Information About this Proxy Statement

We sent you this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card because our board of directors is soliciting your proxy to vote your shares at the meeting. If you own shares of common stock in the Company in more than one account, such as individually and also jointly with your spouse, you may receive more than one set of these materials. Please make sure to vote all of your shares. This proxy statement summarizes information we are required to provide to you under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission which are designed to assist you in voting your shares. On or about April 22, 2002, we began mailing the proxy materials to all stockholders of record at the close of business on April 17, 2002.

Information About Voting

You may vote your shares at the annual meeting only if you are a stockholder of record at the close of business on April 17, 2002. Each share is entitled to one vote. As of April 17, 2002, there were 63,889,641 shares outstanding.

Information Regarding Tabulation of the Vote

We will tabulate all votes cast at the meeting and will appoint one of our officers to act as inspector of election at the meeting.

Quorum Requirement

Stockholders owning a majority of our shares must be present in person or by proxy in order for action to be taken at the meeting. For these purposes, "abstentions" and "broker non-votes" will be counted as present for determining whether a majority is present. A broker non-vote occurs when shares registered in the name of a broker are not voted because the broker does not have the authority to do so. A broker non-vote will have no effect on the matters scheduled to be considered at the annual meeting.

Information About Votes Necessary for Action to be Taken

The seven individuals receiving the greatest number of votes will be elected to serve as directors; provided that a majority of these individuals must be independent. A person is considered to be "independent" under our governing documents if he or she: (1) is not affiliated with The Inland Group, Inc. or any of its affiliates; (2) does not serve as a director for more than two real estate investment trusts organized by The Inland Group and its affiliates; (3) performs no other services for us except as a director; and (4) does not own more than ten percent (10%) of our issued and outstanding common stock. Ratification of KPMG LLP as our independent auditor requires a "yes" vote from a majority of the votes actually cast on the matter.

Costs of Proxies

We will pay all the costs of soliciting proxies and holding the annual meeting. We have not retained a third party to assist in this process. Instead, proxies will be solicited solely by our directors, officers or employees. We will not pay any additional compensation to these individuals for these activities. We also intend to request that brokers, banks and other nominees solicit proxies from their principals. We will pay the brokers, banks and other nominees for certain expenses that they incur for these activities.

Other Matters

We are not aware of any other matter which will be presented at the annual meeting. Generally, no business, aside from the items discussed in this proxy statement may be transacted at the meeting. However, if any other matter properly comes before the annual meeting as determined by the chairman of the meeting, your proxies are authorized to act on the proposal at their discretion. Generally, for nominations or other business to be properly brought before the annual meeting by one of our stockholders, the stockholder seeking to make a nomination or bring other business before the meeting must provide, among other things, notice thereof in writing to our secretary at our principal offices not less than forty-five (45) days before the anniversary date on which we first mailed our notice of meeting and proxy materials for the prior year's annual meeting. We mailed the notice and proxy materials for last year's annual meeting on April 30, 2001. Therefore, any stockholder desiring to nominate a person for election to the board or to bring other business before the meeting was required to provide us with notice by March 16, 2002. We did not receive notice of any such proposals by that date.

Available Information

We file reports, proxy materials and other information with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). These reports, proxy materials and other information can be inspected and copied at the Public Reference Section maintained by the SEC at Room 1024, Judiciary Plaza, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549; The Citicorp Center, 500 West Madison Street, Suite 1400, Chicago, Illinois 60661-2511, and at 233 Broadway, New York, New York 10279. Copies can be obtained by mail from the SEC at prescribed rates from the Public Reference Section of the SEC at its principal office in Washington, D.C. The SEC also maintains a site on the World Wide Web (<http://www.sec.gov>) that contains reports, proxy and information statements and other information regarding registrants that file electronically with the SEC.

Independent Director Compensation

The Independent Directors are paid an annual fee of $18,000 plus a fee for each board or committee meeting attended in person or by telephone equal to $750 and $500, respectively. In addition, each year on the date of our annual meeting of stockholders, each Independent Director then in office receives a grant of options to purchase 1,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price equal to the then fair market value of the stock. Messrs. Cosenza, Goodwin and Parks do not receive any fees or other remuneration for serving as directors.

