emails to read, but I want to make sure you are well informed. I'll continue to keep you posted.

Thank you as always.

Steven

Bed Bath & Beyond Inc. Comments on Activist Presentation

Reiterates Progress of Transformation Plan Underway and Openness to Value-Enhancing Ideas

UNION, N.J., April 26, 2019 Bed Bath & Beyond Inc. (NASDAQ: BBBY) issued the following statement in response to the presentation released today by the three hedge funds (the Activist Group), which are seeking to replace its entire Board of Directors at the Company's 2019 Annual Meeting of Shareholders:

Bed Bath & Beyond is executing on a comprehensive multi-year transformation plan to strengthen its position as the expert for the home and heart-felt life events. The plan is well underway and delivering results. The Company's Board of Directors and management are open to value enhancing ideas from all shareholders, and will carefully review the merits of the Activist Group's presentation for opportunities to incorporate their feedback into its plan.

Upon our initial review, it appears that most of the operational areas targeted for improvement include actions the Company is already taking as part of its transformation plan, which are already well underway, or have been substantially completed. Other target areas identified include actions that have been, and continue to be, considered by Bed Bath & Beyond. The Company will provide a more detailed response at the appropriate time.

Bed Bath & Beyond always welcomes investor input toward the goal of driving shareholder value and returns. In fact, many of the transformational changes underway are a result of shareholder input throughout the last couple of years. While we have been and continue to be open to engaging with the Activist Group, we note that the Activist Group has steadfastly declined to engage in a constructive dialogue with the Company, and instead, has chosen only to release its perspectives in a public forum.

Earlier this week, in response to shareholder feedback and in connection with its commitment to accelerating refreshment at the Board-level, the Company announced the transformation of its Board of Directors and additional governance enhancements. With these changes, the Board will comprise 10 directors, nine of whom are independent and eight of whom have been appointed in the last two years. The Company offered the Activist Group the opportunity to participate collaboratively in this Board and governance transformation, but the Activist Group declined.

The Board and management team are confident in the Company's ability to execute its transformation plan and meet key financial objectives, which include: mid-and long-term revenue growth, near-term and ongoing gross margin improvements, near-term and ongoing SG&A improvements, and current and sustainable world-class operational support. We have a committed team of associates focused on providing exceptional experiences for our customers as we continue driving improved financial results, which will lead to enhanced shareholder value. The Board remains open to constructive feedback from all shareholders, and consistent with this approach, will consider any value enhancing perspectives from the Activist Group, as well as other existing and prospective shareholders, that help contribute to the ongoing efforts to achieve these objectives.
