Pursuant to Rule 425 under the
Securities Act of 1933
Deemed filed under Rule 14a-12

Subject Company: MP3.com, Inc.
Exchange Act File Number of Subject Company: 000-26697

This presentation contains "forward-looking statements" as that term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. Actual results may differ materially from the forward-looking statements as a result of a number of risks and uncertainties, many of which are outside our control, including but not limited to: the risk that recently acquired operations will not be integrated successfully; that the synergies expected to be created as a result of recent acquisitions will not materialize; that Vivendi Universal, S.A. ("Vivendi Universal") will be unable to further identify, develop and achieve success for new products, services and technologies; that Vivendi Universal will face increased competition and that the effect on pricing, spending, third-party relationships and revenues of such competition will limit or reduce Vivendi Universal's revenue and/or income; that Vivendi Universal will be unable to establish and maintain relationships with commerce, advertising, marketing, technology, and content providers; and that Vivendi Universal will be unable to obtain or retain, upon acceptable terms, the licenses and permits necessary to operate and expand its businesses; as well as the risks described in the documents Vivendi Universal has filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Investors and security holders are urged to read those documents at the Commission's web site at www.sec.gov. Those documents may also be obtained free of charge from Vivendi Universal.

Vivendi Universal and MP3.com will file a proxy statement/prospectus and other documents regarding their proposed merger with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Investors and security holders are urged to read the proxy statement/prospectus when it becomes available, because it will contain important information about Vivendi Universal and MP3.com and the proposed transaction. A definitive proxy statement/prospectus will be sent to security holders of MP3.com seeking their approval of the transaction. Investors and security holders may obtain a free copy of the definitive proxy statement/prospectus (when available) and other documents filed by Vivendi Universal and MP3.com with the SEC at the SEC's web site at www.sec.gov.

MP3.com, Vivendi Universal and their respective directors, executive officers and certain members of management and other employees may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies of MP3.com stockholders to approve the proposed merger. Such individuals may have interests in the merger, including as a result of holding options or shares of MP3.com stock. A detailed list of the names, affiliations and interests of the participants in the solicitation will be contained in the proxy statement that will be filed by MP3.com with the SEC.

The definitive proxy statement/prospectus and other documents may also be obtained free of cost by directing a request to the following Investor Relations contacts:

IMPORTANT LEGAL DISCLAIMER

This document contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the "safe harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on management's current expectations or beliefs and are subject to a number of factors and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements: inability to identify, develop and achieve success for new products, services and technologies; increased competition and its effect on pricing, spending, third-party relationships and revenue; inability to establish and maintain relationships with commerce, advertising, marketing, technology, and content providers. Vivendi Universal does not undertake any obligation to provide updates or to revise any forward-looking statements. Investors and security holders are urged to read documents filed with the SEC by Vivendi Universal because they contain important information. All these documents may be obtained at www.sec.gov or directly from Vivendi Universal.
