PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Despite diligent efforts, the work necessary to complete the accounting and reporting for certain complex areas could not be completed without unreasonable expense and effort in sufficient time to permit filing our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 26, 2006 on the scheduled due date of May 5, 2006. Specifically, the accounting and reporting of stock-based compensation required for the first time this quarter under the newly adopted provisions of SFAS No. 123(R) and the reporting of discontinued operations in connection with the previously announced anticipated disposition of the aluminum suspension components business have required additional time and effort. In addition, the Company is performing additional analysis and other post-closing procedures in its accounting for income taxes and the period-end valuation of its aluminum inventory, which were the subject of the material weaknesses identified in the 2005 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

The Company expects that it will be able to complete the remaining work described above in time for the Company to file its Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 26, 2006 within the five-day extension provided by Rule 12b-25.