During calendar year 2001, the board met 18 times. Each director serving on the board during 2001 attended all of the board meetings held in 2001, except for Mr. Herter who attended all but one board meeting. Our board also has formed an audit committee and a compensation committee. Ms. Lawton and Messrs. Burris, Herter and Simmons serve on each committee. During calendar year 2001, the audit and compensation committees met four times and one time, respectively. The board has also formed a management committee to oversee the Company's day-to-day operations comprised of Messrs. Cosenza, Goodwin, Parks and Zalatoris. During 2001, the management committee met 12 times.

PROPOSAL NO. 2 RATIFY APPOINTMENT OF KPMG LLP

Our board, on the recommendation of the audit committee, has selected KPMG LLP to serve as our independent auditor for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002. We traditionally ask our stockholders to ratify the selection of an independent auditor, even though your approval is not required. Further, even if you do not approve the selection of KPMG LLP, we will not replace them for this fiscal year due to the added expense and delay that would result from replacing them and selecting a new auditor. Instead, our board will consider the negative vote as a direction to consider a different auditor next year.

KPMG LLP has served as our independent auditor since 1994, and no relationship exists other than the usual relationship between independent public auditor and client. Representatives of KPMG LLP are expected to be available at the annual meeting to respond to questions.

Disclosure of Auditor Fees

The following is a description of the fees billed to us by KPMG during the year ended December 31, 2001:

Audit Fees: We paid audit fees to KPMG in connection with its review and audit of our annual financial statement for the year ended December 31, 2001 and KPMG's review of our interim financial statements included in our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q during the year ended December 31, 2001 totaling approximately $170,000.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees: We did not engage KPMG to provide advice to us regarding financial information systems design and implementation during the year ended December 31, 2001.

Edgar Filing: INLAND REAL ESTATE CORP - Form DEF 14A

All Other Fees: We paid KPMG approximately $66,150 during the year ended December 31, 2001 for all other non-audit services rendered to us by KPMG; comprised primarily of preparation fees associated with multiple tax returns.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD: The board recommends that you vote "FOR" the appointment of KPMG LLP as our independent auditor for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Our Compensation Committee, comprised of each of our independent directors, reviews the compensation structure of our senior management group consisting of Messrs. Parks, Zalatoris, Kayner, Carr and Anderson and makes recommendations to the full board. In fulfilling its responsibilities, the committee, from time to time, retains independent compensation consulting firms. No member of the committee is a former or current officer or employee of the Company or any of our subsidiaries.

The primary focus of our compensation program is to create value for our stockholders by attracting and retaining highly qualified employees at all levels. Our compensation policy for executive officers focuses on two aspects:

base salary; and an annual bonus based on performance criteria and payable in cash, stock or some combination.

Base salaries for our executives are reviewed on an annual basis by the committee and recommendations for an increase made to the full board based upon an assessment of the individual's contributions to our asset and financial growth as well as competitive pay levels in the REIT industry. Incentive compensation bonuses are predicated on the executive satisfying predetermined performance targets based on both the Company's performance and the executive's individual performance. Finally, the committee may recommend to the full board that it grant stock options and restricted common stock to our employees. In determining whether to recommend these grants, the committee generally considers competitive practices in the REIT industry, the executive's scope of responsibility and performance criteria.

As previously disclosed, during this past year, disagreements over the efficacy of compensation arrangements entered into by our former President, Norbert Treonis, and our former Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel, Samuel Orticelli, resulted in Mr. Treonis' resignation and the dismissal of Mr. Orticelli. In Mr. Treonis' case, we entered into a separation agreement pursuant to which the Company paid Mr. Treonis approximately $57,500 for voiding the remaining two years of a contract entered into with Mr. Treonis in December, 2000. In Mr. Orticelli's case, we were unable to agree on a consensual separation agreement and litigation subsequently ensued.

To replace Mr. Treonis, Robert D. Parks agreed to assume the duties of President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Parks had previously served as our President and Chief Executive Officer prior to our merger with our former advisor and property manager. Mr. Parks agreed to take on these additional tasks at no additional compensation above and beyond the consulting arrangement which we agreed to with Mr. Parks at the time of the merger. Under the terms of that agreement, we pay Mr. Parks $50,000 per year. To replace Mr. Orticelli, we entered into an agreement with David J. Kayner to serve as our Secretary and General Counsel. We based Mr. Kayner's compensation on an evaluation of market rates for individuals of similar experience.

