NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

NOTE 1—THE COMPANY AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Operations

IAC is a leading media and Internet company comprised of widely known consumer brands, such as HomeAdvisor, Vimeo, Dotdash (formerly About.com), Dictionary.com, The Daily Beast, Investopedia, and Match Group's online dating portfolio, which includes Match, Tinder, PlentyOfFish and OkCupid.

All references to "IAC," the "Company," "we," "our" or "us" in this report are to IAC/InterActiveCorp.

On March 31, 2017, Match Group sold its non-dating business, consisting of The Princeton Review. The non-dating business does not meet the threshold to be reflected as a discontinued operation at the IAC level. The Company moved the non-dating business to its "Other" segment effective March 31, 2017 and prior period segment data has been recast to conform to this presentation.

On May 1, 2017, the Company announced that it had entered into a definitive agreement with Angie's List, Inc. ("Angie's List") to combine the businesses in the Company's HomeAdvisor segment and Angie's List under a new publicly traded company to be called ANGI Homeservices Inc. IAC will own between approximately 87% and 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices Inc. common stock. This transaction is subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions, including the approval by Angie's List stockholders, and is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2017.

Basis of Presentation

The Company prepares its consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP").

Basis of Consolidation and Accounting for Investments

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company, all entities that are wholly-owned by the Company and all entities in which the Company has a controlling financial interest. Intercompany transactions and accounts have been eliminated.

Investments in the common stock or in-substance common stock of entities in which the Company has the ability to exercise significant influence over the operating and financial matters of the investee, but does not have a controlling financial interest, are accounted for using the equity method and are included in "Long-term investments" in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP for interim financial information and with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and notes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements include all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation. Interim results are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year. The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto for the year ended December 31, 2016 included in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K dated July 18, 2017.

Accounting Estimates

Management of the Company is required to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions during the preparation of its consolidated financial statements in accordance with GAAP. These estimates, judgments and assumptions impact the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses and the related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. On an ongoing basis, the Company evaluates its estimates and judgments including those related to: the fair values of marketable securities and other investments; the recoverability of goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets; the useful lives and recoverability of definite-lived intangible assets and property and equipment; the carrying value of accounts receivable, including the determination of the allowance for doubtful accounts; the determination of revenue reserves; the fair value of acquisition-related contingent consideration arrangements; the liabilities for uncertain tax positions; the valuation allowance for deferred income tax assets; and the fair value of and forfeiture rates for stock-based awards, among others. The Company bases its estimates and judgments on historical experience, its forecasts and budgets and other factors that the Company considers relevant. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Certain Risks and Concentrations

A meaningful portion of the Company's revenue is derived from online advertising, the market for which is highly competitive and rapidly changing. Significant changes in this industry or changes in advertising spending behavior or in customer buying behavior could adversely affect our operating results. Most of the Company's online advertising revenue is attributable to a services agreement with Google Inc. ("Google"). For the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, revenue from Google represents 23% and 24%, respectively, of the Company's consolidated revenue. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2016, revenue from Google represents 24% and 30%, respectively, of the Company's consolidated revenue.

The Company's services agreement became effective on April 1, 2016, following the expiration of the previous services agreement. The services agreement expires on March 31, 2020; however, the Company may choose to terminate the agreement effective March 31, 2019. The services agreement requires that we comply with certain guidelines promulgated by Google. Google may generally unilaterally update its policies and guidelines without advance notice, which could in turn require modifications to, or prohibit and/or render obsolete certain of our products, services and/or business practices, which could be costly to address or otherwise have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, revenue earned from Google was $174.6 million and $362.4 million, respectively. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2016, revenue earned from Google was $181.5 million and $466.2 million, respectively. This revenue is earned by the businesses comprising the Applications and Publishing segments. For both the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, revenue earned from Google represents 83% of Applications revenue and 70% of Publishing revenue. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2016, revenue earned from Google represents 85% and 88% of Applications revenue and 69% and 78% of Publishing revenue, respectively. Accounts receivable related to revenue earned from Google totaled $65.9 million and $65.8 million at June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Accounting Pronouncements not yet adopted by the Company

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which clarifies the principles for recognizing revenue and develops a common standard for all industries. ASU No. 2014-09 was subsequently amended during 2015 and 2016; these amendments provide further revenue recognition guidance related to principal versus agent considerations, performance obligations and licensing, and narrow-scope improvements and practical expedients.

ASU No. 2014-09 is a comprehensive revenue recognition standard that will supersede nearly all existing revenue recognition guidance under GAAP. The new standard provides a single principles-based, five-step model to be applied to all contracts with customers. This five-step model includes (1) identifying the contract(s) with the customer, (2) identifying the performance obligations in the contract, (3) determining the transaction price, (4) allocating the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract and (5) recognizing revenue when each performance obligation is satisfied. More specifically, revenue will be recognized when promised goods or services are transferred to the customer in an amount that reflects the consideration expected in exchange for those goods or services. ASU No. 2014-09 is effective for interim and annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017, with early adoption permitted for interim and annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2016. Upon adoption, ASU

No. 2014-09 may either be applied retrospectively to each prior period presented or using the modified retrospective approach with the cumulative effect recognized as of the date of initial application.

While the Company's evaluation of the impact the adoption of ASU No. 2014-09 on its consolidated financial statements continues, it has progressed to the point where we have reached certain preliminary determinations. The Company does not expect the adoption of ASU No. 2014-09 to have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements. The Company will adopt ASU No. 2014-09 using the modified retrospective approach effective January 1, 2018. Therefore, the cumulative effect of adoption will be reflected as an adjustment to beginning retained earnings in the Form 10-Q for the period ending March 31, 2018. The adoption of ASU No. 2014-09 will primarily affect the Company's HomeAdvisor and Applications segments. The effect on HomeAdvisor will be that sales commissions, which represent the incremental direct costs of obtaining a service professional contract, will be capitalized and amortized over the average life of a service professional. These costs are expensed as incurred today. Within Applications, the primary effect will be to accelerate the recognition of the portion of the revenue of certain desktop applications sold by SlimWare that qualify as functional intellectual property under ASU No. 2014-09. This revenue is currently deferred and recognized over the applicable subscription term.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), which supersedes existing guidance on accounting for leases in "Leases (Topic 840)" and generally requires all leases to be recognized in the statement of financial position. The provisions of ASU No. 2016-02 are effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018; early adoption is permitted. The provisions of ASU No. 2016-02 are to be applied using a modified retrospective approach. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of this standard update will have on its consolidated financial statements.

In May 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-09, Compensation—Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Scope of Modification Accounting, which provides guidance about the changes to the terms and conditions of a share-based payment award that require an entity to apply modification accounting in "Stock Compensation (Topic 718)." The provisions of ASU No. 2017-09 are effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017; early adoption is permitted. The provisions of ASU No. 2017-09 are to be applied prospectively to an award modified on or after the adoption date. The Company does not expect the adoption of this standard update to have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements and is currently evaluating the timing of adoption.

Accounting Pronouncements adopted by the Company

In August 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-15, Statement of Cash Flows (Topic 230): Classification of Certain Cash Receipts and Cash Payments, which clarifies how cash receipts and cash payments in certain transactions are presented and classified on the statement of cash flows. The provisions of ASU No. 2016-15 are effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods, and will require adoption on a retrospective basis unless it is impracticable to apply, in which case we would be required to apply the amendments prospectively as of the earliest date practicable; early adoption is permitted. Upon adoption, cash payments made soon after the acquisition date of a business to settle a contingent consideration liability are classified as cash outflows for investing activities. Cash payments which are not made soon after the acquisition date of a business to settle a contingent consideration liability are separated and classified as cash outflows for financing activities up to the amount of the contingent consideration liability recognized at the acquisition date and as cash outflows from operating activities for any excess. The Company early adopted the provisions of ASU No. 2016-15 on January 1, 2017. As a result, $11.1 million of an acquisition-related contingent consideration payment of $15.0 million, which was in excess of the liability initially recognized at the acquisition date, has been classified as a cash outflow within net cash provided by operating activities in the accompanying consolidated statement of cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2017.

In March 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-09, Compensation-Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Improvements to Employee Share-Based Payment Accounting. The Company adopted the provisions of ASU No. 2016-09 on January 1, 2017. Excess tax benefits or deficiencies related to equity awards to employees upon the exercise of stock options and the vesting of restricted stock units after January 1, 2017 are (i) reflected in the consolidated statement of operations as a component of the provision for income taxes, rather than recognized in equity, and (ii) reflected as operating, rather than financing, cash flows in our consolidated statement of cash flows. Excess tax benefits for the six months ended June 30, 2017 were $57.3 million. Excess tax benefits of $21.9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016 were reclassified in the consolidated statement of cash flows to conform to the current year presentation. Upon adoption, the calculation of fully diluted shares excludes excess tax benefits from the assumed proceeds in applying the treasury stock method; previously such benefits were included in the calculation. This change increased fully diluted shares by approximately 1.5 million and 1.4 million shares for the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, respectively. The Company continues to account for forfeitures using an estimated forfeiture rate. In January 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-04, Intangibles—Goodwill and Other (Topic 350): Simplifying the Test for Goodwill Impairment, which is intended to simplify the accounting for goodwill impairment. The guidance eliminates the requirement to calculate the implied fair value of goodwill under today's two-step impairment test to measure a goodwill impairment charge. The provisions of ASU No. 2017-04 are effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2019; early adoption is permitted. The provisions of ASU No. 2017-04 are to be applied using a prospective approach. The Company early adopted the provisions of ASU No. 2017-04 on January 1, 2017 and the adoption of this standard update did not have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

Reclassifications

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

NOTE 2—INCOME TAXES

At the end of each interim period, the Company makes its best estimate of the annual expected effective income tax rate and applies that rate to its ordinary year-to-date earnings or loss. The income tax provision or benefit related to significant, unusual, or extraordinary items, if applicable, that will be separately reported or reported net of their related tax effects are individually computed and recognized in the interim period in which they occur. In addition, the effect of changes in enacted tax laws or rates, tax status, judgment on the realizability of a beginning-of-the-year deferred tax asset in future years or the liabilities for uncertain tax positions is recognized in the interim period in which the change occurs.

