c/o Tisdale & Nicholson, LLP

2029 Century Park East, Suite 900

Los Angeles, CA 90067

Attn: Jeffrey A. Tisdale, Esq.

Dear Fellow Stockholders:

I am the beneficial owner of an aggregate of 665,615 shares of Common Stock of Sierra Bancorp ("Bancorp" or the "Company"), representing approximately 7% of the outstanding Common Stock of the Company. I am conducting this proxy solicitation with my sister, Carol Bates, who is the beneficial owner of an aggregate of 549,124 shares of Common Stock of Bancorp, representing approximately 5.7% of the outstanding Common Stock of the Company. The combined beneficial ownership of stock holdings of me and my sister is 12.7%. For the reasons set forth in the attached Proxy Statement, I do not believe the Board of Directors of the Company is acting in the best interests of its stockholders. I am therefore seeking your support at the annual meeting of stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") scheduled to be held at the Main Office of Bank of Sierra located at 90 North Main Street, Porterville, California on May 21, 2008 at 7:30 p.m., local time, for the following:

1. To elect Patricia L. Childress as a Class I director to the Company's Board of Directors in opposition to the Company's incumbent directors.
2. To Grant discretionary authority to adjourn the meeting to solicit additional votes.

We urge you to carefully consider the information contained in the attached Proxy Statement and then support our efforts by signing, dating and returning the enclosed WHITE proxy card today. The attached Proxy Statement and the enclosed WHITE proxy card are first being furnished to the stockholders on or about April_, 2008.

[If you have already voted a proxy card furnished by the Company's management, you have every right to change your votes by signing, dating and returning a later dated proxy.]

If you have any questions or require any assistance with your vote, please contact The Altman Group which is assisting us, at their address and toll-free numbers listed on the following page.

REASONS TO VOTE FOR PATRICIA L. CHILDRESS AS CLASS I DIRECTOR

The following is a summary of Ms. Childress's views and the reasons why Ms. Childress is seeking representation on the board of directors at the Annual Meeting:

The common stockholders can elect four Class I directors to the Company's board of directors. Ms. Childress should be one of these four.

Ms. Childress WILL WORK TO SAFEGUARD AND ENHANCE STOCKHOLDER VALUE. Once elected as a member of the board of directors of Bancorp, Ms. Childress will WORK HARD to safeguard and enhance stockholder value. Ms. Childress believes that Bancorp's performance will be enhanced if the board includes a director NOMINATED BY STOCKHOLDERS.

For more information on how Ms. Childress will work to realize value for all stockholders of Bancorp, please read the section below entitled "Statement in Support."

BACKGROUND TO SOLICITATION

One or more members of the Childress family have been the largest shareholder(s) of the Bank of the Sierra as a result of share acquisitions after its organization in 1977. Ms. Childress's and Ms. Bates's father was a large shareholder and, through estate and gift transfers, the bulk of his holdings were divided among his three children. From 1994 until December 18, 2006, Ms. Childress's and Ms. Bates's brother, Gregory Childress, had served SB and the Bank as a director.

As a result of the substantial portion of the Childress family's net worth related to such share holdings and as a result of the historical involvement by members of the family, Ms. Childress and Ms. Bates believe Ms. Childress should serve as a director and also believe her involvement would provide solid business acumen and a fresh approach to the existing board of directors which would benefit SB and its shareholders.

Ms. Childress's Nomination. On December 17, 2007, counsel for Ms. Childress and Ms. Bates contacted counsel for the Company regarding a request to have the board of directors nominate Ms. Childress as part of its slate of nominees for election to the board at the 2008 annual shareholders' meeting. On December 19, 2008, this request was followed up by providing biographical information regarding Ms. Childress. The request to include Ms. Childress was rejected at the board meeting held on December 20, 2007. Accordingly, on December 28, 2007, Ms. Childress sent a letter to the Company in which she provided notice of her intention to nominate herself at the Annual Meeting for election by the common stockholders to serve as a Class I director of the board of directors of the Company.

Ms. Childress's and Ms. Bates's Filing on 13D. On March 26, 2008, Ms. Childress and Ms. Bates, jointly filed a Schedule 13D in which it was disclosed that Ms. Childress is working with Ms. Bates, who is the beneficial owner of 549,124 shares of Bancorp, to take action to enhance governance, oversight and stockholder value by nominating herself as a candidate for director of the board of directors of the Company.