In reviewing compensation matters, we consider the anticipated tax treatment to the Company and to our executives of various payments and benefits. The deductibility of some types of compensation payments depends upon the timing of an executive's vesting or exercise of previously granted rights. Furthermore, interpretations of and changes in the tax laws and other factors beyond the compensation committee's control also affect the deductibility of compensation. For these and other reasons, the committee will not necessarily limit executive compensation to that deductible under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. The compensation committee will consider various alternatives to preserving the deductibility of compensation payments and benefits to the extent reasonably practicable and to the extent consistent with its other compensation objectives.

Respectfully submitted by the Compensation Committee

Roland W. Burris
Joel G. Herter

Heidi N. Lawton
Joel D. Simmons

Executive Officer Compensation

On July 1, 2000, we completed our merger with Inland Commercial Property Management, Inc. and Inland Real Estate Advisory Services, Inc. and became a "self-administered" entity. Prior to that date, we did not have any employees or pay any compensation to our executive officers. Instead we paid Inland Real Estate Advisory Services and Inland Commercial Property Management fees for advisory and property management services, respectively. Following the merger, we hired a staff of employees and entered into employment contracts with certain officers, including our former President and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Treonis who resigned in March 2001. Subsequent to Mr. Treonis resigning, Mr. Parks assumed the positions President and Chief Executive Officer. The table below reports compensation paid to both Messrs. Employment Agreements*Robert D. Parks

Robert D. Parks, our Chairman of the Board for the last six years, resumed his duties as President and Chief Executive Officer following the resignation of Mr. Treonis discussed below. As part of the merger, we had previously entered into a one-year consulting agreement with Mr. Parks. This agreement remains in effect. Under this agreement, we pay Mr. Parks an annual salary equal to $50,000. Mr. Parks is also eligible to participate in our benefit plans such as health and disability insurance and 401(k) plans. The agreement automatically renews for an additional one-year period unless either party provides written notice of its intent not to renew not less than thirty days prior to expiration of the then current term. We retain the right to terminate the agreement both with and without "cause" which is defined as:

conduct amounting to fraud, embezzlement or illegal misconduct;

conduct that we reasonably believed has brought us into substantial public disgrace or disrepute;

8

failure by Mr. Parks to perform his duties;

gross negligence or willful misconduct by Mr. Parks with respect to us or our clients, employees and activities; or any other material breach of the agreement or any other agreement to which we and Mr. Parks were a party or, among other things, a material breach of any written policy regarding conflicts of interest, standards of business conduct or fair employment practices.

If we were to terminate Mr. Parks without "cause," we would be required to pay him all base salary, vacation pay, reimbursable expenses, benefits and bonus that had accrued to the date of termination plus a severance payment equal to the base salary that would have been paid during the remaining portion of the then current term plus six additional months of the then current base salary. Mr. Parks has also agreed that during the term of the Agreement and for six months following termination for any reason, he will not compete with the Company, solicit customers or employees or take any action which is or could be reasonably expected to be detrimental to the Company, its affiliates or its and their employees or operations. Mr. Parks' agreement does not contain any provision requiring payment to Mr. Parks if a "change in control" occurs. Further, Mr. Parks is not prohibited from continuing his other business activities including serving as Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of Inland Retail Real Estate Investment Corporation, a real estate investment trust which owns and acquires neighborhood and community shopping centers primarily in the southeastern United States.

Norbert Treonis

As part of the merger and effective on July 1, 2000, our board appointed Norbert Treonis President and Chief Executive Officer and we entered into a one-year employment contract with him. The July agreement with Mr. Treonis required us to pay him a base salary equal to $300,000 per year plus a bonus determined at our discretion.

In December 2000, Mr. Treonis signed a revised employment agreement which provided for a three-year term. Under this December agreement, which became effective on January 1, 2001, we were to pay Mr. Treonis a base salary of $500,000 per year plus an incentive bonus determined in accordance with performance thresholds set forth in the agreement. We were also required to grant Mr. Treonis 90,910 shares of our common stock subject to restrictions set forth in the December agreement plus up to an additional 36,363.64 shares on an annual basis based on our performance.