The computation of the annual expected effective income tax rate at each interim period requires certain estimates and assumptions including, but not limited to, the expected pre-tax income (or loss) for the year, projections of the proportion of income (and/or loss) earned and taxed in foreign jurisdictions, permanent and temporary differences, and the likelihood of the realization of deferred tax assets generated in the current year. The accounting estimates used to compute the provision or benefit for income taxes may change as new events occur, more experience is acquired, additional information is obtained or our tax environment changes. To the extent that the expected annual effective income tax rate changes during a quarter, the effect of the change on prior quarters is included in income tax provision in the quarter in which the change occurs.

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company recorded an income tax benefit of $19.4 million and $43.3 million, respectively. The income tax benefit for the three and six months ended June 30, 2017 is due primarily to the effect of adopting the provisions of ASU No. 2016-09 on January 1, 2017. Under ASU No. 2016-09, excess tax benefits generated by the settlement or exercise of stock-based awards of $57.3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017 are recognized as a reduction to the income tax provision rather than as an increase to additional paid-in capital. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2016, the Company recorded an income tax benefit for continuing operations of $96.7 million and $95.2 million, respectively, which, in each case, represents an effective income tax rate of 34%. The effective tax rate each period is lower than the statutory rate of 35% due primarily to the non-deductible portion of the goodwill impairment at the Publishing segment, partially offset by state taxes.

The Company recognizes interest and, if applicable, penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in the income tax provision. At June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, the Company has accrued $3.0 million and $2.6 million, respectively, for the payment of interest. At both June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, the Company has accrued $1.7 million for penalties.

The Company is routinely under audit by federal, state, local and foreign authorities in the area of income tax. These audits include questioning the timing and the amount of income and deductions and the allocation of income and deductions among various tax jurisdictions. The Internal Revenue Service is currently auditing the Company's federal income tax returns for the years ended December 31, 2010 through 2012. The statute of limitations for the years 2010 through 2012 has been extended to June 30, 2018. Various other jurisdictions are open to examination for tax years beginning with 2009. Income taxes payable include reserves considered sufficient to pay assessments that may result from examination of prior year tax returns. Changes to reserves from period to period and differences between amounts paid, if any, upon resolution of audits and amounts previously provided may be material. Differences between the reserves for income tax contingencies and the amounts owed by the Company are recorded in the period they become known.

At June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, unrecognized tax benefits, including interest and penalties, are $41.4 million and $41.0 million, respectively. If unrecognized tax benefits at June 30, 2017 are subsequently recognized, $38.0 million, net of related deferred tax assets and interest, would reduce income tax expense. The comparable amount as of December 31, 2016 was $37.7 million. The Company believes that it is reasonably possible that its unrecognized tax benefits could decrease by $2.6 million by June 30, 2018, due to expirations of statutes of limitations; $2.4 million of which would reduce the income tax provision.

NOTE 4—FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS AND FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company categorizes its financial instruments measured at fair value into a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used in pricing the asset or liability. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are:

Level 1: Observable inputs obtained from independent sources, such as quoted prices for identical assets and liabilities in active markets.

Level 2: Other inputs, which are observable directly or indirectly, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active and inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data. The fair values of the Company's Level 2 financial assets are primarily obtained from observable market prices for identical underlying securities that may not be actively traded. Certain of these securities may have different market prices from multiple market data sources, in which case an average market price is used.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs for which there is little or no market data and require the Company to develop its own assumptions, based on the best information available in the circumstances, about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the assets or liabilities. See below for a discussion of fair value measurements made using Level 3 inputs.

The following tables present the Company's financial instruments that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

Contingent Consideration Arrangements

As of June 30, 2017, there are four contingent consideration arrangements related to business acquisitions. The maximum contingent payments related to these four arrangements are $91.2 million and the fair value of these arrangements at June 30, 2017 is $24.8 million.

The contingent consideration arrangements are generally based upon earnings performance and/or operating metrics. The Company determines the fair value of the contingent consideration arrangements by using probability-weighted analyses to determine the amounts of the gross liability, and, if the arrangement is initially long-term in nature, applying a discount rate that appropriately captures the risks associated with the obligation to determine the net amount reflected in the consolidated financial statements. The number of scenarios in the probability-weighted analyses can vary; generally, more scenarios are prepared for longer duration and more complex arrangements. The fair values of the contingent consideration arrangements at both June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016 reflect discount rates of 12%.

The fair values of the contingent consideration arrangements are sensitive to changes in the forecasts of earnings and/or the relevant operating metrics and changes in discount rates. The Company remeasures the fair value of the consideration arrangements each reporting period, including the accretion of the discount, if applicable, and changes are recognized in "General and administrative expense" in the accompanying consolidated statement of operations. The contingent consideration arrangement liability at June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016 includes a current portion of $23.7 million and $33.4 million, respectively, and a non-current portion of $1.1 million and $0.4 million, respectively, which are included in "Accrued expenses and other current liabilities" and "Other long-term liabilities," respectively, in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

Assets measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis

The Company's non-financial assets, such as goodwill, intangible assets and property and equipment, as well as equity and cost method investments, are adjusted to fair value only when an impairment charge is recognized. Such fair value measurements are based predominantly on Level 3 inputs.

Cost method investments

At June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, the carrying values of the Company's investments accounted for under the cost method totaled $115.2 million and $116.1 million, respectively, and are included in "Long-term investments" in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet. The Company evaluates each cost method investment for impairment on a quarterly basis and recognizes an impairment loss if a decline in value is determined to be other-than-temporary. If the Company has not identified events or changes in circumstances that may have a significant adverse effect on the fair value of a cost method investment, then the fair value of such cost method investment is not estimated, as it is impracticable to do so.

Financial instruments measured at fair value only for disclosure purposes

The following table presents the carrying value and the fair value of financial instruments measured at fair value only for disclosure purposes:

	June 30, 2017		December 31, 2016

The fair value of long-term debt, including the current portion, is estimated using market prices or indices for similar liabilities and takes into consideration other factors such as credit quality and maturity, which are Level 3 inputs.

The Match Group Term Loan matures on November 16, 2022; provided that, if any of the 2015 Match Group Senior Notes remain outstanding on the date that is 91 days prior to the maturity date of the 2015 Match Group Senior Notes, the Match Group Term Loan maturity date shall be the date that is 91 days prior to the maturity date of the 2015 Match Group Senior Notes.

Match Group Senior Notes

The 2016 Match Group Senior Notes were issued on June 1, 2016. The proceeds of $400 million were used to prepay a portion of indebtedness outstanding under the Match Group Term Loan. At any time prior to June 1, 2019, these notes may be redeemed at a redemption price equal to the sum of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest and a make-whole premium. Thereafter, these notes may be redeemed at redemption prices set forth in the indenture governing the notes, together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the applicable redemption date.

The 2015 Match Group Senior Notes were issued on November 16, 2015, in exchange for a portion of the IAC 2012 Senior Notes (the "Match Exchange Offer"). At any time prior to December 15, 2017, the 2015 Match Group Senior Notes may be redeemed at a redemption price equal to the sum of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest and a make-whole premium. Thereafter, these notes may be redeemed at redemption prices set forth in the indenture governing the notes, together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the applicable redemption date. The indentures governing the 2016 and 2015 Match Group Senior Notes contain covenants that would limit Match Group's ability to pay dividends or to make distributions and repurchase or redeem Match Group stock in the event a default has occurred or Match Group's leverage ratio (as defined in the indentures) exceeds 5.0 to 1.0. At June 30, 2017 there were no limitations pursuant thereto. There are additional covenants that limit Match Group's ability and the ability of its subsidiaries to, among other things, (i) incur indebtedness, make investments, or sell assets in the event Match Group is not in compliance with the leverage ratio set forth in the indenture, and (ii) incur liens, enter into agreements restricting Match Group subsidiaries' ability to pay dividends, enter into transactions with affiliates and consolidate, merge or sell substantially all of their assets.