STATEMENT IN SUPPORT

Benefits of Nominations by Common Stockholders.

Currently, there are eight directors on the board of directors of the Company. Pursuant to the Company's Articles of Incorporation, the board of directors is divided into two classes, designated Classes I and II. The directors serve staggered two-year terms, so that directors of only one class are elected at each Annual Meeting of Shareholders. At the 2008 Meeting, shareholders will be asked to elect four Class I directors whose terms expire this year, for an additional term of two years.

Ms. Childress and Ms. Bates believe that independence from management is important for purposes of representing the interests of the common stockholders. They also believe that individuals nominated by stockholders are more likely to advocate business practices intended to increase the returns to public stockholders and are therefore better positioned to bring a diversity of perspectives to the board.

Table of Contents

Conclusion

For each of the reasons outlined above, Ms. Childress and Ms. Bates believe that the common stockholders need a new director to represent them on the Company's board of directors to ensure that the voices of the common stockholders are heard. Accordingly, Ms. Childress and Ms. Bates urge you to vote for Ms. Childress as a Class I director for the common stockholders at the Annual Meeting by signing, dating and returning the WHITE proxy card in the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope. Ms. Childress has consented to being named in this proxy statement and to serve if elected to Bancorp's board of directors.

The combined beneficial ownership of stock holdings of Ms. Childress and Ms. Bates is 12.7%.

MS. CHILDRESS IS A STOCKHOLDER, JUST LIKE YOU. As a significant stockholder, Ms. Childress desires to bring her business and shareholder perspective to the board to ensure that new ideas and ways of banking are part of the decision making in these challenging times for the benefit of Bancorp and its stockholders. MS. CHILDRESS IS NOT A CURRENT OR FORMER BANCORP INSIDER. Her decisions are not dictated by a salary or any annual payments from the Company, or any historical relationships with Bancorp management or other directors. Accordingly, her interests as an investor are aligned with the interests of other stockholders whose investment decisions are based on safeguarding and increasing stockholder value.

MS. BATES is a farmer in the local community served by Bank of Sierra. Ms. Bates received her Associate's degree from Porterville College and studied for a semester at Fresno State University. From 1980 to 2007 when its business wound up, she has served as a senior officer of Childress, Bates, Childress Inc., a successful farming business. Additionally, since 2006 she has been a 50% Partner in CPG Ranch, also a successful farming business. Both businesses are located in Porterville. Ms. Bates has spent most of her life in Porterville and, as a result, has close ties to the community. As a significant stockholder of Sierra Bancorp, Ms. Bates is dedicated to increasing stockholder value. She believes that the election of her sister, Ms. Childress, will help to ensure Sierra Bancorp's continued success.

GENERAL VOTING PROCEDURES

To vote FOR the election of Patricia L. Childress as a Class I director of the Company, please sign and date the enclosed WHITE proxy card and return it to Ms. Childress's and Ms. Bates's proxy solicitor, The Altman Group, Inc. ("The Altman Group"), in the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope. Submitting the proxy will not affect your right to attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS ABOUT VOTING PROCEDURES

How do I vote in person if I am a record holder?

If you hold shares of Bancorp common stock on the Record Date you may attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person.

How do I vote by proxy if I am a record holder?

To vote by proxy, you should complete, sign and date the enclosed WHITE proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope. To be able to vote your shares in accordance with your instructions at the Annual Meeting, Ms. Childress's and Ms. Bates's solicitor must receive your proxy as soon as possible but, in any event, prior to the meeting. You may vote your shares without submitting a proxy, if you vote in person.

Table of Contents

What if I am not the record holder of my shares?

If your shares are held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank nominee or other institution, only it can give a proxy with respect to your shares. You may have received either a WHITE proxy card from the record holder (which you can complete and send directly to The Altman Group) or an instruction card (which you can complete and return to the record holder to direct its voting of your shares). If the record holder has not sent you either a WHITE proxy card or an instruction card, you may contact the record holder directly to provide it with instructions. You may receive more than one set of voting materials, including multiple copies of this proxy statement and multiple WHITE proxy cards or voting instruction cards. For example, if you hold shares in more than one brokerage account, you may receive a separate voting instruction card for each brokerage account in which your shares are held. You should complete, sign, date and return each WHITE proxy card and voting instruction card you receive.

