INTERTAPE POLYMER GROUP INC. WILL APPEAL JURY VERDICT IN LITIGATION WITH INSPIRED TECHNOLOGIES, INC.

Bradenton, Florida September 29, 2010 Intertape Polymer Group Inc. (TSX: ITP) (the Company) announced today that it intends to appeal the judgment entered against its subsidiary, Intertape Polymer Corp. (Intertape), in the case of Intertape Polymer Corp. v. Inspired Technologies, Inc. (ITI) pending in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida. The case principally involved claims for breach of contract asserted by both parties.

Yesterday the jury in the case reached a decision that Intertape had breached certain obligations under agreements between the parties relating to Intertape's production and supply of products to ITI. As part of this decision, the jury concluded that ITI should be awarded damages based on the decrease in the value of ITI when it sold its assets, and, on this basis, awarded ITI damages in the amount of $13,150,000.

The Company is disappointed with the jury's decision. The Company firmly believes that ITI's allegations were unfounded, that there was no competent evidence to justify the amount of the damage award, and that such damages are unsupported as a matter of law.

The Company will promptly file an appeal with the 11th Circuit Court of Appeals and vigorously seek reversal of the judgment. The execution of the judgment will be stayed during the appeal process upon posting of an appellate bond.