Match Group Term Loan and Match Group Credit Facility

On November 16, 2015, under a credit agreement (the "Match Group Credit Agreement"), Match Group borrowed $800 million in the form of a term loan (the "Match Group Term Loan"). On June 30, 2016, Match Group made a $10 million principal payment on the Match Group Term Loan. On June 1, 2016, the $400 million in proceeds from the 2016 Match Group Senior Notes, described above, were used to prepay a portion of the Match Group Term Loan. On December 8, 2016, Match Group made an additional $40 million principal payment on the Match Group Term Loan and the remaining outstanding balance of $350 million, which is due at maturity, was repriced. The Match Group Term Loan provides for additional annual principal payments as part of an excess cash flow sweep provision, the amount of which, if any, is governed by the secured net leverage ratio contained in the Match Group Credit Agreement. The Match Group Term Loan bears interest, at Match Group's option, at a base rate or LIBOR, plus 2.25% or 3.25%, respectively, and in the case of LIBOR, a floor of 0.75%. The interest rate on the Match Group Term Loan at June 30, 2017 is 4.37%. Interest payments are due at least semi-annually through the term of the loan.

Match Group has a $500 million revolving credit facility (the "Match Group Credit Facility") that expires on October 7, 2020. At June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, there were no outstanding borrowings under the Match Group Credit Facility. The annual commitment fee on undrawn funds based on the current leverage ratio is 30 basis points. Borrowings under the Match Group Credit Facility bear interest, at Match Group's option, at a base rate or LIBOR, in each case plus an applicable margin, which is determined by reference to a pricing grid based on Match Group's consolidated net leverage ratio. The terms of the Match Group Credit Facility require Match Group to maintain a consolidated net leverage ratio of not more than 5.0 to 1.0 and a minimum interest coverage ratio of not less than 2.5 to 1.0 (in each case as defined in the agreement).

There are additional covenants under the Match Group Credit Facility and the Match Group Term Loan that limit the ability of Match Group and its subsidiaries to, among other things, incur indebtedness, pay dividends or make distributions. While the Match Group Term Loan remains outstanding, these same covenants under the Match Group Credit Agreement are more restrictive than the covenants that are applicable to the Match Group Credit Facility. Obligations under the Match Group Credit Facility and Match Group Term Loan are unconditionally guaranteed by certain Match Group wholly-owned domestic subsidiaries, and are also secured by the stock of certain Match Group domestic and foreign subsidiaries. The Match Group Term Loan and outstanding borrowings, if any, under the Match Group Credit Facility rank equally with each other, and have priority over the 2016 and 2015 Match Group Senior Notes to the extent of the value of the assets securing the borrowings under the Match Group Credit Agreement.

IAC Senior Notes

The 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes were issued by IAC on November 15, 2013 and December 21, 2012, respectively. The 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes are unconditionally guaranteed by certain wholly-owned domestic subsidiaries, which are designated as guarantor subsidiaries, except neither Match Group nor any of its subsidiaries guarantee any debt of IAC, or are subject to any of the covenants related to such debt. The guarantor subsidiaries are the same for the 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes. See "Note 11—Guarantor and Non-guarantor Financial Information" for financial information relating to guarantor and non-guarantor subsidiaries.

For the six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company redeemed and repurchased $28.3 million of its 2013 Senior Notes and repurchased $3.3 million of its 2012 Senior Notes. For the six months ended June 30, 2016, the Company redeemed and repurchased $55.0 million of its 2013 Senior Notes and repurchased $6.1 million of its 2012 Senior Notes.

The indenture governing the 2013 Senior Notes contains covenants that would limit our ability to pay dividends or to make distributions and repurchase or redeem our stock in the event a default has occurred or our leverage ratio (as defined in the indenture) exceeds 3.0 to 1.0. At June 30, 2017, there were no limitations pursuant thereto. There are additional covenants that limit the Company's ability and the ability of its restricted subsidiaries to, among other things, (i) incur indebtedness, make investments, or sell assets in the event we are not in compliance with the financial ratio set forth in the indenture, and (ii) incur liens, enter into agreements limiting our restricted subsidiaries' ability to pay dividends, enter into transactions with affiliates and consolidate, merge or sell substantially all of our assets. The indenture governing the 2012 Senior Notes was amended to eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants contained therein in connection with the Match Exchange Offer.

IAC Credit Facility

IAC has a $300.0 million revolving credit facility (the "IAC Credit Facility") that expires October 7, 2020. At June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, there were no outstanding borrowings under the IAC Credit Facility. The annual commitment fee on undrawn funds is currently 35 basis points, and is based on the leverage ratio most recently reported. Borrowings under the IAC Credit Facility bear interest, at the Company's option, at a base rate or LIBOR, in each case, plus an applicable margin, which is determined by reference to a pricing grid based on the Company's leverage ratio. The terms of the IAC Credit Facility require that the Company maintains a leverage ratio (as defined in the agreement) of not more than 3.25 to 1.0 and restrict our ability to incur additional indebtedness. Borrowings under the IAC Credit Facility are unconditionally guaranteed by the same domestic subsidiaries that guarantee the 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes and are also secured by the stock of certain of our domestic and foreign subsidiaries. The 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes rank equally with each other, and are subordinate to outstanding borrowings under the IAC Credit Facility to extent of the value of the assets securing such borrowings.

The amount for the three and six months ended June 30, 2017 reflects the reduction in Match Group's earnings attributable to IAC from the assumed exercise of Match Group's dilutive securities under the if-converted method.^(a) For the three and six months ended June 30, 2016, the effect of Match Group's dilutive securities under the if-converted method is excluded because it would have been anti-dilutive due to the Company's net loss.

IAC/INTERACTIVECORP

(Unaudited)

If the effect is dilutive, weighted average common shares outstanding include the incremental shares that would be issued upon the assumed exercise of subsidiary denominated equity and stock options and vesting of restricted (b) stock units ("RSUs"). For the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, less than 0.1 million and 0.5 million potentially dilutive securities, respectively, are excluded from the calculation of diluted earnings per share because their inclusion would have been anti-dilutive.

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2016, the Company had a loss from operations and, as a result, (c) approximately 9.8 million potentially dilutive securities were excluded from computing diluted earnings per share because the impact would have been anti-dilutive.

Market-based awards and performance-based stock units ("PSUs") are considered contingently issuable shares. Shares issuable upon exercise or vesting of market-based awards and PSUs are included in the denominator for earnings per share if (i) the applicable market or performance condition(s) has been met and (ii) the inclusion of the market-based awards and PSUs is dilutive for the respective reporting periods. For both the three and six months (d) ended June 30, 2017, 0.4 million shares underlying market-based awards and PSUs were excluded from the calculation of diluted earnings per share because the market or performance conditions had not been met. For both the three and six months ended June 30, 2016, 1.0 million shares underlying market-based awards and PSUs were excluded from the calculation of diluted earnings per share because the market or performance conditions had not been met.

NOTE 8—SEGMENT INFORMATION

The overall concept that IAC employs in determining its operating segments is to present the financial information in a manner consistent with: how the chief operating decision maker views the businesses; how the businesses are organized as to segment management; and the focus of the businesses with regards to the types of services or products offered or the target market. Operating segments are combined for reporting purposes if they meet certain aggregation criteria, which principally relate to the similarity of their economic characteristics or, in the case of the Other reportable segment, do not meet the quantitative thresholds that require presentation as separate operating segments.

Beginning in the second quarter of 2017, as a result of the sale of these businesses, the Other segment does not include any financial results.

The Company's primary financial measure is Adjusted EBITDA, which is defined as operating income excluding: (1) stock-based compensation expense; (2) depreciation; and (3) acquisition-related items consisting of (i) amortization of intangible assets and impairments of goodwill and intangible assets, if applicable, and (ii) gains and losses recognized on changes in the fair value of contingent consideration arrangements. The Company believes this measure is useful for analysts and investors as this measure allows a more meaningful comparison between our performance and that of our competitors. Moreover, our management uses this measure internally to evaluate the performance of our business as a whole and our individual business segments, and this measure is one of the primary metrics by which our internal budgets are based and by which management is compensated. The above items are excluded from our Adjusted EBITDA measure because these items are non-cash in nature, and we believe that by excluding these items, Adjusted EBITDA corresponds more closely to the cash operating income generated from our business, from which capital investments are made and debt is serviced. Adjusted EBITDA has certain limitations in that it does not take into account the impact to IAC's statement of operations of certain expenses.

NOTE 10—CONTINGENCIES

In the ordinary course of business, the Company is a party to various lawsuits. The Company establishes reserves for specific legal matters when it determines that the likelihood of an unfavorable outcome is probable and the loss is reasonably estimable. Management has also identified certain other legal matters where we believe an unfavorable outcome is not probable and, therefore, no reserve is established. Although management currently believes that resolving claims against us, including claims where an unfavorable outcome is reasonably possible, will not have a material impact on the liquidity, results of operations, or financial condition of the Company, these matters are subject to inherent uncertainties and management's view of these matters may change in the future. The Company also evaluates other contingent matters, including income and non-income tax contingencies, to assess the likelihood of an unfavorable outcome and estimated extent of potential loss. It is possible that an unfavorable outcome of one or more of these lawsuits or other contingencies could have a material impact on the liquidity, results of operations, or financial condition of the Company. See "Note 2—Income Taxes" for additional information related to income tax contingencies.