Under each of the agreements, we retained the right to terminate the agreement for "cause" which was defined in the same manner as in Mr. Parks' consulting agreement. The December agreement also contained a provision requiring us to make payments to Mr. Treonis upon a "Change of Control" which was defined in the December agreement to mean:

that the members of our board as of the date of the agreement failed to constitute a majority of the board; provided that any individual nominated by the board and becoming a member of the board was to be treated as if the person was a member of the board as of the date of the agreement;

the disposition of all, or substantially all, of our assets;

the merger or consolidation with an unaffiliated third person if we were not the surviving entity;

any "person" not affiliated with The Inland Group, Inc. acquired twenty-five percent (25%) or more of our voting shares; or termination or liquidation of the Company.

Subsequent to the signing of the December agreement, our board raised questions regarding representations and disclosures made to it and the board's compensation committee relating to the December agreement. An investigation was commenced and before it was completed, Mr. Treonis resigned in March 2001. As part of Mr. Treonis' resignation, we entered into a "Separation Agreement" with him. Under this agreement, we paid Mr. Treonis $57,451.93 (which, after withholding taxes, was reduced to $34,801.92). In addition, Mr. Treonis canceled and assigned to us any rights he may have had to the shares of our common stock issued under the December agreement. The Separation Agreement contains mutual releases by us and Mr. Treonis of all claims arising from or relating to the signing of the December agreement.

Edgar Filing: INLAND REAL ESTATE CORP - Form DEF 14A

On June 15, 2001, we entered into two agreements with Mark E. Zalatoris, our Senior Vice President, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer, a Supplemental Agreement and a revised employment agreement. Under the Supplemental Agreement, we and Mr. Zalatoris agreed to, among other things: (i) rescind an employment agreement entered into in December 2000 effective immediately; (ii) reinstate the terms of the employment agreement entered into in July 2000 effective immediately; and (iii) enter into a revised employment agreement to be effective July 1, 2001 (the terms of which are described below).

On July 1, 2001, the revised employment agreement became effective. Under the Revised Agreement, which expires on December 31, 2004, we are required to pay Mr. Zalatoris the following base salaries:

January 1, 2002-December 31, 2002:	$190,000
January 1, 2003-December 31, 2003:	$210,000
January 1, 2004-December 31, 2004:	$225,000

Mr. Zalatoris was also paid a cash bonus of $10,000 for the six months ending December 31, 2001. Mr. Zalatoris is also eligible for future cash bonuses, a portion of which is in the discretion of our Chief Executive Officer, of up to 60% of his base salary, calculated annually based on the growth in our funds from operations ("FFO") compared to the median growth rate in FFO published by the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts ("NAREIT") for the entities comprising the "retail property sector."

We also issued to Mr. Zalatoris 909.09 shares of our common stock on January 1, 2002 as additional bonus compensation. So long as Mr. Zalatoris' employment has not been terminated for any reason, on December 31 of each remaining year of the agreement, he will be entitled to additional compensation of up to 18,181.82 shares of our common stock based again on our relative growth in FFO when compared to the NAREIT retail sector. As in the case of the bonus compensation, a portion thereof will be issued at the discretion of our chief executive officer.

All of the shares issued to Mr. Zalatoris are and will be subject to vesting requirements. Twenty percent (20%) of the shares vest on each anniversary of the date of issuance. If Mr. Zalatoris is terminated for "cause" as defined in the agreement, or if he voluntarily terminates his employment, Mr. Zalatoris is required to forfeit all unvested shares. Unless forfeited, Mr. Zalatoris may vote all shares and receive dividends on all shares including those which have not vested.

If the Revised Agreement and Mr. Zalatoris' employment are terminated due to Mr. Zalatoris' death or disability, he (or his estate or beneficiaries) will be entitled to any accrued but unpaid base salary, compensation for unused vacation days accrued as of the termination date, unreimbursed business expenses, vested benefits and the prorated portion of the incentive compensation Mr. Zalatoris received for the year prior to termination. In addition, all unvested shares of stock issued to him as compensation under the employment agreement will immediately vest and no longer be subject to forfeiture. If Mr. Zalatoris' employment is terminated without cause or by him for "good reason," in addition to the compensation set forth in the preceding sentence, he will also be entitled to an amount equal 1.25 times the sum of (A) his then current base salary, and (B) an amount equal to the incentive compensation which Mr. Zalatoris received for the year prior to termination; provided, however, if the termination occurs within two years of a "change of control," then in lieu of the compensation set forth in preceding clause of this sentence, Mr. Zalatoris will be entitled to an amount equal to 2.99 times the sum of (A) his then current base salary, (B) an amount equal to the incentive compensation which Mr. Zalatoris received for the year prior to termination, and (C) the value of any shares of common stock issued to him as compensation under the employment agreement for the year prior to termination.