You may also receive a non-white proxy or voting instruction card that is being solicited by the Company's board of directors. Ms. Childress and Ms. Bates urge you to discard any non-white proxy card or voting instruction card sent to you by the Company. If you have previously signed a non-white proxy card or voting instruction card sent by the Company, we urge you to sign, date and promptly mail the enclosed WHITE proxy card or voting instruction card before the Annual Meeting. By doing so, you will revoke any earlier dated proxy card or voting instruction card solicited by the Company's board of directors. It is very important that you date your proxy. It is not necessary to contact the Company for your revocation to be effective.

If you have questions or need assistance, please contact The Altman Group at (866) 387-0017 (Record Holders) or (201) 806-7300 (Bank and Brokers).

What is a "legal proxy," and when would I need one?

If you do not have record ownership of your shares and want to vote in person at the Annual Meeting, or if you are voting for someone else at the Annual Meeting, you may obtain a document called a "legal proxy" from the record holder of the shares or such other person and bring it to the Annual Meeting. If you need assistance, please contact The Altman Group at (866) 387-0017 (Record Holders) or (201) 806-7300 (Bank and Brokers)

What should I do if I receive a non- white proxy card from Bancorp's management?

Proxies on the non-white proxy card are being solicited by the Company's management. If you submit a proxy to us by signing and returning the enclosed WHITE proxy card, do not subsequently sign or return the non-white proxy card or follow any voting instructions provided by the Company, unless you intend to change your vote, because only your latest dated proxy will be counted.

If you have already sent a non-white proxy card to the Company, you may revoke it and vote with Ms. Childress by signing, dating and returning the enclosed WHITE proxy card.

What if I want to revoke my proxy or change my voting instructions?

If you give a proxy, you may revoke it at any time before it is voted on your behalf. If you hold shares in your own name (i.e., not through a bank or brokerage firm), you may revoke the prior proxy by:

- delivering a later dated proxy to Ms. Childress's and Ms. Bates's proxy solicitor, using the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope; or
- delivering a later dated proxy to the Secretary of Bancorp; or
- delivering a written revocation to either Ms. Childress's and Ms. Bates's proxy solicitor or the Secretary of Bancorp; or
- voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

If you hold your shares in street name, you may change your vote by:

- submitting a new proxy card or voting instruction form to your broker or nominee; or
- attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person, provided you have obtained a signed legal proxy from the record holder giving you the right to vote your shares.

If you choose to revoke a proxy by giving written notice or a later-dated proxy to the Secretary of Bancorp or by submitting new voting instructions to your broker or nominee, Ms. Childress and Ms. Bates would appreciate if you would assist us in representing the interests of stockholders on an informed basis by either sending The Altman Group a copy of your revocation, proxy or new voting instructions or by calling them at (866) 387-0017 (Record Holders) or (201) 806-7300 (Bank and Brokers). Remember, your latest-dated proxy is the only one that counts.

Table of Contents

If I plan to attend the Annual Meeting, should I still submit a proxy?

Whether you plan to attend the Annual Meeting or not, we urge you to submit a WHITE proxy. Returning the enclosed proxy card will not affect your right to attend the Annual Meeting and vote.

Who can vote?

You are eligible to vote or to execute a proxy only if you owned shares of common stock of the Company on the Record Date. Even if you sell your shares after the Record Date, you will retain the right to execute a proxy in connection with the Annual Meeting. It is important that you grant a proxy regarding shares you held on the Record Date, or vote those shares in person, even if you no longer own those shares. According to the Company's current report on Form 10K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 13, 2008, approximately 9,591,088 shares of the Company's common stock were issued and outstanding as of January 31, 2008.

How many votes do I have?

With respect to each matter to be considered at the Annual Meeting, you are entitled to one vote for each share of common stock owned on the Record Date. Based on documents publicly filed by the Company, the Company's only outstanding voting securities are its common stock.

How will my shares be voted?