NOTE 11—GUARANTOR AND NON-GUARANTOR FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes are unconditionally guaranteed, jointly and severally, by certain domestic subsidiaries which are 100% owned by the Company. The following tables present condensed consolidating financial information at June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016 and for the three and six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016 for: IAC, on a stand-alone basis; the combined guarantor subsidiaries of IAC; the combined non-guarantor subsidiaries of IAC; and IAC on a consolidated basis.

Key metrics:

In connection with the management of our businesses we identify, measure and assess a variety of key metrics. The principal metrics we use in managing our businesses are set forth below:

Match Group

• North America - consists of the financial results and metrics for customers located in the United States and Canada.

• International - consists of the financial results and metrics for customers located outside of the United States and Canada.

• Direct Revenue - is revenue that is directly received from an end user of its products.

• Average PMC - is calculated by summing the number of paid members, or paid member count ("PMC"), at the end of each day in the relevant measurement period and dividing it by the number of calendar days in that period. PMC as of any given time represents the number of users with a paid membership at that time.

• Average Revenue per Paying User (or "ARPPU") - is Direct Revenue from paid members included in Average PMC in the relevant measurement period (whether in the form of subscription payments or à la carte payments) divided by the Average PMC in such period divided by the number of calendar days in such period.

HomeAdvisor

• Domestic Revenue - reflects revenue from the HomeAdvisor branded marketplace service and its owned affiliates in the United States. It excludes other domestic operating subsidiaries within the segment.

Domestic Service Requests - are fully completed and submitted customer service requests.

Domestic Paying Service Professionals (or "Domestic Paying SPs") - are the number of service professionals that had an active membership and/or paid for consumer matches in the last month of the period.

Video

- Vimeo ending subscribers - are the number of subscribers to Vimeo's Creator Platform with a Plus, Pro or Business subscription at the end of the period.

Operating costs and expenses:

Cost of revenue - consists primarily of traffic acquisition costs and includes (i) fees paid to Apple and Google related to the distribution and the facilitation of in-app purchases of product features and (ii) payments made to partners who distribute our Partnerships customized browser-based applications and who integrate our paid listings into their websites. These payments include amounts based on revenue share and other arrangements. Cost of revenue also includes production costs related to media produced by Electus and other businesses within our Video segment and expenses associated with the operation of the Company's data centers, consisting of compensation (including stock-based compensation) and other employee-related costs, hosting fees, credit card processing fees, content acquisition costs and rent. Cost of revenue in 2016 includes ShoeBuy's cost of products sold and shipping and handling costs and The Princeton Review's cost for teachers and tutors.

- Selling and marketing expense - consists primarily of advertising expenditures and compensation (including stock-based compensation) and other employee-related costs for personnel engaged in selling and marketing and sales support. Advertising expenditures include online marketing, including fees paid to search engines and third parties that distribute our Consumer downloadable desktop applications, offline marketing, which is primarily television advertising, and partner-related payments to those who direct traffic to the Match Group brands.

General and administrative expense - consists primarily of compensation (including stock-based compensation) and other employee-related costs for personnel engaged in executive management, finance, legal, tax, human resources and customer service functions (except for Match Group which includes customer service costs within cost of revenue), fees for professional services, facilities costs, bad debt expense and acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments (described below).

Product development expense - consists primarily of compensation (including stock-based compensation) and other employee-related costs that are not capitalized for personnel engaged in the design, development, testing and enhancement of product offerings and related technology.

Acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments - relate to the portion of the purchase price (of certain acquisitions) that is contingent upon the future operating performance of the acquired company. The amounts ultimately paid are generally dependent upon earnings performance and/or operating metrics as stipulated in the relevant purchase agreements. The fair value of the liability is estimated at the date of acquisition and adjusted each reporting period until the liability is settled. If the payment date of the liability is longer than one year, the amount is initially recorded net of a discount, which is amortized as an expense each period. In a period where the acquired company is expected to perform better than the previous estimate, the liability will be increased resulting in additional expense; and in a period when the acquired company is expected to perform worse than the previous estimate, the liability will be decreased resulting in income. The year-over-year impact can be significant, for example, if there is income in one period and expense in the other period.

Long-term debt:

2012 Senior Notes - IAC's 4.75% Senior Notes due December 15, 2022, with interest payable each June 15 and December 15, which commenced June 15, 2013, a portion of which were exchanged for the 2015 Match Group Senior Notes (described below) on November 16, 2015.

2013 Senior Notes - IAC's 4.875% Senior Notes due November 30, 2018, with interest payable each May 30 and November 30, which commenced May 30, 2014.

- Match Exchange Offer - Match Group exchanged $445 million of 2015 Match Group Senior Notes for a substantially like amount of 2012 Senior Notes on November 16, 2015.
- 2015 Match Group Senior Notes - Match Group's 6.75% Senior Notes due December 15, 2022, with interest payable each June 15 and December 15, which commenced on June 15, 2016, and which were issued in exchange for 2012 Senior Notes on November 16, 2015.

- Non-GAAP financial measure:
 - Adjusted Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization ("Adjusted EBITDA") - is a Non-GAAP financial measure. See "IAC's Principles of Financial Reporting" for the definition of Adjusted EBITDA.
- Management Overview
 - IAC is a leading media and Internet company comprised of widely known consumer brands, such as HomeAdvisor, Vimeo, Dotdash (formerly About.com), Dictionary.com, The Daily Beast, Investopedia, and Match Group's online dating portfolio, which includes Match, Tinder, PlentyOfFish and OkCupid.
 - For a more detailed description of the Company's operating businesses, see the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016.
 - A meaningful portion of the revenue from our Applications and Publishing segments is derived from online advertising, most of which is attributable to our services agreement with Google Inc. ("Google"). The Company's services agreement became effective on April 1, 2016, following the expiration of the previous services agreement. The services agreement expires on March 31, 2020; however, the Company may choose to terminate the agreement effective March 31, 2019. The terms of the new Google services agreement significantly reduced the revenue earned by our Publishing segment during the twelve months ended June 30, 2017 compared to the twelve months ended June 30, 2016. Given the new services agreement with Google has been in place for a full year as of April 1, 2017, the Company does not expect the Publishing segment's year-over-year revenue to be negatively affected by the new services agreement for the balance of 2017. The services agreement requires that we comply with certain guidelines promulgated by Google, and Google may generally unilaterally update its policies and guidelines without advance notice. Any such updates could in turn require modifications to, or prohibit and/or render obsolete certain of our products, services and/or business practices, which could be costly to address or otherwise have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, revenue earned from Google was $174.6 million and $362.4 million, respectively. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2016, revenue earned from Google was $181.5 million and $466.2 million, respectively. The decline in Google revenue in the first six months of 2017 compared to the first six months of 2016 was primarily due to the effects of the new contract. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, revenue from Google represents 23% and 24%, respectively, of the Company's consolidated revenue. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2016, revenue from Google represents 24% and 30%, respectively, of the Company's consolidated revenue. For both the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, revenue earned from Google represents 83% of Applications revenue and 70% of Publishing revenue. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2016, revenue earned from Google represents 85% and 88% of Applications revenue and 69% and 78% of Publishing revenue, respectively.
 - 2017 Developments
 - During the six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company repurchased 0.7 million shares of common stock at an average price of $69.73 per share, or $50.1 million in aggregate.

During the six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company redeemed and repurchased $28.3 million of its 2013 Senior Notes and repurchased $3.3 million of its 2012 Senior Notes.

On May 1, 2017, the Company announced that it had entered into a definitive agreement with Angie's List, Inc. ("Angie's List") to combine the businesses in the Company's HomeAdvisor segment and Angie's List under a new publicly traded company to be called ANGI Homeservices Inc. IAC will own between approximately 87% and 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices Inc. common stock. This transaction is subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions, including the approval by Angie's List stockholders, and is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2017. During the six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company incurred $3.7 million in transaction-related costs related to the proposed Angie's List transaction. The Company expects to incur approximately $15.0 million in transaction and integration-planning related costs (excluding severance, retention and other employee related costs) for the remainder of 2017.

On March 31, 2017, Match Group sold its non-dating business, consisting of The Princeton Review. The non-dating business does not meet the threshold to be reflected as a discontinued operation at the IAC level. The Company moved the non-dating business to its "Other" segment effective March 31, 2017 and prior period segment data has been recast to conform to this presentation.

HomeAdvisor acquired controlling interests in MyBuilder Limited ("MyBuilder") on March 24, 2017, and HomeStars Inc. ("HomeStars") on February 8, 2017, leading home services platforms in the United Kingdom and Canada, respectively.

Second Quarter and Year to Date June 2017 Consolidated Results

For the three months ended June 30, 2017, the Company's revenue increased $21.9 million, or 3%, operating income grew $328.1 million from a loss of $252.4 million in the prior year and Adjusted EBITDA increased $32.5 million, or 29%. Revenue increased due primarily to strong growth of $50.5 million from HomeAdvisor and $34.3 million from Match Group, partially offset by a decline of $64.3 million from Other due to the sales of The Princeton Review, ShoeBuy and PriceRunner on March 31, 2017, December 30, 2016 and March 18, 2016, respectively. The operating income increase is due primarily to the inclusion in the prior year of a $275.4 million goodwill impairment charge and an $11.6 million intangible asset impairment charge at Publishing driven by the impact of the Google contract, traffic trends and monetization challenges, and an increase of $32.5 million in Adjusted EBITDA, partially offset by an increase of $11.2 million in stock-based compensation expense. The Adjusted EBITDA increase is primarily driven by a profit of $2.7 million in 2017 versus a loss of $11.8 million in 2016 from Publishing and growth of $11.5 million and $8.5 million from Applications and Match Group, respectively.