During the term of the Revised Agreement and for a period of one year following the termination thereof, Mr. Zalatoris has agreed to certain non-compete and non-solicitation provisions.

Stock Option Grants

Under our Independent Director Stock Option Plan, we are authorized to issue options to purchase up to 50,000 shares of our common stock to directors who are not, or have not been for at least five years, an employee or officer of the company or any of our subsidiaries. Each person who satisfies this criteria is issued an option to purchase 3,000 shares upon becoming a member of the board. Thereafter, each person is granted an option to purchase 1,000 shares on the date of each annual meeting assuming the person remains an independent director. The exercise price of each option is equal to fair market value as determined on good faith by our board of directors on the date of the grant. The initial grant of options vest and become exercisable as follows: (1) 1,000 shares on the date of grant, and (2) 1,000 shares on the first and second anniversary of the grant, respectively. All subsequent options vest and become exercisable on the second anniversary of the grant. The latest options granted in June of 2001 have exercise prices of $10.45 per share.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

In accordance with its written charter, which was approved in its current form by our board on April 20, 2001, the Audit Committee assists the board in oversight of the quality and integrity of our accounting, auditing and financial reporting practices.

Management is responsible for the financial reporting process, preparing consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the system of internal controls and procedures designed to ensure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Our independent auditors are responsible for auditing the financial statements. The Audit Committee is responsible for monitoring and reviewing these procedures and processes. The members of the Audit Committee are not professionally engaged in the practice of accounting or auditing and, with the exception of Mr. Herter, are not experts in the fields of accounting or auditing. The Audit Committee relies, without independent verification, on the information provided to it and on the representations made by management and the independent auditors that the financial statements have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

During fiscal 2001, the Audit Committee met four times. The committee discussed the independent auditors' overall scope and plan for its audit of the Company and met with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss their examination and evaluation of our internal controls.

The Audit Committee also discussed with the independent auditors all matters required by generally accepted auditing standards, including those described in Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, "Communication with Audit Committees." The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the Company's audited consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2001 with management and the Company's independent auditors.

The Audit Committee obtained from the independent auditors a formal written statement describing all relationships between the auditors and us that might bear on the auditors' independence consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees." The Audit Committee discussed with the auditors any relationships that may have an impact on their objectivity and independence and satisfied itself as to the auditors' independence. The Audit Committee also inquired into whether the independent auditors provide information technology services and other non-audit services to us and was advised that it does not provide any such services.

Based on the above-mentioned review and discussions with management and the independent auditors, the Audit Committee recommended to our board that our audited consolidated financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

During the year ended December 31, 2001, we purchased various administrative services, such as payroll preparation and management, data processing, insurance consultation and placement, investor relations and mail processing from affiliates of The Inland Group, Inc. These services were purchased from these entities based on an hourly cost assigned to each employee of the affiliate providing the services. The hourly rate is based on the employee's salary, plus a pro rata allocation of overhead including, but not limited to, employee benefits, rent, materials, fees, taxes and operating expenses incurred by each entity in operating their respective businesses. Computer services were purchased at a contract rate of $30.00 per hour. For the year ended December 31, 2001, these expenses totaled $2,479,497. Additionally, we lease our corporate office space from an affiliate of The Inland Group, Inc. Payments under this lease for the year ended December 31, 2001 were $131,160.

For the year ended December 31, 2001, we paid approximately $140,822 for these legal services.

An affiliate of The Inland Group, Inc. holds a mortgage on the Walgreens property, owned by us, located in Decatur, Illinois. As of December 31, 2001, the remaining balance of the mortgage was $668,824. The loan secured by this mortgage bears interest at a rate equal to 7.65% per annum and matures on May 31, 2004.