If you give a proxy on the accompanying WHITE proxy card with instructions, your shares will be voted as you direct. If you submit a signed WHITE proxy card to Ms. Childress's and Ms. Bates's proxy solicitor without instructions, your shares will be voted FOR the election of Ms. Childress as a Class I director of Bancorp and proxies held by Ms. Childress will vote FOR any proposal by Ms. Childress to adjourn the meeting, unless the signed WHITE proxy contains instructions to the contrary. Submitting a signed WHITE proxy card without instructions will entitle Ms. Childress to vote your shares in her discretion on matters not described in this proxy statement that Ms. Childress does not know, a reasonable time before this solicitation, are to be presented at the Annual Meeting and that properly come before the Annual Meeting, or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

If Bancorp stockholders holding shares of Bancorp stock in street name do not provide voting instructions, their shares will not be voted and will therefore be considered broker "non-votes."

Unless a signed proxy specifies otherwise, it is presumed to relate to all shares held of record on the Record Date by the person who submitted it.

What is a quorum and why is it necessary?

A quorum of stockholders is necessary to have a valid stockholders' meeting. The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. Abstentions and broker "non-votes" will have no effect on the election of directors. A "non-vote" occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner. Shares held by the Company in its treasury do not count toward the quorum.

What vote is required to elect a director and approve each proposal and how will votes be counted?

The Company currently has eight directors, each of whom serves for a two-year term or until his or her successor is elected and qualified, or until such individual's earlier resignation or removal. The Company's common stock is the only class of securities entitled to be voted at the Annual Meeting. The common stockholders have the right to elect 4 directors at the Annual Meeting. Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held of record by such stockholder as of the close of business on the Record Date. Directors elected by the common stockholders are elected by the affirmative vote of stockholders holding a plurality of shares of common stock, in attendance at the meeting, either in person or by proxy.

Can the meeting be adjourned or postponed?

The Company's Bylaws provide that, if a quorum is not present, a stockholders' meeting may be adjourned, from time to time and without notice other than announcement at the meeting, by those stockholders present in person, until a quorum is present. If adjournment is for more than 30 days or if, after the adjournment, a new record date is set, a notice of the adjourned meeting must be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

How can I receive more information?

If you require assistance or have questions about giving your proxy or about this proxy solicitation by Ms. Childress and Ms. Bates, please call The Altman Group at (866) 387-0017 (Record Holders) or (201) 806-7300 (Bank and Brokers).

PROXY REVOCATION RIGHTS

Any stockholder who has executed and returned a proxy, whether solicited by the Company or by Ms. Childress and Ms. Bates, may revoke it at any time before the proxy is voted. A proxy may be revoked by sending a written revocation of such proxy to Ms. Childress or to the Secretary of the Company, by submitting another proxy with a later date marked on it, or by appearing in person at the Annual Meeting and voting. If, however, you hold your shares through a bank or broker and wish to vote at the Annual Meeting, you will need to obtain a legal proxy from that firm in order to be able to vote in person. Attendance at the meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy unless you actually vote at the meeting.

Remember, only the latest dated proxy card will be counted. Therefore, Ms. Childress and Ms. Bates urge you to sign and return the WHITE proxy card accompanying this proxy statement.

There is no limit on the number of times that a stockholder may revoke a proxy prior to the Annual Meeting. If you send written revocation of your proxy to the Secretary of the Company, Ms. Childress and Ms. Bates request that you send either the original or a copy of that revocation to The Altman Group at the address on the last page of this proxy statement. This will allow Ms. Childress and Ms. Bates to more accurately determine if and when the requisite number of proxies have been received.

PLEASE NOTE, that in order to vote FOR the election of Ms. Childress as a Class I director of Bancorp, you will need to complete and return the WHITE proxy card, regardless of whether or not you send a revocation.

In connection with this solicitation of proxies, banks, brokers, custodians, nominees, other institutional holders and other fiduciaries will be asked to forward all soliciting materials to the beneficial owners of the shares that those institutions hold of record. Ms. Childress and Ms. Bates will reimburse those institutions for reasonable expenses that they incur in connection with forwarding these materials.

Ms. Childress has retained The Altman Group, Inc. to solicit proxies in connection with the Annual Meeting. The Altman Group, Inc. may solicit proxies from individuals, banks, brokers, custodians, nominees, other institutional holders and other fiduciaries.