For the six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company's revenue decreased $36.4 million, or 2%, however, operating income increased $343.7 million from a loss of $231.0 million in the prior year and Adjusted EBITDA grew $48.6 million, or 25%. Despite strong revenue growth of $89.8 million from HomeAdvisor and $72.6 million from Match Group, revenue decreased due primarily to a decline of $106.8 million from Other due to factors described above in three-month discussion and a significant decline of $95.1 million from Publishing primarily due to the effects of the new Google contract. The increase in operating income and Adjusted EBITDA growth are due primarily to the factors described above in the three-month discussion.

For the three months ended June 30, 2017 compared to the three months ended June 30, 2016

Match Group revenue increased 12% driven by International Direct Revenue growth of $26.0 million, or 28%, and North America Direct Revenue growth of $10.0 million, or 6%. Both International and North America Direct Revenue were driven by higher Average PMC, up 31% and 6%, respectively, due primarily to continued growth in paying members at Tinder, PlentyOfFish and Pairs (in Japan). Both International and North America Average PMC growth were partially offset by a decline in ARPPU of 4% and 1%, respectively. The International ARPPU decline was due to foreign exchange impacts and a continued mix shift towards brands with lower price points. The North America ARPPU decline was due to a continued mix shift towards brands with lower price points.

HomeAdvisor revenue increased 39% driven by strong growth of $43.0 million, or 38%, at the Domestic business and 66% at the European business. Domestic Revenue growth was driven by a 41% increase in Domestic Service Requests to 5.2 million and a 28% increase in Domestic Paying SPs to 164,000. Revenue growth at the European business was driven by the acquisitions of controlling interests in MyHammer Holding AG on November 3, 2016 and MyBuilder on March 24, 2017, as well as organic growth across other regions.

Video revenue increased 17% driven by growth at Electus and accelerating growth at Vimeo, which had ending subscribers of 0.8 million, an increase of 15%.

Applications revenue increased 1% due to an increase of $8.5 million, or 8%, in Consumer, partially offset by a decline of $7.6 million, or 23%, in Partnerships. The growth in Consumer was due primarily to an increase of 37% at Apalon, driven by higher advertising and subscription revenue, and strong growth at SlimWare, driven by higher subscription revenue, as well as a return to growth at the Consumer desktop applications business, due to higher revenue per query. Partnerships revenue decreased due primarily to the loss of certain partners.

Publishing revenue decreased 8% due to $9.5 million, or 16%, lower Ask & Other revenue, partially offset by $2.3 million, or 9%, higher Premium Brands revenue. Ask & Other revenue decreased due to declines in paid traffic primarily as a result of the renewal of the Google contract, which became effective April 1, 2016, as well as declines in revenue at certain other legacy businesses. Premium Brands revenue increased due primarily to 23% growth at Investopedia and 10% growth at Dotdash.

For the six months ended June 30, 2017 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2016

Match Group revenue increased 14% driven by International Direct Revenue growth of $51.8 million, or 29%, and North America Direct Revenue growth of $23.0 million, or 7%. Both International and North America Direct Revenue were due to the factors described above in the three-month discussion.

HomeAdvisor revenue increased 37% driven by strong growth of $78.3 million, or 38%, at the Domestic business and 50% at the European business. Revenue growth for both the Domestic and European business were due primarily to the factors described above in the three-month discussion. Domestic Service Requests increased 38% to 8.9 million. Video revenue increased 3% driven by accelerating growth at Vimeo, partially offset by lower revenue at Electus, due primarily to the timing of projects, and IAC Films.

Applications revenue was flat year-over-year.

Publishing revenue decreased 38% due to $94.8 million, or 48%, lower Ask & Other revenue. Ask & Other revenue decreased due to declines in paid traffic and Ask.com primarily as a result of the new Google contract, as well as declines in revenue at certain other legacy businesses.

General and administrative expense

For the three months ended June 30, 2017 compared to the three months ended June 30, 2016

	Three Months Ended June 30,
	2017	$ Change	% Change
	2016
	(Dollars in thousands)
General and administrative expense	$150,222	$2,646	2%
As a percentage of revenue	20%		20%

General and administrative expense in 2017 increased from 2016 due to increases of $16.4 million from HomeAdvisor, $10.5 million from Corporate and $8.5 million from Match Group, partially offset by decreases of $17.5 million from Other, $11.3 million from Applications and $4.4 million from Publishing.

The HomeAdvisor increase was due primarily to $3.7 million in transaction-related costs in the current year period related to the proposed Angie's List transaction, higher compensation of $3.1 million due, in part, to increased headcount at the Domestic business, an increase of $2.8 million in bad debt expense due, in part, to higher revenue at the Domestic business, $2.7 million from recent acquisitions and an increase of $1.5 million in outsourced customer service expense.

The Other decrease was due primarily to the sales of The Princeton Review in March 2017 and ShoeBuy in December 2016.

The Applications decrease was due primarily to the inclusion in 2016 of $7.6 million in expense related to an acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustment and a $2.9 million favorable legal settlement in 2017. General and administrative expense was further impacted by $2.0 million in restructuring costs in the second quarter of 2016.

The Publishing decrease was due primarily to reductions in workforce in 2016 including $1.7 million in restructuring costs included in the second quarter of 2016 as well as, the sale of ASKfm on June 30, 2016 and a decrease of $0.7 million in professional fees at Ask.com.

General and administrative expense	$293,817	$13,990	5%

General and administrative expense in 2017 increased from 2016 due to increases of $27.4 million from HomeAdvisor, $17.1 million from Corporate and $13.4 million from Match Group, partially offset by decreases of $27.1 million from Other, $9.5 million from Applications and $8.2 million from Publishing.

The HomeAdvisor increase was due primarily to increases of $5.5 million, $5.2 million and $2.3 million in bad debt expense, compensation and outsourced customer service expense, respectively, $5.0 million from recent acquisitions and the inclusion in 2017 of $4.8 million in transaction-related costs. These increases are due primarily to the factors described above in the three-month discussion.

The Corporate increase was due primarily to an increase in stock-based compensation expense and lower bonus expense and severance costs in 2016. The increase in stock-based compensation expense was primarily due to a modification charge related to a subsidiary denominated equity award in 2017 and the issuance of new equity awards since 2016.

The Match Group increase was due primarily to an increase of $6.8 million in compensation, the inclusion in 2017 of $2.7 million in professional fees related to the Tinder liquidity and equity conversion event, and an increase in expense of $1.9 million in acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments. The increase in compensation is due to an increase of $4.3 million in stock-based compensation expense primarily to the factor described above in the three-month discussion as well as an increase in expense related to new grants issued since the prior year and an increase in headcount from business growth.

The Other, Applications and Publishing decreases were due to the factors described above in the three-month discussion.

For the three months ended June 30, 2017 compared to the three months ended June 30, 2016

Operating income in 2017 increased from a loss in 2016 due primarily to the inclusion in 2016 of a $275.4 million goodwill impairment charge at Publishing, an increase of $32.5 million in Adjusted EBITDA described below, a decrease of $28.4 million in amortization of intangibles and a change of $3.8 million in acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments, partially offset by an increase of $11.2 million in stock-based compensation expense. The goodwill impairment charge at Publishing in 2016 was driven by the impact from the Google contract, traffic trends and monetization challenges. The decrease in amortization of intangibles is due primarily to lower expense in 2017 related to a Publishing trade name and certain intangible assets from the PlentyOfFish acquisition that are now fully amortized and an impairment charge in 2016 of $11.6 million related to certain Publishing indefinite-lived trade names. The increase in stock-based compensation expense is due primarily to an increase in expense associated with the modification of a subsidiary equity award and the issuance of new equity awards since 2016.

For the six months ended June 30, 2017 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2016

Operating income in 2017 increased from a loss in 2016 due primarily to the inclusion in 2016 of a $275.4 million goodwill impairment charge at Publishing, an increase of $48.6 million in Adjusted EBITDA described below, a decrease of $33.0 million in amortization of intangibles and a change of $5.6 million in acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments, partially offset by increases of $13.9 million in stock-based compensation expense and $4.9 million in depreciation expense. The goodwill impairment charge, the decrease in amortization of intangibles and increase in stock-based compensation expense are due primarily to the factors described above in the three-month discussion.

At June 30, 2017, there was $249.6 million of unrecognized compensation cost, net of estimated forfeitures, related to all equity-based awards, which is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of approximately 2.8 years.

Match Group Adjusted EBITDA increased 8% due primarily to an increase of $34.3 million in revenue and a decrease in selling and marketing expense as a percentage of revenue as the product mix continues to shift towards brands with lower marketing spend, partially offset by an increase in cost of revenue, general and administrative expense and product development.

