ITEM 2.03 CREATION OF A DIRECT FINANCIAL OBLIGATION OR AN OBLIGATION UNDER AN OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENT OF REGISTRANT.

On August 16, 2005, Platinum Underwriters Holdings, Ltd. ( Platinum Holdings ) and Platinum Underwriters Finance, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Platinum Holdings ( Platinum Finance ), entered into a registration rights agreement dated as of August 16, 2005 (the Registration Rights Agreement ) in connection with the closing on August 16, 2005 (the Remarketing Closing Date ) of the remarketing of 6.371% Senior Guaranteed Notes due 2007 (the Senior Notes ). The registration rights agreement provides that Platinum Holdings and Platinum Finance will (i) file a registration statement within 90 days after the Remarketing Closing Date enabling holders to exchange the Senior Notes for publicly registered notes; (ii) use reasonable best efforts to cause the registration statement to become or be declared effective within 180 days after the Remarketing Closing Date; (iii) use best efforts to commence and complete the exchange offer within 45 days after the effective date of the registration statement and keep the exchange offer open for a period of not less than 30 days after notice is mailed to holders; and (iv) file a shelf registration statement for the resale of the Senior Notes if, under the circumstances specified in the registration rights agreement, Platinum Holdings and Platinum Finance are unable to effect the exchange offer. If Platinum Holdings and Platinum Finance do not comply with certain obligations under the registration rights agreement, additional interest shall accrue at a per annum rate of 0.25% of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Senior Notes during the first 90-day period following the occurrence of such registration default and at a per annum rate of 0.50% thereafter for any remaining period in which a registration default continues.

The Senior Notes were issued by Platinum Finance and guaranteed by Platinum Holdings. Interest is payable on the Senior Notes on each May 16 and November 16 commencing on November 16, 2005. The Senior Notes were issued in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act ). The Notes were sold only to qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A of the Securities Act.

Platinum Finance may redeem the Senior Notes, at its option, in whole, but not in part, at any time if a Tax Event as defined in the Indenture dated as of October 10, 2002 (the Base Indenture ), as supplemented by the First Supplemental Indenture dated November 1, 2002 (the First Supplemental Indenture ) and as further supplemented by the Second Supplemental Indenture dated August 16, 2005 (the Second Supplemental Indenture ) (the Base Indenture as supplemented by the First Supplemental Indenture and the Second Supplemental Indenture, the Indenture ) occurs and is continuing. The redemption price for each Senior Note would be the product of the principal amount of the Senior Notes and a fraction the numerator of which is the treasury portfolio purchase price and the denominator of which is the aggregate principal amount of the Senior Notes outstanding on the tax event redemption date. Depending on the amount of the treasury portfolio purchase price, the redemption amount could be less than or greater than the principal amount of the Senior Notes. The treasury portfolio purchase price would be the lowest aggregate price quoted by a primary U.S. government securities dealer in New York City to the quotation agent on the third business day immediately preceding the tax event redemption date for the purchase of the treasury portfolio for settlement on the tax event redemption date.

Under the Indenture, an event of default is defined as any of the following: (i) principal or any premium on a note is not paid on its due date, (ii) interest on a note is not paid on its due date, and such default continues for a period of 30 days, (iii) the deposit of any sinking fund payment is not paid when due, (iv) Platinum Finance or Platinum Holdings remains in breach of a restrictive covenant or any other term of the Indenture for 90 days after Platinum Finance and Platinum Holdings receive a notice of default stating Platinum Finance or Platinum Holdings, as the case may be, is in breach (such notice must be sent by either the trustee or holders of at least 25% of the principal amount of the notes; if the notice is sent by the holders of at least 25% of the principal amount of the notes, the holders must also give notice to the trustee), (v) Platinum Holdings' guarantee of the Senior Notes ceases to be in full force and effect, (vi) a default by Platinum Finance or Platinum Holdings under any debt for money borrowed having an aggregate principal amount outstanding of at least $25 million, or a default by Platinum Finance or Platinum Holdings under any mortgage, indenture or instrument under which there may be issued or may be secured or evidenced any debt for money borrowed of Platinum Finance or Platinum Holdings having an aggregate principal amount outstanding of at least $25 million, which default (A) results because Platinum Finance or Platinum Holdings did not pay any part of the principal of such debt when the principal was due after any applicable grace period expires or (B) causes the debt to become due and payable before the date on which it would otherwise have become due, without, in the case of clause (A), such debt being discharged or without, in the case of clause (B), such debt being discharged or such acceleration having been rescinded or annulled, both within 10 days after the trustee or the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the notes give Platinum Finance or Platinum Holdings notice of the default and require that Platinum Finance or Platinum Holdings remedy the breach, (vii) Platinum Finance or Platinum Holdings files for bankruptcy or certain other events in bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization occur.

On August 16, 2005, Platinum Holdings and Platinum Finance, entered into the Second Supplemental Indenture, with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., in connection with the issuance of the Senior Notes. The Second Supplemental Indenture provides for the issuance by Platinum Finance of up to $137.5 million aggregate principal amount of Series B 6.371% Senior Guaranteed Notes due 2007 (the Series B Notes) guaranteed by Platinum Holdings. The Series B Notes would be issued in exchange for Senior Notes tendered in the exchange offer to be conducted pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement. The Second Supplemental Indenture also provides for the form of certificate representing the Senior Notes.
