On August 27, 2008, the Board of Directors of Ciena Corporation (Ciena) approved certain amendments to Ciena s Amended and Restated Bylaws (the Bylaws). Article I , Section 4 of the Bylaws was amended to clarify the applicability of Ciena s advance notice provision to all stockholder proposals, whether or not submitted for inclusion in Ciena s proxy statement. Article I, Section 4(A)(3)(c), governing stockholder submission of a proposal or nomination of a person for election as a director, requires a stockholder to include the following information in the advance notice provided to Ciena:

the name and address of such stockholder and any beneficial owner; the class and number of shares that are owned beneficially and of record by the stockholder and any beneficial owner; a representation that the stockholder is entitled to vote at the meeting and intends to attend the meeting to present the proposal or director nomination; and whether the stockholder intends to conduct a proxy solicitation.

This provision was amended to require that the stockholder provide the following additional information:

a description of any agreement, arrangement or understanding between the stockholder, any beneficial owner, any of their affiliates or other persons acting in concert with them, with respect to the nomination or proposal; and a description of any agreement, arrangement or understanding, including any derivative or short positions, profit interests, options, warrants, stock appreciation or similar rights, hedging transactions, and borrowed or loaned shares, entered into as of the notice date by, or on behalf of, the stockholder and any beneficial owner, the effect or intent of which is to mitigate loss, manage risk, benefit from share price changes, or increase or decrease voting power of the stock held by such person.

The preceding summary of the amendments is qualified in its entirety by reference to Ciena s Bylaws, which are attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and are incorporated herein by reference.