HomeAdvisor Adjusted EBITDA declined 2%, despite an increase of $50.5 million in revenue, due primarily to the inclusion in 2017 of $3.7 million in transaction-related costs related to the proposed Angie's List transaction, as well as an increase in selling and marketing expense at Domestic and higher losses at the European businesses driven primarily by our European expansion strategy including higher selling and marketing expense and higher compensation costs.

Video Adjusted EBITDA loss increased 72% due to lower profits at Daily Burn and increased losses at Electus.

Applications Adjusted EBITDA increased 39% due primarily to a $2.9 million favorable legal settlement in 2017, lower operating costs resulting from restructurings in 2016 including $1.9 million in restructuring costs in the second quarter of 2016, a profit in the current year at SlimWare and improved profitability at Apalon.

Income tax benefit $19,420 NM NM $96,740

The 2017 income tax benefit is due primarily to the effect of adopting the provisions of the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2016-09, Compensation-Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Improvements to Employee Share-Based Payment Accounting, on January 1, 2017. Under ASU No. 2016-09, excess tax benefits generated by the settlement or exercise of stock-based awards of $30.5 million in the second quarter of 2017 are recognized as a reduction to the income tax provision rather than additional paid-in capital. The 2016 effective income tax rate is lower than the statutory rate of 35% due primarily to the non-deductible portion of the goodwill impairment at the Publishing segment, partially offset by state taxes.

We expect the third quarter and full year income tax provision to be impacted by employees exercising stock options which will create an income tax benefit due to the same application of ASU No. 2016-09 as discussed above, which could be significant depending on the volume of exercise activity.

IAC'S PRINCIPLES OF FINANCIAL REPORTING

IAC reports Adjusted EBITDA as a supplemental measure to U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). This measure is one of the primary metrics by which we evaluate the performance of our businesses, on which our internal budgets are based and by which management is compensated. We believe that investors should have access to, and we are obligated to provide, the same set of tools that we use in analyzing our results. This non-GAAP measure should be considered in addition to results prepared in accordance with GAAP, but should not be considered a substitute for or superior to GAAP results. IAC endeavors to compensate for the limitations of the non-GAAP measure presented by providing the comparable GAAP measure with equal or greater prominence and descriptions of the reconciling items, including quantifying such items, to derive the non-GAAP measure. We encourage investors to examine the reconciling adjustments between the GAAP and non-GAAP measure, which we discuss below.

Definition of IAC's Non-GAAP Measure

Adjusted Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization ("Adjusted EBITDA") is defined as operating income excluding: (1) stock-based compensation expense; (2) depreciation; and (3) acquisition-related items consisting of (i) amortization of intangible assets and impairments of goodwill and intangible assets, if applicable, and (ii) gains and losses recognized on changes in the fair value of contingent consideration arrangements. We believe this measure is useful for analysts and investors as this measure allows a more meaningful comparison between our performance and that of our competitors. Moreover, our management uses this measure internally to evaluate the performance of our business as a whole and our individual business segments, and this measure is one of the primary metrics by which our internal budgets are based and by which management is compensated. The above items are excluded from our Adjusted EBITDA measure because these items are non-cash in nature, and we believe that by excluding these items, Adjusted EBITDA corresponds more closely to the cash operating income generated from our business, from which capital investments are made and debt is serviced. Adjusted EBITDA has certain limitations in that it does not take into account the impact to IAC's statement of operations of certain expenses.

For a reconciliation of operating income (loss) by reportable segment and net earnings attributable to IAC shareholders to Adjusted EBITDA for the three and six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016, see "Note 8—Segment Information" to the consolidated financial statements included in "Item 1—Consolidated Financial Statements."

Non-Cash Expenses That Are Excluded From IAC's Non-GAAP Measure

Stock-based compensation expense consists principally of expense associated with the grants of stock options, restricted stock units ("RSUs"), performance-based RSUs and market-based awards. These expenses are not paid in cash, and we include the related shares in our fully diluted shares outstanding using the treasury stock method; however, performance-based RSUs and market-based awards are included only to the extent the applicable performance or market condition(s) has been met (assuming the end of the reporting period is the end of the contingency period). Upon the exercise of stock options and market-based stock options, the awards are gross settled, and the vesting of RSUs, performance-based RSUs and market-based RSUs, the awards are settled on a net basis, with the Company remitting the required tax-withholding amount from its current funds.

Depreciation is a non-cash expense relating to our property and equipment and is computed using the straight-line method to allocate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated useful lives or, in the case of leasehold improvements, the lease term, if shorter.

Amortization of intangible assets and impairments of goodwill and intangible assets are non-cash expenses related primarily to acquisitions. At the time of an acquisition, the identifiable definite-lived intangible assets of the acquired company, such as trade names, technology, content, customer lists and advertiser and supplier relationships, are valued and amortized over their estimated lives. Value is also assigned to acquired indefinite-lived intangible assets, which comprise trade names and trademarks, and goodwill that are not subject to amortization. An impairment is recorded when the carrying value of an intangible asset or goodwill exceeds its fair value. We believe that intangible assets represent costs incurred by the acquired company to build value prior to acquisition and the related amortization and impairment charges of intangible assets or goodwill, if applicable, are not ongoing costs of doing business.

Gains and losses recognized on changes in the fair value of contingent consideration arrangements are accounting adjustments to report contingent consideration liabilities at fair value. These adjustments can be highly variable and are excluded from our assessment of performance because they are considered non-operational in nature and, therefore, are not indicative of current or future performance or the ongoing cost of doing business.

The Company invests in marketable debt securities with active secondary or resale markets to ensure portfolio liquidity to fund current operations or satisfy other cash requirements as needed. The Company also may invest in equity securities as part of its investment strategy.

At June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, cash and cash equivalents includes Match Group's domestic and international cash and cash equivalents of $310.1 million and $182.6 million; and $114.0 million and $139.6

million, respectively. Match Group is a separate and distinct legal entity with its own public shareholders and board of directors and has no obligation to provide the Company with funds. As a result, we cannot freely access the cash of Match Group and its subsidiaries. Match Group generated $153.2 million and $120.4 million of operating cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively. In addition, agreements governing Match Group's indebtedness limit the payment of dividends or distributions, loans or advances to stockholders, including the Company, in the event a default has occurred or Match Group's leverage ratio (as defined in the indentures) exceeds 5.0 to 1.0.

The Match Group Term Loan matures on November 16, 2022; provided that, if any of the 2015 Match Group Senior Notes remain outstanding on the date that is 91 days prior to the maturity date of the 2015 Match Group Senior Notes, the Match Group Term Loan maturity date shall be the date that is 91 days prior to the maturity date of the 2015 Match Group Senior Notes.

Cash Flow Information

In summary, the Company's cash flows are as follows:

	Six Months Ended
	June 30,
	2017	2016
	(In thousands)
Net cash provided by operating activities	$157,706	$83,194
Net cash provided by investing activities	99,124	18,971
Net cash used in financing activities	(69,135)	(336,338)

Net cash provided by operating activities attributable to continuing operations consists of earnings from continuing operations, adjusted for stock-based compensation expense, depreciation, amortization of intangibles, goodwill impairment, deferred income taxes, acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments, adjustments related to gains on the sale of businesses and investments, impairments of long-term investments, an acquisition-related contingent consideration payment, and the effect of changes in working capital. Adjustments to earnings primarily consist of $72.9 million of stock-based compensation expense, $38.2 million of depreciation, $19.7 million of net gains on sale of businesses and investments, $17.8 million of amortization of intangibles, $11.1 million of an acquisition-related contingent consideration payment, $6.6 million of deferred income taxes, $4.9 million of acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments, $4.8 million of impairment of long-term investments, and $22.6 million of other adjustments, which primarily consists of bad debt expense. The deferred tax provision primarily relates to the settlement of stock-based awards. The decrease from changes in working capital consist primarily of a change in income taxes payable and receivable of $59.7 million, an increase in accounts receivable of $22.8 million, an increase in other assets of $18.5 million, partially offset by an increase in deferred revenue of $15.2 million. The change in income taxes payable and receivable primarily relates to the settlement of stock-based awards. The excess tax benefit from stock-based awards was $57.3 million. The increase in accounts receivable is primarily due to revenue growth at HomeAdvisor and Match Group. The increase in other assets is primarily related to an increase in prepaid marketing at HomeAdvisor and an increase in prepaid hosting service contracts at Match Group. The increase in deferred revenue is due mainly to growth in membership revenue at Match Group, HomeAdvisor and Vimeo, partially offset by decreases at Electus and Notional mainly due to the delivery of programming related to various production deals.

Net cash provided by investing activities includes net proceeds from sale of businesses and investments of $119.7 million, which is primarily related to the sale of The Princeton Review, and proceeds (net of purchases) of marketable debt securities of $74.4 million, partially offset by $49.2 million of cash used for the HomeStars and MyBuilder acquisitions, and capital expenditures of $41.8 million, primarily related to the Company's purchase of a 50% ownership interest in an aircraft and Match Group and HomeAdvisor investments in internal development of software to support their products and services, as well as computer hardware.

