MINERALS TECHNOLOGIES INC. ELECTS WILLIAM C. STIVERS TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

NEW YORK, September 25--Minerals Technologies Inc. announced today that it has elected William C. Stivers to its Board of Directors.

Mr. Stivers, former executive vice president and chief financial officer of Weyerhaeuser Company, becomes the eleventh member of the Minerals Technologies board.

"William Stivers' in-depth knowledge and understanding of the worldwide paper industry and his financial expertise will make him a valuable addition to the Minerals Technologies board," said Paul R. Saueracker, chairman, president and chief executive officer.

Mr. Stivers joined Weyerhaeuser Company in 1970 as finance manager and treasurer of the then newly formed Weyerhaeuser Real Estate Company. In 1972, he was elected Weyerhaeuser Company treasurer; and, in 1980, he was elected a vice president of the company. In 1990, Mr. Stivers was elected senior vice president and chief financial officer, and in April of 1998 he was elected executive vice president and chief financial officer.

Mr. Stivers serves on the Board of Directors of the Factory Mutual Insurance Company, where he is chairman of the Finance Committee and a member of the Executive Committee. He is a member of the Financial Executives Institute and is past chairman of St. Francis Hospital in Federal Way, Washington. Mr. Stivers is also a past member of Chase Manhattan Bank's National Advisory Board.

Minerals Technologies is a global resource- and technology-based growth company that develops, produces and markets the highest quality performance-enhancing minerals and related products, systems and services for the paper, steel, polymer and other manufacturing industries. The company reported sales of $752.7 million in 2002.
