PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The registrant terminated its registration under Section 12(g) and suspended its reporting obligations under Section 15(d) as of December 12, 2003. The registrant recently became aware that it no longer meets the criteria for continued suspension of its reporting obligations under Rule 12h-3. As a result, the registrant is required to file its annual report on Form 10-K not later than the 120th day following January 31, 2007, the end of its last fiscal year. Because this is the registrant's first annual report in more than three years, and because the registrant only recently became aware of its renewed reporting obligations, it was unable to complete its Form 10-K within the prescribed time period. The registrant intends to file its Form 10-K within the prescribed time period allowed by the rules relating to Form 12b-25.

2. One signed original and four conformed copies of this form and amendments thereto must be completed and filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549, in accordance with Rule 0-3 of the General Rules and Regulations under the Act. Filers unable to submit a report within the time period prescribed due to difficulties in electronic filing should comply with either Rule 201 or Rule 202 of Regulation S-T (§232.201 or §232.202 of this Chapter) or apply for an adjustment in filing date pursuant to Rule 13(b) of Regulation S-T (§232.13(b) of this Chapter).

Attachment I

Because the subject report is the first report that the registrant is required to file under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) in more than three years, its results of operations of the registrant will have significantly changed over that period. However, as the registrant's results of operations for the corresponding period during the last fiscal year were not required to be filed under the Exchange Act, a narrative and quantitative discussion of such changes is not applicable here.