Net cash used in financing activities includes $56.4 million for the repurchase of 0.8 million shares of common stock at an average price of $69.24 per share, $49.9 million for the payment of withholding taxes on behalf of IAC employees for stock-based awards that are net settled, $31.6 million for the redemption and repurchase of a portion of the 2012 and 2013 Senior Notes, $28.4 million for the payment of withholding taxes on behalf of Match Group employees for stock-based awards that are net settled, and $12.4 million for the purchase of noncontrolling interests, partially offset by $48.1 million in proceeds related to the issuance of IAC common stock pursuant to stock-based awards, $39.4 million in proceeds related to the issuance of Match Group common stock pursuant to stock-based awards, a $20.1 million decrease in restricted cash that relates to settled IAC bond redemptions, and $10.6 million of funds returned from escrow for the MyHammer tender offer.

Adjustments to earnings primarily consist of $275.4 million of goodwill impairment at the Publishing segment, $90.9 million of deferred income taxes, $58.9 million of stock-based compensation expense, $50.8 million of amortization of intangibles, $33.4 million of depreciation, $13.1 million of net gains on the sale of businesses and investments, $10.5 million of acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments, and $14.0 million in other adjustments that consist mostly of non-cash losses on the extinguishment of Match Group and IAC debt. The deferred income tax benefit primarily relates to the Publishing goodwill impairment. The decrease from changes in working capital consist primarily of a decrease in accounts payable and other current liabilities of $88.2 million and a decrease in income taxes payable of $48.0 million, partially offset by a decrease in accounts receivable of $47.9 million and an increase in deferred revenue of $32.6 million. The decrease in accounts payable and other current liabilities is due to (i) a decrease in accrued advertising and revenue share expense at Publishing and Applications mainly due to the effect of the new services agreement with Google in the second quarter of 2016, (ii) a decrease in accrued employee compensation and benefits mainly related to the payment of 2015 cash bonuses in 2016, (iii) a decrease in payables at Match Group due to timing of payments, and (iv) a decrease in VAT payables related mainly to timing of payments. The decrease in income taxes payable is primarily due to the payment of 2015 tax liabilities in 2016. The excess tax benefit from stock-based awards was $21.9 million. The decrease in accounts receivable is mainly due to a decrease at Publishing due to lower revenue related to the new services agreement with Google, partially offset by an increase at HomeAdvisor due to revenue growth. The increase in deferred revenue is mainly due to growth in prepaid revenue at Match Group, HomeAdvisor, SlimWare (in the Applications segment) and Vimeo.

Net cash provided by investing activities includes net proceeds from the sale of businesses and investments of $103.7 million, which mainly consists of proceeds from the sale of PriceRunner, partially offset by purchases (net of sales and maturities) of marketable debt securities of $46.9 million, capital expenditures of $35.1 million, primarily related to Match Group and HomeAdvisor investments in internal development of software to support their products and services, as well as leasehold improvements and computer hardware, and cash used in investments and acquisitions of $7.6 million.

Net cash used in financing activities includes $214.6 million for the repurchase of 4.7 million shares of common stock at an average price of $45.34 per share, $61.1 million for the repurchase of a portion of the 2012 and 2013 Senior Notes, a $30.0 million increase in restricted cash that relates to unsettled IAC bond redemptions, $24.0 million payment of withholding taxes on behalf of IAC employees for awards that are net settled, $6.5 million payment of withholding taxes on behalf of Match Group employees for awards that are net settled, $4.6 million in debt issuance costs related to the 2016 Match Group Senior Notes, $2.4 million for the purchase of noncontrolling interests, and $2.2 million in acquisition-related contingent consideration payments, partially offset by $11.0 million in proceeds related to the issuance of IAC common stock pursuant to stock-based awards and $8.7 million in proceeds related to the issuance of Match Group common stock pursuant to stock-based awards. Additionally, a payment of $410.0 million was made toward the Match Group Term Loan, of which $400.0 million was financed by the issuance of the 2016 Match Group Senior Notes.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's principal sources of liquidity are its cash and cash equivalents and marketable securities as well as cash flows generated from operations. IAC has a $300 million revolving credit facility that expires on October 7, 2020. Match Group has a $500 million revolving credit facility that expires on October 7, 2020. At June 30, 2017, there were no outstanding borrowings under the IAC Credit Facility or the Match Group Credit Facility.

At June 30, 2017, IAC had 8.6 million shares remaining in its share repurchase authorization. IAC may purchase shares over an indefinite period of time on the open market and in privately negotiated transactions, depending on those factors IAC management deems relevant at any particular time, including, without limitation, market conditions, share price and future outlook.

In May 2017, the Board of Directors of Match Group authorized Match Group to repurchase up to 6 million shares of its common stock. The timing and actual number of any shares repurchased will depend on a variety of factors, including price, general business and market conditions, and alternative investment opportunities. Match Group is not obligated to purchase any shares under the repurchase program, and repurchases may be commenced, suspended or discontinued from time to time without prior notice. Match Group did not repurchase any shares related to this repurchase authorization during the quarter ended June 30, 2017.

IAC's consolidated cash and cash equivalents at June 30, 2017 were $1.5 billion, of which $492.7 million was held by Match Group. The Company generated $157.7 million of operating cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2017, of which $153.2 million was generated by Match Group. Match Group is a separate and distinct legal entity with its own public shareholders and board of directors and has no obligation to provide the Company with funds. As a result, we cannot freely access the cash of the Match Group and its subsidiaries. In addition, agreements governing Match Group's indebtedness limit the payment of dividends or distributions and loans or advances to stockholders, including the Company, in the event a default has occurred or Match Group's leverage ratio (as defined in the indentures) exceeds 5.0 to 1.0.

The Company anticipates that it will need to make capital and other expenditures in connection with the development and expansion of its operations. The Company's 2017 capital expenditures are expected to be higher than 2016 by approximately 5% to 10%, driven, in part, by HomeAdvisor's sales center and corporate headquarters expansion and the Company's purchase of a 50% ownership interest in an aircraft in the second quarter of 2017 for approximately $15 million. This aircraft is expected to replace the older of the Company's two existing jointly-owned aircrafts, which is currently being marketed for sale.

Awards made under our subsidiary denominated equity plans are settled on a net basis, with the award holder entitled to receive a payment in IAC shares equal to the intrinsic value of the award at exercise less an amount equal to the required cash tax withholding payment. In early July 2017, Tinder, Inc. ("Tinder") denominated equity awards were converted into Match Group, Inc. ("Match Group") tandem stock options ("tandem awards"). The Match Group tandem awards may be exercised on a gross or net basis at the election of the award holder. If the award holder elects to exercise the award on a gross basis, the award holder is obligated to tender cash for the strike price and the withholding taxes due upon exercise and receives a number of Match Group common shares equal to the number of options exercised. If the award holder elects to exercise the award on a net basis, the award holder will receive, at the Company's discretion, either (i) IAC common shares or (ii) Match Group common shares equal to the intrinsic value of the Match Group tandem award, in each case, less the amount required to cover the withholding taxes, which are remitted to the government in cash by Match Group on behalf of the award holder. In the event that IAC common shares are issued in settlement, Match Group will issue its common shares or pay cash to IAC as reimbursement for the IAC common shares issued to the award holders pursuant to the Employee Matters Agreement. The cash tax withholding payments will vary based on the ultimate number of awards exercised, the intrinsic value of the awards upon exercise and relevant withholding tax rates. We expect a reduction in future corporate income taxes equal to a substantial portion of any such withholding tax payments by virtue of the income tax deduction we will recognize based on the intrinsic value of the awards at exercise. However, there will be some delay in the timing of the realization of the cash benefit of the income tax deduction because it will be dependent upon the amount and timing of future taxable income and the timing of estimated income tax payments. If the Company elects to settle the Match Group tandem awards in IAC shares, we will receive Match Group shares equal in value to the IAC shares issued. If the Company elects to settle these awards in Match Group shares, our ownership interest in Match Group will be diluted. If these awards were to be settled in IAC shares, using IAC's common stock price on July 28, 2017 and an assumed 50% withholding tax rate, the number of shares of IAC common stock that would be required to net settle the vested and unvested tandem awards is 3.2 million common shares. Assuming Match Group reimbursed IAC in its common shares, IAC's economic ownership interest in Match Group would increase to 82.5%. The Company currently expects to settle a sufficient number of exercises in IAC shares to maintain an economic interest in Match Group of at least 80%.

The Company believes its existing cash, cash equivalents, marketable securities and expected positive cash flows generated from operations will be sufficient to fund our normal operating requirements, including capital expenditures, debt service, the payment of withholding taxes on behalf of employees for net-settled stock-based awards, and investing and other commitments for the foreseeable future. The Company's liquidity could be negatively affected by a decrease in demand for our products and services. The Company's indebtedness could limit our ability to: (i) obtain additional financing to fund working capital needs, acquisitions, capital expenditure or debt service or other requirements; and (ii) use operating cash flow to make acquisitions, capital expenditures, invest in other areas, such as developing properties and exploiting business opportunities, in the event a default has occurred or in certain circumstances our leverage ratio (as defined in the indenture) exceeds 3.0 to 1.0. The Company may make additional acquisitions and investments and, as a result, the Company may need to raise additional capital through future debt or equity financing to provide for greater financial flexibility. Additional financing may not be available at all or on terms favorable to us.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

The Company monitors and evaluates on an ongoing basis its disclosure controls and internal control over financial reporting in order to improve its overall effectiveness. In the course of these evaluations, the Company modifies and refines its internal processes as conditions warrant.

