ANNEX A

Disposition of Agilent's Healthcare Solutions Business

Edgar Filing: AGILENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 8-K

On August 1, 2001, Agilent Technologies, Inc. ("Agilent") completed the sale of its healthcare solutions business to Koninklijke Philips Electronics, N.V. ("Philips") pursuant to an Asset Purchase Agreement for a total purchase price of $1.7 billion. Philips paid initial proceeds of $1.6 billion to Agilent on August 1, 2001, with further payments to follow pursuant to the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement dated as of November 17, 2000, as amended and supplemented by the Amendment and Supplemental Agreement, dated as of August 1, 2001. Agilent expects to receive the majority of these additional payments within one year, subject to Agilent's performance of certain services for Philips. In addition, the purchase price is subject to adjustment based on an independent audit of the purchased net assets.

Agilent plans to apply some of the proceeds to pay back all of its short-term debt. The remaining proceeds will be added to existing operating cash reserves. Most of Agilent's healthcare solutions business' operational facilities and certain of its associated assets and liabilities were transferred to Philips. Agilent is restricted from competing in the development, manufacturing, selling or servicing of certain medical products for five years. For an incremental fee, Agilent will provide certain support services to Philips for at least twelve months.

For the purposes of this document, the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements of Agilent set forth below are used to show the effects of the sale of Agilent's healthcare solutions business as if it occurred on April 30, 2001 for balance sheet purposes, based on certain estimates and assumptions. Agilent used April 30, 2001 because it marks the end of the latest fiscal period for which financial information is publicly available. These unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements may not be indicative of Agilent's financial position at any future date.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements of Agilent set forth below consist of an unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet and the associated footnotes as of April 30, 2001. Agilent's unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statements of earnings for the six months ended April 30, 2001 and for the twelve months ended October 31, 2000 are not presented because there were no material pro forma adjustments for these periods. If unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statements of earnings for the six months ended April 30, 2001 and for the twelve months ended October 31, 2000 had been presented, interest expense of approximately $16 million and $2 million, respectively, would have been removed from these periods. Because of its non-recurring nature, the net gain resulting from the sale would not be reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statements of earnings had they been presented.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet gives effect to Agilent's receipt of the initial proceeds of $1.6 billion from Philips as if such transaction had occurred on April 30, 2001. Certain adjustments expected to occur as a result of the sale have been reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet. Determination of the actual net assets sold to Philips, the total purchase price and the gain on sale is subject to various post-closing adjustments and the performance of certain services.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet should be read in conjunction with Agilent's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2000, the quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended April 30, 2001 and the current report on Form 8-K filed on June 29, 2001.

The accompanying notes are an integral part of this unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet.

Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet

- (A) Reflects initial proceeds of $1.6 billion received by Agilent from Philips of the total purchase price of $1.7 billion. The Asset Purchase Agreement, dated as of November 17, 2000, as amended and supplemented by the Amendment and Supplemental Agreement, dated as of August 1, 2001, details additional payments by Philips which are contingent upon Agilent's performance of certain services for Philips. In addition, the purchase price is subject to adjustment based on an independent audit of the purchased net assets.
- (B) Reflects repayment of notes payable and short-term borrowings. Agilent intends to use the proceeds to repay borrowings. For the purposes of this unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet, it has been assumed that all short-term debt is repaid on April 30, 2001.
- (C) Reflects estimated gain resulting from the sale of the healthcare solutions business to Philips and other assets and liabilities incurred or relieved as a result of the sale. The net estimated gain on sale as of April 30, 2001 is recorded as an increase to retained earnings in the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet. The final pre-tax gain amount will be determined based on the excess of proceeds received over the actual carrying value of the healthcare solutions business' net assets as of August 1, 2001 less direct costs associated with the sale. The pro forma gain does not give effect to any contingent payments which may be received in the future, as discussed in Note (A) above.

The following represents a summary of the components of the estimated gain on sale as of April 30, 2001:

(in millions)

Initial proceeds from sale	$1,600	(A)
Net investment in discontinued operations	(613)	(D)
Divestiture costs	(29)	(1)
Pension gain	37	(2)
Stock-related compensation charges	(33)	(3)
Deferred taxes	(90)	(4)

Estimated gain before tax	872
Provision for taxes	340	(5)

Net estimated gain before purchase price adjustments	$532
	=====

- (1) Estimated divestiture costs such as legal fees, consultants' fees and other third-party incremental expenses directly related to the sale of the healthcare solutions business.

Edgar Filing: AGILENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 8-K

- (2) Estimated curtailment and settlement gain for Agilent's U.S. and international pension plans. This estimate was based on a plan-by-plan analysis of Agilent's defined benefit, defined contribution, excess benefit and post-retirement benefit plans for U.S. and international locations.
 - (3) Estimated non-cash charges related to stock option and purchase plan modifications in connection with the sale of the healthcare solutions business.
 - (4) Estimated charge for net deferred tax assets related to the healthcare solutions business.
 - (5) Estimated income tax provision at a rate of 39% for the gain on sale of the healthcare solutions business.
- (D) Reflects Agilent's net investment in its healthcare solutions business as of April 30, 2001, which includes certain assets (such as goodwill) and liabilities (such as restructuring liabilities) that will not be transferred to Philips. This amount is not indicative of Agilent's net investment at the close date.