As required by Rule 13a-15(b) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), IAC management, including our principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as defined by Rule 13a-15(e) under the Exchange Act. Based on this evaluation, management has concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of the end of the period covered by this report in providing reasonable assurance that information we are required to disclose in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and Forms, and include controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive and principal financial officers, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

There were no changes to the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the period covered by this report that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II

OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

Overview

In the ordinary course of business, the Company and its subsidiaries are parties to litigation involving property, personal injury, contract, intellectual property and other claims, as well as stockholder derivative actions, class action lawsuits and other matters. The amounts that may be recovered in such matters may be subject to insurance coverage. Although the results of legal proceedings and claims cannot be predicted with certainty, neither the Company nor any of our subsidiaries is currently a party to any legal proceedings the outcome of which, we believe, if determined adversely to us, would individually or in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations.

Rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission require the description of material pending legal proceedings (other than ordinary, routine litigation incident to the registrant's business) and advise that proceedings ordinarily need not be described if they primarily involve damages claims for amounts (exclusive of interest and costs) not exceeding 10% of the current assets of the registrant and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis. In the judgment of IAC management, none of the pending litigation matters which we are defending, including those described below, involves or is likely to involve amounts of that magnitude. The litigation matters described below involve issues or claims that may be of particular interest to our stockholders, regardless of whether any of these matters may be material to our financial position or operations based upon the standard set forth in the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Delaware Law Class Action Litigation against IAC

As previously disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016, on November 21, 2016, following the Company's announcement in its Definitive Proxy Statement of a proposal to adjust the Company's capital structure by adopting an amendment and restatement of the Company's certificate of incorporation (the "New Certificate") to establish a new class of non-voting capital stock, which would be known as Class C common stock, and potentially declaring and paying a dividend of one share of the Class C common stock for each outstanding share of IAC common stock and Class B common stock (the "Dividend" and, together with the adoption of the New Certificate, the "Class C Issuance"), a putative class action lawsuit was filed in the Delaware Court of Chancery against the Company and its Board of Directors purportedly on behalf of the Company's stockholders. See Miller et al. v. IAC/InterActiveCorp et al., C.A. No. 12929-VCL (Del. Ch. Ct.). The lawsuit generally alleged, among other things, that IAC's directors breached their fiduciary duties in connection with the proposed Class C Issuance inasmuch as it was allegedly designed to unduly benefit the Company's Chairman and Senior Executive, Barry Diller, in respect of his alleged voting control of the Company and would harm IAC's public stockholders. Among other remedies, the lawsuit sought to enjoin the filing of the New Certificate with the Delaware Secretary of State, as well as unspecified money damages.

On November 22, 2016 and December 12, 2016, two additional putative class action lawsuits were filed in the Delaware Court of Chancery against the Company and its Board of Directors purportedly on behalf of the Company's stockholders and asserting substantially similar allegations, claims and remedies as in the Miller lawsuit. See Halberstam v. Bronfman et al., C.A. No. 12935-VCL (Del. Ch. Ct.), and California Public Employees' Retirement System v. IAC/InterActiveCorp et al., No. 12975-VCL (Del. Ch. Ct.). All three lawsuits were consolidated as In re IAC/InterActiveCorp Class C Reclassification Litigation, No. 12975-VCL, and the Court designated the CalPERS complaint as the operative complaint in the case and established a case schedule. On January 23, 2017 and February 3, 2017, the defendants filed answers denying the material allegations of the complaint.

On June 21, 2017, in light of, among other things, recent developments making it unlikely that the litigation would be finally resolved until late 2018 or 2019 and the burden and distraction that the litigation would likely impose on the Company and its management, the Company's Board of Directors determined not to proceed with the Class C Issuance. On June 26, 2017, the Court, pursuant to the parties' agreed stipulation, issued an order: (i) dismissing the litigation as moot in light of the Company's determination not to proceed with the Class C Issuance and (ii) retaining jurisdiction for purposes of determining the plaintiffs' contemplated application for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses.

Securities Class Action Litigation against Match Group

As previously disclosed in our 2016 quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016, on February 26, 2016, a putative nationwide class action was filed in federal court in Texas against Match Group, five of its officers and directors, and twelve underwriters of Match Group's initial public offering in November 2015. See David M. Stein v. Match Group, Inc. et al., No. 3:16-cv-549 (U.S. District Court, Northern District of Texas). The complaint alleged that Match Group's registration statement and prospectus issued in connection with its initial public offering were materially false and misleading given their failure to state that: (i) Match Group's Non-dating business would miss its revenue projection for the quarter ended December 31, 2015, and (ii) ARPPU (as defined in "Item 2-Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations-General-Key Terms") would decline substantially in the quarter ended December 31, 2015. The complaint asserted that these alleged failures to timely disclose material information caused Match Group's stock price to drop after the announcement of its earnings for the quarter ended December 31, 2015. The complaint pleaded claims under the Securities Act of 1933 for untrue statements of material fact in, or omissions of material facts from, the registration statement, the prospectus, and related communications in violation of Sections 11 and 12 and, as to the officer/director defendants only, control-person liability under Section 15 for Match Group's alleged violations. The complaint sought among other relief class certification and damages in an unspecified amount.

On March 9, 2016, a virtually identical class action complaint was filed in the same court against the same defendants by a different named plaintiff. See Stephany Kam-Wan Chan v. Match Group, Inc. et al., No. 3:16-cv-668 (U.S. District Court, Northern District of Texas). On April 25, 2016, Judge Boyle in the Chan case issued an order granting the parties' joint motion to transfer that case to Judge Lindsay, who is presiding over the earlier-filed Stein case. On April 27, 2016, various current or former Match Group shareholders and their respective law firms filed motions seeking appointment as lead plaintiff(s) and lead or liaison counsel for the putative class. On April 28, 2016, the Court issued orders: (i) consolidating the Chan case into the Stein case, (ii) approving the parties' stipulation to extend the defendants' time to respond to the complaint until after the Court has appointed a lead plaintiff and lead counsel for the putative class and has set a schedule for the plaintiff's filing of a consolidated complaint and the defendants' response to that pleading, and (iii) referring the various motions for appointment of lead plaintiff(s) and lead or liaison counsel for the putative class to a United States Magistrate Judge for determination. In accordance with this order, the consolidated case is now captioned Mary McCloskey et ano. v. Match Group, Inc. et al., No. 3:16-CV-549-L. On June 9, 2016, the Magistrate Judge issued an order appointing two lead plaintiffs, two law firms as co-lead plaintiffs' counsel, and a third law firm as plaintiffs' liaison counsel.

On July 27, 2016, the parties submitted to the Court a joint status report proposing a schedule for the plaintiffs' filing of a consolidated amended complaint and the parties' briefing of the defendants' contemplated motion to dismiss the consolidated complaint. On August 17, 2016, the Court issued an order approving the parties' proposed schedule. On September 9, 2016, in accordance with the schedule, the plaintiffs filed an amended consolidated complaint. The new pleading focuses solely on allegedly misleading statements or omissions concerning the Match Group's Non-dating business. The defendants filed motions to dismiss the amended consolidated complaint on November 8, 2016. The plaintiffs filed oppositions to the motions on December 23, 2016, and the defendants filed replies to the oppositions on February 6, 2017. We and Match Group believe that the allegations in these lawsuits, and the material allegations and claims therein, are without merit and intend to continue to defend against them vigorously.

Securities Class Action Litigation Challenging HomeAdvisor's Combination with Angie's List

On July 18, 2017, a purported shareholder class action was filed in federal court in Indianapolis against Angie's List, the members of its board of directors, the Company, and two related corporate entities, asserting violations of the federal securities laws based upon alleged material omissions from the registration statement filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission describing the proposed combination of the HomeAdvisor and Angie's List businesses into a single, publicly traded company. See Parshall v. Angie's List, Inc. et al., No. 1:17-cv-2418 (U.S. District Court, Southern District of Indiana). On July 20, 2017, a second, substantially similar purported shareholder class action was filed in the same court. See Pill v. Angie's List, Inc. et al., No. 1:17-cv-2461 (U.S. District Court, Southern District of Indiana). The gravamen of the complaints in these lawsuits is that the registration statement is materially misleading to Angie's List's shareholders because it omitted: (i) certain financial projections, assumptions and other information relied upon by Angie's List's financial advisors in rendering their fairness opinions with respect to the proposed combination, (ii) certain information about Angie's List's board members' potential conflicts of interest and (iii) certain information about the background of the transaction. The complaints assert violations of Sections 14-a and 20-a of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and seek to enjoin the transaction, require the issuance of a revised registration statement and rescind the transaction and obtain damages should it go forward. The Company has not yet been served in either case.

The Company believes that the allegations in these lawsuits are without merit and will defend vigorously against them.
